Chapter 45 – Trafic Jamming?

side: Yuki

real name: Kazuya Torino

(Yuki)「I'm setting off. See you later!」

This was the entrance to the Dungeon. I was waving at everyone when I said those words.

(Lutz)「Take care Onii-san. Please take advantage of this trip to look at the continent. I'm sure it will prove useful.」

(Ellis)「You can rest assured Yuki-san and leave the management of the Dungeon to me. I will try my best not to borrow too much of your hands.」

(Millie)「If you fall upon any delicious liquor please bring it to me.」

「Be careful, even if this body is a fake I'm still worried about you.」

(Riel)「If you do as I said, your adventure will pose no problem!!」

(Kaya)「... Take care. And watch out.」

(Aslin)「Onii-chan, I... don't want you to leave～～！！」

(Philia)「Nii-sama! If you can find any weapon or armor shop please bring me some sample!!」

(Labiris)「... Please entrust your body to me. I can also help with the lower part.... I don't have any problem as long as you feel comfortable.」

That sounded bad, Labiris would unmistakably torment my body.

(Yuki)「 Labiris. I'll diligently return home, please be patient until that.」

Grasping Labiris hand, I imagined her in a wedding dress close to a marriage hall.

After what I showed her the image of the bridal night.

(Labiris)「...!? You can trust me. I'll work properly.」

A convincing success.

Incidentally, my body was sleeping on a futon.

Because my metabolism was healthy, at the time of meals or toilet, my body moved in auto mode... It was strange as if it moved by the will of the doppelganger.

And because I took over him for so long, his habits were now similar to mine.

If I had a younger brother, It would feel the same. I mean the personality.

(Lulu)「Herge-sama. The treatment facilities are summarized in the following documents. I'm sorry, I could not help until the end. But If I can return to Ritea, I will definitely...」

(Herge)「Okay, Lulu-sama please take care. I'm all right. Also, I believe we will meet again.」

(?)「I pray that Lulu-sama's wish is fulfilled..」

Like that, Herge-exchanged parting words with Lulu

(Aslin)「Oh, Mauve oji-chan1)uncle and the others, don't be unreasonable!! You promised to play with Philia-chan and me so return soon.... Take care!!」

Aslin called out to the completely forgotten group of Mauve.

The party was surprised but soon harbored smiles.

(Mauve)「Yes, this promise I Shall protect!! I will buy various souvenirs for you!!」

(Aslin)「... You will return home, So...」

(Mauve)「This is definitely a promise I must fulfill!」

Like this, he returned words to Aslin.

But it was dragged on. Did you have to go over it once again?

(Mauve)「Okay, I should say this again.This promise...」

「「「I'm going ! !」」」

「「「Be safe ! !」」」

Thus the hero went on a journey.

Let me correct myself. He was a Dungeon Master.

More accurately, he was a doppelganger.

This was only an image of a hero going on a journey for the first time.

Hoy, I was excited!!

You could see the tension palpitating.

Although it was employing a fake, I was heading outside for the first time!! To the outside world!!

Well, after 30 minutes I eventually grew tired of watching the same landscape which didn't change.

But this continent and Japan are very different.

Because unlike the time I was in Japan, all I could see was an endless plain. There was a forest in the neighborhood, and a mountain that turned bluish from a distance.

(Mauve)「We will need around 1 month to reach the nearest village to procures horses,.」

The composed Mauve said that.

(Yuki)「Oh, you don't have to worry. I will take a vehicle out of my items box.」

(Mauve)「Oh, is your items box able to hold living creatures?」

(Yuki)「No, it's not a living thing.」

Because I was tired of walking it seemed the right thing to do. I had felt like imitating a "green world conquest vehicle."

Well, I fetched something similar.

(Yuki)「Oh oh~.It is bigger than a hummer. The strongest ever made vehicles which even C4 couldn't break. The Maraudeur!2) <http://car-moby.jp/5319>！」

I saw this on the internet recently. It's about 40 million yen.

Of courses with bullet-proof glass, Thick armor, Two spare tires were even included.

Furthermore, they were special tires used to counter. It could trample any ordinary car!!

Going off road was also easy. Indeed useful for this primitive land!!

But did it seem expensive?

No no, surprisingly it was only 30 000DP.

Oh, incidentally 50 000DP were used to level up the doppelganger.
Huh, there was only 500 000 DP so how did I do it? I was going to say it to you.
In this world, false reports are necessary.
In spite of that, I was safe because I bought it before anyone came!!

(Yuki)「Come on. Get in, get in.」

For some reasons, the most rustic said.

(Mauve)「... Is this... A vehicle?」

This reaction was as expected.

(Yuki)「That's right. Grab your sword Mauve and try to hit the glass with full force.」

(Mauve)「Huh? It will break?」

(Yuki)「Do not worry about that, you'll know about the usefulness of this vehicle then. Also, Raija and Curse, try it with your spear and magic.」

(Raija)「Me too?」

(Curse)「Magic would be bad as expected.」

(Yuki)「No no, there's no way with attacks of your level to break this car. Just go with all your strengths. Lulu as well?」

(Lulu)「No, I will refrain.」

This way, the bonus stage from street fighter 2 was ready!

Hmmm, but because they wouldn't be able to break it the bonus couldn't start.

... Ten minutes later...

(Mauve)「How come?This glass!? This glass... Don't talk about breaking it we can't even scratch it.」

(Raija)「What with those weird wheels... The thrusts don't pass... What is it made of?」

(Curse)「.....He, it's still withstanding the flow...。 Impossible!」

The three people ended out of breath.

With the help of various magics, I had raised the vehicle's abilities. They probably won't even be able to scratch the paints. Magic, what a scary thing.

And then, the Marauder

「Okay, the durability seems safe. Come now, guys get on!」

That way I went to the driver's seat.

...Huh? I should have thought this through, wasn't I the only one able to drive?

3) That remind me of the first trap story ahah

Damn it; I won't be able to relax in the passenger seat!?

(Mauve)「... Hey you, come back. Is there a platform to enter?」

(Yuki)「... Nay, I will open the three places.」

They had no concept of cars so they couldn't understand how to use this one. An explanation was given about how to enter and leave.

(Yuki)「Luggages are to be discharged on the back. Put them in a way to not interfere with your sitting.」

(Mauve)「Is it some sort of horse-drawn carriage?」

Mauve and company were muttering while they climbed into the back seat. As to say this was the evolution of horse-drawn carriage was perhaps not a mistake.

(Yuki)「Come on the passenger seat Curse, you'll give me directions.」

(Curse)「Okay」

Curse went to the passenger seat.

(Mauve)「... What about this chair?... The quality to withstand ride is top notch.」

Well, you couldn't compare that with a wooden carriage.

(Mauve)「Incidentally Yuki. Does such a lump of iron move? No, does it even move fast?」

(Yuki)「That, just watch.」

Saying so, I started the engine.

By the way, you didn't need a key to initiate the motor. Instead, it was with the fingertip and magic.

The highest security combined with magic!!

(Yuki)「Did you close the door? I will lock them.」

Because it would be a problem if a door was to be suddenly opened I installed locks.

With a simple manipulation, the door would be locked.

(Lulu)「... Strange, it doesn't have a keyhole.」

Lulu moved toward what locked the car, making sure that there was no key hole.

(Yuki)「Do not open now. Because we will start moving.」

Cautiously, I stepped on the accelerator.

The car began to move slowly.

Okay, there seemed to be no damage to the car and the body.

(Mauve)「Wow. It's working fine, but the speed is a bit...」

Mauve started complaining.

(Yuki)「Then, I'll speed up.」

The speed raised from 10 kilometers per hours to finally reaching 40 Km per hours.

Because the ground wasn't firm, any more than this and the car would flip.

(Curse)「Hah, fast ! ?」

(Raija)「Amazing」

(Mauve)「... With this, we may not even need a week.」

(Yuki)「It's great huh? We can safely travel while enjoying the scenery.」

Because I was the only one who could drive, I played some music for my leisure. Didn't the top theme 「Danger Zone4) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=siwpn14IE7E>」 fit our ride perfectly?

(Lulu)「What's this sound!?」

(Yuki)「No, that's music. I've put it out for my enjoyment.」

(Lulu)「What did you just do? Did you play it?」

(Yuki)「Ah no, I didn't. You start it from within this application. It has a function to record and play sound.」

(Lulu)「This is quite the luxury.」

No, because if you didn't have this for long distance travel, you would become tired.

It could lessen the burden, making the drive more relaxing and comfortable. The current speed was now roughly 70 kilometers. Let see, with this speed I should be able to escape from any of the small provinces in about an hour or so?

Things like traffic laws... They shouldn't exist, should they? Because we were off the road, it was shaking to some extent.

(Yuki)「Then, Curse. Toward which town or village do you think we should head first? Oh of course we will descend in the vicinity. After this, and now I will speak about an important issue. We should hide the car so that no one can reproduce it.」

(Curse)「... That's right. With this speed, we can move forward in a straight line. There is a small town. Kilis.5)キリス街 It's near the borders of Holy Country Ritea and Roshuru Once there, we will have to move by foot to cross the barrier into Ritea.」

(Yuki)「Do we need something to go past the station?」

(Curse)「Basically all we need is money. There is nothing else bothersome whatsoever.... However, it should take around 4 days to reach Kilis with a fast horse. With this thing here nonetheless... We will reach it in one day ...

Watching at the flowing scenery, Curse said seemingly amazed.

(Mauve)「Hey, Yuki. Don't we have to make this rest?」

Mauve's voice came over from the back seat.

(Yuki)「Not at all. This vehicle has yet to reach his serious speed. Besides, it's not a living being. So there is no need for it to rest. Rather, the matter should be about cooling it down instead.」

(Mauve)「Seriously? How convenient.」

(Yuki)「Incidentally, we have to take proper food and drinks. Time is about noon.」

(Mauve)「Oh that's right, I have some proper drink here.」

Said Mauve. After what he pulled a plastic bottle out.

(Raija)「Hey oh, stop drinking alcohol.」

(Mauve)「Baka6) Means fool/idiot Raija. Stay silent!!」

That bastard. Did he fill a plastic bottle with alcohol?

(Yuki)「It's all the same, don't drink. By the way, we didn't seem to see any monster?」

(Curse)「Yes, here is the main road. Strong monsters have been eliminated, but not weak monsters nor thieves. Hey for now Mauve just stop. Yuki he... Is still an amateur After all.」

(Yuki)「Who is an amateur?」

(Curse)「Well, isn't it your first time outside?」

(Mauve)「Hah, after a drink it's time for bed.」

Oh, he looked like a 15-years old innocent boy.

I arranged for Mauve and others, to assist me. When the time came, I expect to be able to count on them.

Lulu too wanted for Mauve's party to follow.

After disguising.

(Mauve)「Nee—chan7) Sister. Give me some tea.」

(Lulu)「...Hah ! ? How did you call me!? It makes me feel great discomfort...」

(Yuki)「Give me some tea」

(Raija)「Ha, yes. Please too」

From the back, I was offered tea.

Opening the cover, I drank with one hand, the other still on the steering.

(Curse)「You're skilled.」

(Lulu)「If you get to know how to, Curse, you also can.」

There, a few carriages passing by were surprised at our sight. But since I had hidden the vehicle in the item box, they could only believe that we were from the neighborhood. Amen.8) 南無 any other meaning fitting the context better?

After an idle other-worldly safari tour operation of about 3 hours, Curse noticed something.

(Curse)「At 10 o'clock. Right now in the forest... There is about 5 to 6 troll」

Curse had learned the meaning behind the clockwise direction by watching the Goblin's training. It was Incredible.

Then, looking at that direction...

(Mauve)「Oh, they are certainly trolls. It's a species ranging from 3 meters ... to 5 meters, I dislike them.」

Mauve also checked the direction and confirmed the troll.

(Lulu)「What do we do? We can also ignore this but?」

(Yuki)「Here we are traveling in a rush. That said, thanks to the Marauder we are moving at an incredible speed. Either are fine?」

(Curse)「A Five-meter troll, with Mauve and Curse we will need about 1 hour to subjugate it. Well, since we have the Holy Woman and the Dungeon Master, it won't take as much time.」

Stopping the Marauder at once, we were having a short meeting, which one was okay? Then let's take a decision.

(?????)「KiyyaaaaAAA!! Don't come!! DO NOT COME!!」

A girl-like voice echoed in the midst of the trolls group.

(Yuki)「... huh, can you see someone?」

(Raija)「No」

(Curse)「..... No, I can't see it's too far away. Strange voice... something like a kid?」

(Mauve)「...!? Yuki I advise you to help. That's one of the fairy tribe!!」

(Lulu)「Eh!? What, fairy tribe!? Why do they appear in such a place!?」

First of all the engine then the accelerator.

For such a distance, should I raise the speed up to 60 km?

「Ha!?」

「Don't you go down to fight!?」

「... No way!」

Mauve's and friends' face paled.

(Yuki)「Well, there's a lot of those monsters. I'll just speed the car and trample them?」

Troll-san held a seemingly fat club. This troll looked akin to Dracula.10) I believe だドラク o means Dracula

Even so, it was still 5 meters. And besides, he wasn't against a bipedal but a four-wheeled lump of iron.

I tackled with the Marauder, aiming at its legs.

Look at the power of an iron mass at 60kmh!!

(?????)「Someone ahhhHHHH ! !」

Looking closely, a person from the fairy tribe was held by someone else. Well, by the sound of my Klaxon, the troll disregarded them and turned its attention toward us.

The first one was the leader of the trolls.

It was a monster which died by a car accident.

(?????)「Eh?」

From the girl's point of view, it was as if the troll was blown up by a strange thing coming from the side.

The human shaped body was ... no, the awful troll body was bent in the form of the character <.

We didn't feel any shock. Magic was amazing to mitigate the impact.

It seemed to also reduce the impact from mortars and canons. Let's think about it later.

Troll-san, he turned so weak after being trampled all the way over there that it was no trouble anymore.

The remaining trolls were all knocked away. I felt sorry. Was it the feeling I had to have when knocking someone?

All of this took only 5 minutes.

Imagine 「Striiike!!」 It was not too bad. I mean, because it was like bowling.

Although one had a club, with the Marauder, it was quickly repelled.

You might say it was an armored vehicle. Was it impossible to produce living beings with strengths enough to destroy it?

Finally, after we swiftly crushed the heads of the trolls and cleaned up.

(Mauve) 「It, that's absurd.」

(Curse) 「... Can you even attack castle with this?」

(Raija) 「What is needed to stop that thing?」

(Lulu) 「..... Please, don't use that in the capital of Ritea, okay? Huh?」

Most of the riding members raised their voices of discontent, but they were ignored.

Quickly, I brought the car in front of the fairy girl.

(?????) 「Hish...!? Wait, don't come!?」

Had she fainted? The other person was retreating, holding her to protect. That was because we were inside an unidentified object that just got rid of all of the trolls.

For now, let's get out of the car and talk to the girls.

(Yuki) 「There is not any intention of hostility here. If you can't trust me, I'll leave immediately. But if you permit me, I will treat you... so what will you do?」

Words were arranged in a business-like way.

Like a hero from somewhere, I spoke to them as if they were some cat/dog that were saved on a whim.

From the conversation of Mauve and company earlier, I believe that they were from a rather rare species.

(????) 「This, eh? Humans?」

She was confused, but she had not settled down yet.

It was my chance.

If I act while she was confused, before she could gather her thoughts...

(Yuki)「Excuse me. I will answer all of your questions one by one later. If you follow us, we will treat you. But if not, we will leave as it is.」

(????)「Eh, ehh?」

(Yuki)「Alright. Then I'll pray for your luck from here on. Then...」

I said and turned back.

So, that was it for this situation. Unless...

(????)「Huh, wait!! I'll follow!! I will follow you!! Please save this child!!」

That happened psychologically.

With her mental state, after she suffered a huge defeat by the trolls, something unknown came and crushed the later.

Then I came down, displaying my good will to treat them.

Even if the one who offered treatment was human, her judgment's ability was flat.

And she had no time to think.

The girl with the pieces of information given to her as 「The trolls are defeated」 「I was saved」 「He is mysterious」 「He offers treatment」 「It's hard to decide」 「There is no time」.

With only those information, and her judgment...

- He defeated the troll he's「good」
- That helped us, it's「good」
- I didn't know his real self, it's「bad」
- He want to treat us, it's「good」
- He didn't act as indelicate. He is both「Good」 and「Bad」
- With the lack of time, for the girl it was「Bad」 but her judgment could determine「Nothing」.

As the verdict, there is 4「Good」. And 3 to 2「Bad」.

She couldn't do but stretch her hand with her obscured judgment.

Oppositely, if she didn't stretch it, that meant her village or something equivalent was around.

But if she was to display no reaction, that meant I didn't need her, and she was unnecessary to my journey.

Even if they were from some rare tribe, it's not worth making a friend if they disregarded my hand.

While thinking about such a thing, I brought them to the back seat and gave them to Lulu who was in a daze.

(Yuki)「They need treatment. Then, which part of the troll act as a proof of subjugation? Quick, I want to take the harvest and leave.」

I kicked the rear of the dumbfounded Mauve, Raija, and Curse and we ran to the destination to collect the loot.

(????)「It hurts.What's going on!?」

Receiving the treatment at the back sit, the fairy girl uttered a cry.
Well now, how should I kill time?

Chapter 46 – The Fairy Tribe Circumstances.

The fairy tribe circumstances.

Side: Mauve

How to say it... I was tired.

In a lot of ways.

We were now reaching the town border, Kilis was in front of our eyes.

(Yuki)「Now, time to put the tool in the item box...」

It was a rare and useful item, but why bother with our luggage? We each had to bring our own.

That, with the Marauder we wouldn't need to bring any luggage to begin with. 2 hours passed since the earlier troll subjugation.

Because I opened a picture call to the Dungeon, I could see that it was not 9 am on the clock anymore.

Instead, it was 4 pm.1) Author used the 24 and not the 12 format, but I translated as 12 Like, it took only 7 hours for us to reach the border town, that's wicked.

(Yuki)「Don't be stupid. To have an item box is rare don't you think? If there is someone like this, he will attract the eyes. Also, what are you going to do if I disappear, all the items would be ruined, so it's necessary to bring some personal belongings at least.」

Ouch, Yuki corrected me with a sound argument.

I don't think any of Yuki's opponent can win against him in a verbal joust.

(Yuki)「However, since we went for about 7 hours at 70 Km/h, the distance should be somewhat around 490 Km.」

How wise, I knew about the distance unit, but not how to calculate until here. You, are you a scholar?

(?????)「Hey, Heeeyy!! Where is the car? Why can't we keep riding it!? Nana hasn't fully recovered yet!!」

Since Yuki saved them from the trolls, the fairy kept flying around us. When I asked them why they could fly even when they had no feathers, she told us of how she was 「Completely composed of magical power. Really different from the humans」. Her answer returned full of contempt.

Well then, why didn't she fly away and escape?「To run away from your friend is bad don't you agree!! This baka<sup>2</sup> idiot ossan<sup>3</sup> ossan means old man!! That's why you're so blunt!!」

Thereupon my quarrel with that stupid brat began.

I need to tighten things with young miss Aslin in order for her not to become like this.

(Yuki)「As I told you earlier. We can't take the car as it would make a fuss. And now, Kovil<sup>4</sup> New character! コヴィル and Nana 5)New character! ナナ are also from an unusual type of species. Nana, I shouldered her on my back until now, but you have recovered enough so you should be able to fly with her by now. We just wanted to save you. We didn't have any ulterior motive. See you on the next occasion.」

(Kovil)「Mukii-----!! Hey, we are from the fairies!! Let me stay like this just a little bit more. I won't punish you! Do you want enchanted weapons!? Or Elixirs!?」

(Yuki)「I don't know anything about the Elixir; but don't you think that I already have a car which I can simply ride to kill a monster?」

(Kovil)「Nugugugu...」

Really, if they weren't so noisy, I wouldn't want to throw away any of the fairy tribe.

Snarling at Yuki, the fairy was a 60cm version of a 14-15 years old girl. She had a red chromed hair tied in a tail. Her figure gave me a though not quite sense of defeat.

But her foundations were different, something which went beyond common sense.

But, I didn't expect to meet someone from the fairy tribe here...

(Mauve)「Isn't that a useless tribes part that isn't able to meddle with other countries...」

Raija answered after he heard my mumbling.

(Raija)「Well, she is a young girl. All the members aren't probably like that. Those girls are habitating in the forest where the magical power is dense and are living with their own cultures. Their fame comes from enchanted weapons and elixir. The rumor say that they are the best at it.」

(Curse)「Let's see. In the past, several attempts to dominate or abduct the fairy tribe was instead crushed by them. So after they suffered heavy losses, the fairies stopped the export of enchanted weapons and Elixirs, staying in their own local region. What happened usually shouldn't happen, a fairy doesn't stretch her hand. With what she said earlier. They are also absolutely not slaves. So in a time like this is normal to seek and give benefit to the one who helped you out of kindness.」

Curse also joined the explanation

Was there such a story? I had no curiosity for those things.

(Yuki)「Speaking of which, is the Elixir something that can cure anything?」

(Kovil)「That's right!! Considerably, If not instantly then it can at least heal perfectly with time!!」

(Yuki)「Just before, couldn't you use an elixir?」

(Kovil)「Baka ne. If Elixirs could be mass-produced that easily, why did we need to flee to such a place and get our village crushed by monsters!!」

(Yuki)「So, Kovil listen. Wasn't your fairy tribe skilled in magics? How did you get defeated?」

(Kovil)「I don't really know the reason, but strange monsters came, and magic didn't work on them. After I had tried shooting all the magics I had, I took Nana with me and ran away. What followed, you already know. In the middle of escape, I got stunned in a middle of the trolls, not knowing right from left anymore.」

Kovil explained to Yuki how things went for them to reach this place.
I see... Nevertheless, monsters against which the high leveled magic of the fairies didn't work?

(Mauve)「... Did such monsters exists?」

(Yuki)「... No, it's already hard to find any monster as high leveled yet again one against which high leveled magic doesn't work on shouldn't be there. They should have been made.」

(Curse)「The dungeon is something special of Yuki. Well, that's not possible. In the first place, he didn't even know about the fairy tribe. Otherwise, that would mean that Yuki's joke brought unwanted troubles.」

(Mauve)「Something like that?」

(Curse)「To make over the previous riots, Yuki used the name of the Demon King to shoulder the culpability. But now after listening to this story, you should see that the monsters who hit the village did this intentionally under the demon king's order.」

(Mauve)「Hahaa～.For the demon king, the fairies that won't cooperate are a pain in the ass. But that makes sense now. However, can't this be a coincidence by any chance?」

(Yuki)「Ehh, maybe. But not considering the worst case. I don't know if it's a coincidence or not.」

It might really be the case since the demon king was used as an excuse when he did nothing.

(Kovil)「Wha, what's wrong!! Please save our village!! Just run over with that car!! It's simple!!」

(Yuki)「You moron. Did you see the size of your forest? How can we go with the car inside.」

(Kovil)「Argh!」

(Yuki)「And here we are also in a hurry. You received treatment Kovil and Nana. You also safely reached the town Kilis. If you'd like to have any help, you can reach to the adventurers guild. Rescue the Fairy tribe? Our tie of friendship doesn't seem to be long enough to help you this much, right?」

(Kovil)「You don't have to compel so strongly!! I know that already!! That car was unusual, you are humans, and yet your magical power is so unusual!! I feel that it is many more times than us!! Why are you in a hurry!? Tell me!!」

(Yuki)「We can't say that.」

(Kovil)「Mukii——— !!」

(Yuki)「Do you want to eat a banana 6) That's a pun because others name is Nana xD ?」

(Kovil)「I'm not a monkey!!」

No, after giving it some thoughts, I was the monkey.
But to carry that banana... Wouldn't that useless item box do the job?
Regardless, I couldn't stand her high pitched scream.

(Yuki)「... What about you Lulu?」

(Lulu)「Eh?」

Suddenly, Yuki asked Lulu who was diligently listening.
What about it?

(Yuki)「Eh? Well yes. The commander is Lulu nee-chan. Me, your younger brother7) I believe that I made a mistake in the previous chapter, Yuki is acting as Lulu's sister is here to help. But the actual decision is for you to choose Lulu nee-chan.」

(Lulu)「Me?」

(Yuki)「Yes, since this trip is for your sake nee-chan.What do we do?」

(Kovil)「Eh, so that woman out there was the leader!? I thought Yuki was the leader. Huh, please!! Our village, save our village!!」

(Lulu)「... To be honest.I am not able to afford to help your village. Moreover, the village was in an attacked and in a nearly destroyed state. This is not for a rescue, more likely it to confirm a devastation. Kovil-san, can you understand that magics don't work and that we are pressed?」

(Kovil)「.....Yes」

(Lulu)「We are traveling in a hurry. There isn't anything convincing enough for us to take action, Kovil-san. Please recruit adventurers from the town Kilis. As per Yuki-san said, a lot of people will gather. If we were to help you, in the end, we would only be able to help you. We must avoid any attention now, stay away from us.]

(Kovil)「..... You can't tell me the reasons why?」

(Lulu)「Yes it is not something that can easily be spoken.」

(Kovil)「.....Hiku, everyone, sorry, I'm so sorry.I can't help you everyone...」

Lulu clearly stated her refusal. Kovil, now on the ground, was crying.

(Yuki)「Hmm, nee-chan. Can you listen to me for a little bit?」

(Lulu)「What is it?」

(Yuki)「If you can earn the cooperation of the fairy tribe, wouldn't the purpose of the trip be achievable more easily? Against many countries, their meddling would be useless. But if you can get their backing, I think they can meddle and help you in various ways nee-chan. Including attack, defense, and politic. The journey until now is progressing faster than we expected. To a certain degree, we can afford a detour. Even in the worst case where the village is destroyed, you can still earn the support from at least Kovil, and there will certainly be some interesting items. Don't you think that it is an interesting handle?」

(Lulu)「But, the sooner we get there, the better...!!」

(Yuki)「Yeah I think the sooner is the better as well. But after all, it's not as if the opposition will start to act immediately. So I feel that both choices have their bad side. Ah but that's just a proposition. In the end, it's 「Lulu」 judgement」

(Lulu)「... Understood」

The young Lulu made a complex face. That said, I also wanted very badly to return to Ritea fastly.

But as Yuki said. If things goes well, it would be a good hand.

(Lulu)「Kovil-San, I will suggest something to you. Earlier as Yuki-san... Just as my younger brother had said. If we help you and if the village is destroyed, the items are ours. Then please Kovil-san, join us afterward and help us to achieve our objective. Oh and we will be the only one to help you, we don't want to attract any attention. If you don't like this Kovil-san, then please, go ahead and move to the town Kilis.]

(Kovil)「Fue?」

(Lulu)「Crying is not an answer. That's regrettable, but our time is sparse.」

The young miss gazed at Kovil, hurrying her to answer.

(Kovil)「I understand. I will go on a journey with you Lulu and everyone!! So please, save the village!!」

Kovil wiped her tears after what she stood and bowed to Lulu

(Yuki)「Then, the town Kilis will have to wait. Because we will use the Marauder, will the ride be enjoyable to some extent?」

Yuki boarded the Marauder.

Hey wasn't this a waste to walk for so long!?

But suddenly there was no problem?

I hope that you will fall over or something...

Chapter 47 – The Big Four, And The Revised Pill Bugs

Side : Kovil

Right before my eyes was one of the Demon King's subordinate.

(???)「Huf... I was defeated how unbelievable. I underestimated you.....Me, one of the big fours...」

(Yuki)「Spill something already」

That guy Yuki, he didn't even let the other party talk to the end. Now, the anti-magic caterpillar was thrown down.

(???)「Gua!? Ki, kisama.1) Kisama means Ba*t*** or Son of a How about it?I can give you information that you expect....You and the others...」

(Yuki)「So, speak something already.」

The Anti... so troublesome. I'll revise it as a pill bug, was thrown down once again.

I was wondering why? It would hurt the dignity of the person if you didn't hear him until the end.

(Yuki)「Geez. The Big fours(Lol)2) Author wrote it not me promised not to divulge any information. The Pill bug here, we heard about his circumstances, it was an exaggerated story. He was successfully remodeled but his stomach was reduced in the process. It seemed then that he had then escaped toward a place with higher magic power」

Yes, our village here was now in ruin, but almost all the people were left untouched.

When we approached the village, we met with the pill bug, but he didn't attack for some reason.

Thereupon, since Yuki had the Monster Tamer skill, he started talking...
Here 「Stomach was reduced, moved to a place with a lot of magic. Like this」
That's what he said.

It was an incredibly exhausting story.

Eventually, Yuki began to arrange something for the pill bug, and when they met at one part of the village... One of the big fours arrived.

(???)「Hey you over there!! Come quickly!! At this rate I will get scolded !! Damn, I'm one of The big four but yet you want me to get demoted??」

That guy who came blurted some stupid words.

However, Yuki made it quick.

(Yuki)「Bosh」

Captured

It was as if I saw a pitfall.

However, it wasn't one.

Inside the hole there was a strange cage that made the lid to closed as soon as The big four came. He was captured just like this.

For some reason, Yuki said that he added「Skill sealing, magic sealing; Stamina, strength, and agility decrease」

Huh, why was he able to enchant?

Moreover, the sealing system was of legendary level!?

As soon as the pill bug entered in contact with the fence, it curved. It was now shouldering its name adequately.

I was looking at him. Could the big four potentially escape? The revised pill bug tried to break from where it came, almost succeeding...

(???)「Fubee」

(Yuki)「Ah, you pill bug. You can try to get out but there's not even a chance. Come on, come on.」

(???)「Ouch ! ? Why!? Why does it hurt!?」

(Yuki)「O' revised pill bug I have a grudge against you. You remodeled yourself, ignoring the humans' rights... No, are you disregarding the insects' rights? There's a pun here that I can't reproduce. (or I think it is) Here insect 虫 and disregarding/ignoring 権無, both sound the same: Mushi ? Having done so, at least prepare some meals, you animal... No, insect」

Now, the revised pill bugs received Yuki's magic power.

They seemed to decide that they would follow Yuki.

What a kind of loyal fellows. No, wasn't this roughly that from the beginning? In the case of a meal, I would also be under control.

At present, the revised pill bug was a lump full of loyalty. After all, when Yuki stretched his hand downward, it became a ball and jumped on the hand.

Yuki said basketball? That's how he called it.

Because of that, the sharp fangs had been removed since the beginning as they were regarded as a hindrance.

The staple food was magic power. The shell wasn't magic proof at all. Instead, the shell was more to recover magic which they get from absorbing magical power.

That's the reason why, when we all shot our magic at full power, it was nothing more but an excellent meal to them.

That's why they uttered 「The long awaited meal」 when we fired.

Haa...

Hence now, each time the self-proclaimed big four tried to speak, Yuki threw to hi, the revised pill bug.

But, the revised pill bug when thrown went up like a strange curved ball before falling down. Was that magic?

(Yuki)「Huh? You can change to the size of a basketball but also to the size of a breaking ball? The next slide.」

(???)「Eeeyy ! ! A strange magic holds me... Gugiyah!!」

Oh, it seemed so painful.

(Yuki)「Now, nee-chan and the elder. I will let you choose how to handle them. While this time, it's a knuckleball」

(Lulu)「..... Let's see. There is no damage to the people, elder?」

(Elder)「.....Yes. There's no dead nor heavily injured person. At worst, it's a minor injury. However, the village as you can see...」

Yes! The village was in a terrible state. It would take several months to recover... even I can understand it.

The revised pill bug, this self-proclaimed big four was at first a demonic being with extraordinary strength.

But their knowledge seemed to be inferior than that of a child.

Meal... it didn't meddle with any of the fairies who gave it magic. I was playing on the back of the small child.

Being just a little bit cautious since it was a small child.

(Yuki)「The problem isn't just about that. Okay, there's the big four, but there's also the Demon King, their leader. We need to think what to do about that now.」

(Kovil)「Huh? Because you think that those insects came here by chance?」

(Elder)「Kovil. Although they came by chance, they still came in the end. He should do something about it. Now, Yuki-san... was it? Although you are suppressing them with your particular magic now, if we were to group when dealing with them, we would be able to outburst with terrific damages. Can you feel it? Yuki-san, even if it's not as high as you, grouped we still have an overwhelming amount of magical power.」

I understood that. As the Elder said, even if Yuki didn't come, if we made a group, then we would most likely be able to handle this.

(Yuki)「Even if? If the self-proclaimed big four escaped, what would you do?」

(Kovil)「I know that!! He will report to the Demon King and then, they will take all of our meaningful items... Fubee!?」

(Yuki)「Strike hu? A brilliant success! I will do a pitched ball. No, in that case, can't we play dodge ball? The face isn't good. Lulu get ready...」

Thus, Yuki began his throw of the revised pill bug.

Really, to be able to send that to someone...

(Yuki)「It isn't possible to set him free and I tell you, this place will get attacked again. It would be stupid to reconstruct here. The genuine demon from The big four can follow that one's footsteps and reach here. Even if they can't find this fellow, they can still discover this place.... Now you should talk to everyone and find a new area.」

(Lulu)「Let's see. I think that's good too. Elder-sama」

Lulu too agreed with it.

... Okaay. It was good that everyone here was safe, but now they couldn't live here anymore...

This was so frustrating.

That's why I threw the big four revised pill bug that was in front of my feet.

(???)「Guguya ! ?」

(Yuki)「That's why I told you to protect the back of your head」

And when I threw another one of the revised pill bug...

Flame burst out beside me and covered the entirety of the self-proclaimed big four

(???)「KiiyaaAAaaaAAA ! !」

The scream of the self-proclaimed big four echoed.

... Ah i didn't even know its name.

But flames could be seen flying everywhere.

(???)「Ahahahahaha!! Zargis, serves you right!! What a strange sight for the Demon King! Also , I'll kill you guys!! It's an honor to die in battle, be glad!!」

From the depth of the forest, a demon with gray hair and tanned skin was walking.

She had a lot of magical power. But not equal to Yuki.

(???)「You can be happy as well!! You don't need to seek for a next place to live!! I will turn everything here to ash...」

(Yuki)「Bosch here I am sorry. It's time for you, self-proclaimed big four, to display some result 」

(Zargis)「Guguya ! ? Kisama!! Even though I am burning in the fire!! ... It's not hot?」

(Yuki)「No, it should be hot outside, it's burning firmly. To some extent, isn't it difficult for you to breath?」

Looking closely, the self-proclaimed big four wasn't burning.

Oh, I get it now. Because there was a magical seal, skills couldn't get through the cage.

Then what was he yelling for? Baka4)Idiot?

(Zargis)「Guhaa ! ! Speaking of which, I'm not out of breath!? Why it it!?」

(Yuki)「No, it's because the flame is around the cage. The oxygen won't go away.」

(Zargis)「Take me out!! I will die!!」

(Yuki)「...Eh. You're a demon? Deal with it somehow. Because if you don't, your death isn't now... it will be later.」

(Zargis)「Please get me out!! I beg you!!」

Oh, it suddenly became menial. Adults are the worst.

After Yuki had extinguished the fire with his water magic, the female demon which came from behind was suddenly caught? She uttered a loud scream.

(???)「What is this cage!? Let me out!! Bastard, I'm one of the big four, and my flame is the strongest!! Do you think that you can do this so freely!!」

... Here is also another of the self-proclaimed big four.... It's already troublesome.

(Yuki)「revised pill bug disorder throw!!」

Yuki too seemed bothered, he once again threw a revised pill bug..
Me too, I threw 2 to 3 of them.

「Kya5)High pitched female sfx ! ? Bastard, in a woman's face!! Yah, is it going to leave a mark!?」

「Silence second self-proclaimed big four. Protect your face instead of protecting that stupid big breasts of yours. Let me play with them.」

「No, I refuse!! The Demon King said that my unnaturally big breasts are beautiful!!」

Oh, yes. I wasn't too bothered because I too was standing high 6) I.E.: she has huge breast for her size .

Instead, she was probably worried herself that she was too huge.
To praise someone complexed is quite the lovely sight.

(Yuki)「Nee-chan I have a suggestion. Here as you can see, two of the self-proclaimed big four are there and quite the important ones at that. Aren't they fellows who already lived in a Dungeon?」

(Lulu)「Huh ! ? But to do such a thing, no matter how I look at it, we don't have the time!? Did you forget our goal!?」

Dungeon? What did he mean? I know that Lulu was in a hurry.

(Elder)「Excuse me. It's true that we were saved by you, and it's good and all to say that we can't live here anymore, but we still need to look for another place.」

The elder meddled in the conversation.

Naturally, even if you said that we couldn't live here, we still needed to find another place where we could live.

(Yuki)「No no, it's only temporary. When you find another place, you may move right away. Well, even if it's weird to say that it's free of charge, I'm making a place where people can live. In the case you contribute, you will be granted protection. As you can see, the self-proclaimed big fours are already lurking around.」

(Elder)「... It's okay. A place protected by Yuki-san is more than we could even hope for.... I'd like to talk about this with you for a while, is it okay?」

(Yuki)「Okay but here is a little bit unpleasant. Please wait as we prepare for a place.」

Yuki ignored Lulu and advanced the talk.

(Lulu)「Yuki-san!! What are you intending to do!! Don't I have the right to decide!?」

(Yuki)「Okay okay, calm down. I think it will be done before the fall of the day. No, if it not done too poorly it might be done earlier.」

(Lulu)「Huh? Are you going to push those 50 fairies inside the Marauder!? No, but the round trip will take two days!!」

(Yuki)「Oh, what I showed to you until now was only a trap. Then, what about this?」

Yuki took out a big red ball.

(Lulu)「What!? That's a Dungeon core!?」

Lulu was surprised. Huh, that's a Dungeon core?

Yuki was fantastic as expected. Was it really significant to take out a Dungeon core?

(Lulu)「Impossible...」

(Yuki)「Here. This is a judgment from the Management. To protect the fairy tribe. This is my decision. Lulu's intention doesn't matter. Well, I will not let you take the time. Do you know about the gate?」

(Lulu)「..... It's a passageway between two locations, but it's a lost secret art.... Can it appear again with your skill as a Dungeon master?」

「It was expensive but still usable. 10 000 DP. Oh, it's a one by one installation. Technically speaking, I purchase the land here, install the Dungeon core and take the furniture from the Fairy tribe with it.」

...Huh? Did I just hear something strange?

Dungeon master? That's a lie. Because according to legends, it's a disaster? A person said to be stronger than the heroes and the Demon King couldn't be a human like this.

(Lulu)「Can you use the Master's skill with this body ! ?」

(Yuki)「No, I only delegate it. You know, I'm giving away some degree of authority. This body is almost like mine, so it's quite useful. But I can make an underground Dungeon in the place I want one to be. This will afterward become remarkably convenient.」

(Lulu)「... Please do not cover Ritea with underground hole...」

(Yuki)「It will depend upon the situation.」

I thought it was a joke until light fallen before my eyes and a Dungeon entrance rose.

(Kovil)「Na, na...」

It made my mouth flutter.

(Elder)「..... I see. The power which could treat the self-proclaimed big four as if they were nothing. Yuki-san... No -sama. Are you a Dungeon Master?」

The elder was also disturbed but unlike me, Yuki answered firmly.

(Yuki)「Elder-san. I'll not stand much on the ceremony. Because I seem to be very different from the former Dungeon Masters, I want you to know that I will not harm you in any way. Well, I think you understand, but the transfer gate is in this Dungeon. I want you to go there and reach my base. It will be way safer than here. Please do as I say even if you don't believe me for now. I wonder if you'd agree?」

(Elder)「..... No, if someone had Yuki-san ability, it would be easy to force us. But your attitude shows that you're caring for us. I believe in your sincerity. Is everyone fine with it?」

By the elder's words, everyone, including me, nodded.

(Yuki)「Elder. All of the fairy tribe. For believing in who I am, thank you. Because you can go back and forth as many time as you want, you will be able to take any luggage you need. I will go ahead and prepare. Mauve's company, I ask you to protect everyone.」

(Mauve)「Oh, leave it to me.」

(Kovil)「Hey, Yuki. Now what about the group of self-proclaimed big four? As soon as they heard that you are a Dungeon Master, they became quiet.」

(Yuki)「Oh, ignore them. Besides, they can't do anything since they are in the cage. They will be treated at a later time.」

「Okay」

And so, Yuki held his head and fell to the ground.

(Kovil)「Eh? Eh? Yuki are you alright!?」

(Doppelganger)「Yes, he's fine. Nii-san went back to the Dungeon.」

(Kovil)「Eh? Eh? Nii-san? What do you mean? What with your language, ain't it too polite!?」

(Doppelganger -> Kiyu)「Ahahah, nii-san is stubborn, he doesn't like discrimination. It's a bit too late to ask. I'm the Dungeon Master's younger brother. I'm a doppelganger acting as his double. My name is Kiyu. Habitually, Nii-san is manipulating this body to do various things, but now he went back to the Dungeon to prepare to welcome for Kovil-san and her friends.]

(Kovil)「E, eh , hey. Is it real? Does that mean he has the same figure as you the Doppelganger?」

(Kiyu)「No, nii-san made a different body for me to protect himself so that I remember that we have different purposes. I am the example.」

(Kovil)「..... A doppelganger that is purposely different... Isn't the Dungeon Master amazing?」

(Kiyu)「So, Kovil-san. Do you not have to sort your baggage together?」

(Kovil)「Oh that's right. See you. Yuki... no Kiyu is it!!」

That said, I parted from there to pack up. But it seemed that we could go back and forth if we wanted to bring more, I wonder if we would have enough time?

Then, in the first floor of the Dungeon. Where it was true, Yuki was the real Dungeon Master.

(Yuki)「Everyone. After you pass through this gate will be our base. Sorry, but for safety's sake, the gate has skills and magics sealing. Even if it's inconvenient, people from the fairy tribe, please go to the grounds and proceed.」

Oh, that's okay. If you ran wild here, it would be a problem.

Everyone, convinced, went down to the ground. Then through the gate.

When my turn came, and I passed inside... What awaited me was a strange and beautiful location.

The vicinity was surrounded by white walls, a desk in the middle and someone sitting behind.

Some people were giving instructions. I wondered who they were? Residents from here?

「Hai, everyone from the fairy tribe. First of all, go to the desk and fill out your name. Also, is there any injured? Is everyone okay?」

「The person who finished please proceed to the inner part to another desk. We will hand you a temporary identification card. Does anyone with his identification card need to briefly return to bring more things? Please relax at that seat.]

「Does anyone want to drink something? Thanks to this tool, if you press this button a drink will come out.]

Eto, Elf, rabbit demi-human, and human? I was wondering why people from so many different tribes were giving guidance?

One race should be easier to deal with than many.

Also, when I turned my eyes to the side, I saw a small child... She was bigger than me, but I think she was human too.

Working hard, the children were distributing a white round mass here and there.

(Philia)「This is onigiri7) Onigiri are made of rice and have a triangular shape .It's delicious. If anyone is hungry, please take one.]

「Awesome ! ?」

「Oh」

One person stumbled in an empty place.

(Kovil)「Dangerous!!」

I jumped to support her...

(Yuki)「Philia, take yourself together. It's alright to do this slowly.」

One man came to support the girl called Philia.

(Yuki)「Uh? Uh, Kovil? Here, eat an onigiri, go ahead. You don't want to eat one?」

So, the dark-haired man passed an onigiri to me.

(Kovil)「What is your name... Is it perhaps Yuki?」

(Yuki)「What are you saying? Oh, it's your first time seeing me. This is my actual shape.」

(Kovil)「He, Kiyu is quite childish, but Yuki is quite an adult.」

(Yuki)「Hmm, that was done purposely.」

(Yuki)「Yeah」

(Kovil)「I see, I see. Yes, I'm giving you passing marks. You're a good guy.」

When I praised Yuki; one of the small children kicked him.
It's wasn't with much power but still made Yuki display round eyes.

(Yuki)「What is it Labiris?」

(Labiris)「... An affair. Lutz!! He's cheating!!」

(Lutz)「Haihai, onii-san don't get carried away. Because she is a woman from the fairy tribe, it isn't different. Onii-san's body is one thing, therefore.」

I'm not really sure, but I felt as if Yuki was at a disadvantage.
Whatever. Quickly the ID? I must return to get my luggage.

Chapter 48 – A Break In The Adventure

side: Yuki, real name: Kazuya Torino

(Millie)「Yes, Naruja-san, is it? Here, this card will be your temporary formal identification. Please put it inside this case so it can be seen from your neck.」

The identifications cards were issued from the last table where Millie sat.

(Yuki)「What do you say about this one Labiris? According to my judgment, I can't find anything false or lie about the card.」

(Labiris)「Yes, from what I appraised with my own eyes, there's no lie.」

With Labiris we were checking whether the information used to issue the identifications cards were correct.

After all, since magic and doppelgangers existed we couldn't afford to let someone pass through.

(Labiris)「But, the identification card? What's about it already huh? I think that it is an interesting thing. It surely brings some guarantee for later to know which person is who. For the time being, I was able to see the name and the level thanks to the diagnosis of the crystal.」

(Yuki)「Next, with a picture attached to the card, it becomes a perfect identification proof. However, without the person's magic, the name won't surface. That is to say, to make a counterfeit...」

(Labiris)「The name will not be able to appear. And with the picture, it serves as a double meaning of crime prevention.」

(Yuki)「Furthermore, there's the date of issue. In the end, the identification is recorded with the date here. An elaborate fake of the identification paper can still be found thanks to this record.」

(Labiris)「... It's nasty.」

At some point of our conversation, the two of us who faced each other were now looking at the sudden apparition.

(Naruja)「Say, is it okay now to ask you some questions for a bit?」

(Yuki)「Yes, what do you want to ask?」

When we were mostly done with our talk, the elder came and spoke to me. After she received her temporary identification card, I could say without doubts that she was called Naruja. But for sure, the fairy tribe was great. The amount of MP for each individual was averaging 1000. But the highest of them all was still Naruja with her 7000. With an amount like this, she could easily fire any magic and almost unlimited times.

... Amazingly, the absorption rate in DP was one for a hundred per hour. In other words, since the elder went inside the Dungeon for an hour, and I received 70 DP out of it, that's how I calculated the rate.

Gufufufu, the MS and AC delivery were closing soon. 1) Got no Idea what MS and AC means ぐつふつふつふ、MSやAC納入が近づいてまいりましたよ。

(Naruja)「Any time now all of our luggage will end up here. What will you do with the self-proclaimed big four?」

(Yuki)「Huh? Did Naruja-san understand that I was Yuki?」

(Naruja)「Yes, because I could read your magical power to some extent. But don't worry, I will keep these words to myself. They won't ever leak to anyone.」

That seemed to be as expected from someone of the fairy tribe. Beforehand, I spoke to Kovil about this and told her that she could never tell this to anyone. Because I'm worried, I would still appoint her as a guardian later to prevent anything from leaking out.

(Yuki)「Those self-proclaimed big four huh~ What do you think should be the appropriate thing to do with them?」

(Naruja)「Eh you're asking for my opinion.... Then excuse me. Since both of them are to blame and they are already prisoners, I think that it is better to deal by death」

(Yuki)「Can I hear the reason as to why?」

(Naruja)「The benefits for keeping them as prisoners are to ask them about information regarding the Demon King. The disadvantages are whether those information are false or if they ever escape from the Dungeon, the damages would be on an extreme level. As for the benefits of killing them, if they are really self-proclaimed Big Fours, then we gain merits for clearing them off someone else's hand. But if they are genuine Big Four, the disadvantage is that the Demon King's army will recognize us as targets.]

Hmm, for now I'd like to consult with all the Dungeon's representatives... It's necessary to ask Lutz and the others.

「You can kill them at any time. Since that's the case, I advise to lock them in the Dungeon at once. You don't need to rush to deal with them. We shall discuss this thoroughly when the time come.】

(Naruja)「Very well. I understand now why you have 「Genuine Administrator」 Is it because to have the vision of one person is unwise?】

(Yuki)「Yes, everyone here is helping me. Because I know what I can do alone, it's important to have them.】

(Labiris)「... I said some careless word because I didn't notice, but now I'll be sure to refrain from doing so. Do not make fun of Yuki nor can you laugh of Yuki. Either one and I strike.】

Labiris came on my lap and from that standpoint, she scowled at the Elder.

(Naruja)「I was rude. But never ever will I disrespect or look down on your important person. After all, he is the one who saved all the inhabitants of our village. Please understand this.】

(Labiris)「... Agreed. Therefore, please try to be careful in the future.】

(Naruja)「Yes, I understand】

Arya? Labiris spoke in a really polite manner to the opposite party. Could the Elder be considered a fairly capable person?

Labiris remained still, she didn't move and her expression was unmoved answering my inquiries.

(Yuki)「And, Elder. If the transportation of the luggage is over, I would like for the remaining people on the other side to come here, please call me when everything is done. This way I can destroy the gate linking to this Dungeon as soon as possible.】

(Naruja)「Indeed, you are doing that to prevent them from knowing that we escaped to this Dungeon, right?」

(Yuki)「Oh, that's the most important reason, but also to prevent anyone from reaching this place. It is not good to leave too many traces at that place.」

When the Elder left to confirm that everyone from the village was on this side, Kovil proceeded to our direction.

(Kovil)「Hey, Yuki? Can I stay here? But there is the promise I made to Lulu?」

(Yuki)「No you can't, Kovil you'll have to accompany Lulu and everyone on the other side. The matters of Lulu are serious in various ways.」

(Kovil)「Alright, got it!! I'll do my best, leave it to me!!」

(Yuki)「Well, let's talk a bit until the Elder is done. Kovil I'm sorry, but can you bring Lulu over here for a bit? Mauve's party will continue to guard the Dungeon's entrance and the gate. Bring this sake over to them. Because I overexert them a bit.」

To call Lulu, Kovil went past the gate.

Alternately, the Elder came back this way.

(Naruja)「I'm terribly sorry. It seems that Kovil who was with you is now on the other side.」

(Yuki)「Oh, sorry. She went out because I asked her to call on my companion a little while ago.」

(Naruja)「Is that so? It is good then. Alright, all our members, except Kovil, are on this side holding on their identification card.」

(Yuki)「Is that so? In that case Ellis. You can take everyone to the training room A and explain to them how to use the facilities of the apartments.」

(Ellis)「Very well. Alright, everybody. Put your luggage here for a moment and come with me. Because there will be an explanation of how to use an apartment. Is that okay with you, Elder-sama?」

(Naruja)「Yes, we are in your care. Please do as she says. Those tools here are something we have never seen before. Listen carefully to her instructions and don't bring a havoc.]

After the Elder gave her OK, the people from the fairy tribe followed behind Ellis.

(Kovil)「Hey, I brought Lulu along.]

After everybody had left, Kovil came back accompanied by Lulu.

(Naruja)「Kovil. Even if it was an imperial command from Yuki-san please next time tell me about it. I was worried.]

(Kovil)「Uh, I'm sorry Elder.]

The elder scolded Kovil.

At present, Lulu with a face full of curiosity looked at my side.

(Lulu)「Yuki-san, why did you call me? I don't think I was needed here?」

(Yuki)「No, that is not it. Here we have characters with a higher position than Kovil. Don't you want to try to speak with them? Lulu, I think you should depend on the Elder instead of Kovil.

(Lulu)「I understand」

After she consented, Lulu turned to face Kovil and the Elder.

(Naruja)「Do you have something important to ask? Which reminds me, Yuki-san and his group had an objective for traveling. Can you tell me about your motives? If we can help you I will not spare when cooperating.」

(Kovil)「Yes. After all, if you had not saved us, we would be dead by now!! I will keep my promise!!」

(Yuki)「Those are pretty words but what awaits is kinda complex. If you agree to receive my guardian appointment, I will explain to you our reasons.」

(Naruja)「What is the guardian appointment?」

Thus I answered the Elder's inquiries. I explained to her everything about the Guardian appointment. How it differed from being a slave, the limitations, the privileges, and the fact that she wouldn't be able to talk about the Dungeon's strengths.

(Naruja)「Hmmm. If it is not a problem for Yuki-san then it does not matter for me. I would be glad to be bestowed upon your guardian appointment.]

(Kovil)「Me too me toooo!! Then I want to give the Call a try!!」

After they accepted the guardian appointment smoother than I thought, Lulu started her explanations.

Well, Lulu's explanations here also had the purpose of explaining this Dungeon's purpose.

Then, right after a short briefing.

(Naruja)「That makes sense. And now I understand why you asked for our help and agree to do so. But I would rather refuse about this case.」

(Lulu)「Well then?」

(Naruja)「Yes. Yuki-san and Lulu-sama here saved our life so it's natural. I would like to spare nothing to help you but... Not before I can check and weight the Holy Country Ritea. I would like for the people here to avoid to go at Ritea.」

(Lulu)「So it is. If the clever fairy doesn't want to participate then there's no need to go further into the talk.」

Both the faces of Lulu and the Elder frowned.

(Yuki)「Let's hear my suggestion. We can stay in touch anytime with Call. Thereupon the full story can be conveyed to the Elder. Can you create and prepare 3 elixirs and some weapons?」

(Naruja)「Normally I would refuse, do you know that an elixir can sell for 150 white gold? Putting the weapons aside for now, can you tell me for what use do you want an elixir? This is not something that can be handed so easily.」

(Yuki)「If our luck is good, then we won't need it. Well, there is a high probability that I try one to see if it is the real thing. If they are the real deal, then they will be used to support Kovil and Lulu...」

(Naruja)「So that is like this? To prove that our tribe is trustworthy, you expect us to support Lulu-sama?」

(Yuki)「Something like that. Well, it is only necessary to conclude on some minor details. May you please distribute them if it is okay with you?」

(Naruja)「..... Then it is settled. I understand that Lulu-sama is short on time.

But the elixir is a precious thing. This way, I want you to receive at most these two bottles that I carry, and please. In return, I can give you 4 or 5 weapons since we have more of them.]

(Yuki)「How about it, Lulu?」

(Lulu)「Thank you for your noble generosity Elder!! Thank you very much.」

The Lulu who shed tears said her thanks.

That was natural. There was even the possibility of not getting any cooperation if the negotiations were handled poorly.

(Naruja)「Please Lulu-sama raise your face. It is a way for us the fairies to display our thanks after you saved us. But despite the circumstances of this place, I'm really sorry that I couldn't answer completely Lulu-sama's hope. Kovil, you have an item box as well, am I right?」

(Kovil)「Yes I have.」

(Naruja)「Then I'll leave the elixirs and weapons with you. Lulu-sama, I can't accompany you but Kovil is competent. Be helpful to Lulu-sama.」

(Kovil)「Leave it to me!! The old hags that is raging in Ritea and bullying Lulu, I will drive them all out!!」

And like that, The Elder transferred the elixir and weapons to Kovil's item box.

(Yuki)「Well then, Lulu and Kovil you can go back to the other side together. Because the times it took to save the residents was quite a lot of time. We will manage here somehow. Kiyu is ready to jump on the car and they started to make some noise over there.」

(Lulu)「Very well. Although it took time of our clock, it was still less than a day.」

(Yuki)「Even then, we're a day late. It does not change the fact that we are racing against the time. We received help but the matter has yet to be over. I am not at a peace of mind.」

Like that, Lulu became tense and nodded. She then took the gate along Kovil.

(Naruja)「You are kind and strict, aren't you? If Yuki-san went to the front, everything would be settled in a matter of time. Still, you are helping Lulu-sama to accomplish the deed on her own.

(Yuki)「We have our circumstances around here as well.」

(Naruja)「Would you please tell me about those circumstances later?」

(Yuki)「Yes, of course. For now, let's gather with everyone.」

At that moment, we left that place.

(Yuki)『Hey Kiyu. Did Lulu and Kovil come over there?』

(Kiyu)『Yes, nii-san. There are no mistakes, the two people are here.』

(Yuki)『Yosh, you can now start the demolition of the Dungeon and the gate.』

(Kiyu)『Huh, but then what about the self-proclaimed Big Fours?』

(Yuki)『Oh, throw them in here. Ah, the revised pill bugs too.』

(Kiyu)『Roger. As soon as it is done. I will take on the demolition.』

Now, we just had a postponement on our trip.

Since Kiyu is on the other side, there won't be any problem. In the end, my adventure ended in two days?

Chapter 49 – Training Consultation

side: Yuki, real name: Kazuya Torino

(Ellis)「Everyone please, listen carefully. From now on I will explain about the rooms for 4 people...」

Now, Ellis was with a group of fairies. She explained it to 57 people.

(Naruja)「Wa,ah~, this place is amazing. How did Yuki-san get such tools and knowledge?」

The Elder, Naruja, was impressed after she read all the explanatory (handmade) brochures.

(Yuki)「This, I'm unable to answer it here. Is it alright with you if I get things done with guiding everyone in the village?」

(Naruja)「Oh, I'm sorry. There's so many unusual things. But it seems serious in various ways, doesn't it? Is the language you used to speak to me divided into 2 kinds done deliberately?」

(Yuki)「Oh, you noticed?」

(Naruja)「Well, the first side is Yuki-san acting as a Dungeon Master. Now is Yuki-san as a Dungeon Manager. Are they different?」

(Yuki)「That's right.」

I think the Elder was quite the thoughtful person.
To notice the difference in language that I used purposely. Usually, I would be recognized as a simple and unfamiliar operator.

(Naruja)「Hehehe...Don't worry it's fine. The people who don't know about the side as a Master may be rude at first.」

(Yuki)「Did it show on my face?」

(Naruja)「No, that was my thoughts only.」

While we communicated in such way, time have gone forward and Ellis's explanations seem over.

(Ellis)「Then, everyone. The room's description is over. I think it is inconvenient, however, please make groups of 4 people. If some of you are families of more than 4 people, we will provide additional futons, here.」

Yes, this looked like it followed the made manual properly.

Documentation is important.

In spite of that, when some problem are found we would need to adjust to them accordingly.

(Yuki)「Elder, should we leave for your room? If you wish, I can bring you to a private room?」

(Naruja)「Originally, I wanted to request to live in the same place as everyone but there was Yuki-san's and the others' stories so please, give me a private room. However, I want the place to be close to everyone and close to their rooms so that would be good but...」

(Yuki)「Yes of course. We have two private rooms here that are made to manage the others 4 person rooms. Let me show you then.」

The current location was the residential district in the third floor.

We could see one building of the training facilities on the right edge of the residential area. And neighboring on the left was a training area.

Actually, I wanted to make something like a three stories building...

(Lutz)「Hey!? Onii-san, even if it's concrete, it should have a limit! Please don't make a three stories building just like that! Or that will need a lot of explanations! !」

Lutz and Ellis strongly opposed me.

Because on this continent, and unless you are wealthy or from the aristocracy, it seems like there was no way for a two or three stories to exist.

Especially with the need of explaining the technological strength of a concrete facility to the immigrants. So sadly, there were only one story buildings.

The 4 persons room in the residential district has 2 bed each.

They also came with a living room and a kitchen. Of course, small refrigerators were also included.

The toilet and the bath too.

H~ow can I explain? It's like a picture which reformed the structure of the school?

We can accommodate about 300 people in one building. In other words, there are 75 rooms with 4 people in each room.

Added to that was a few private rooms for the authorities, well and various things.

While I thought about such things, Ellis's guidance came to an end.

(Ellis)「Ok, please use this parcel on the right. You can select your favorite room but there will be no change afterward. The winners will be the quickest but if it results in a fight too strong, the access to a specific room can be prohibited. Then, it's your turn of choice. Ah, and because it was designed for humans we're sorry if the size doesn't match.」

After Ellis was done, the fairies bowed and scrambled to choose one of the 4 person rooms.

(Ellis)「After you have chosen your room, please carry inside the luggage that you left at the gate」

I guess that I had to start to advising here too.

(Yuki)「The room for the Elder is here」

(Naruja)「Thank you very much」

Since the number of private rooms was small and she wanted to be near the fairies, the choice was inevitably nonexistent.

(Yuki)「Here it is. Now, as you heard earlier it might be inconvenient since it was made for human people...」

(Naruja)「No, it's fine. Here」

The Elder floated with magic in the kitchen, and stretching out to a glass easily, she took it.

Haa~ how handy.

(Yuki)「You can put your clothes and some of your luggage in this closet. Please use it.」

(Naruja)「It is really useful～. Is there one in every room?」

(Yuki)「Yes, and once the migrants will get here, they will get used to the Dungeon's life.」

(Naruja)「Hmmm. Aside from this living place, do other places exist?」

(Yuki)「Yes there are. Working area, Entertainment facilities, and so on and so forth.」

(Naruja)「Waa, this is great. Heh, now if you would excuse me. Because I will have to take out my personal belongings...」

(Yuki)「Oups, sorry for being rude. Then I'll wait outside」

Saying so, I left the room.

The hallway was overflowing with fairies coming from the gate and carrying their luggage to their rooms.

Ellis who was watching the situation caught my attention.

(Yuki)「Hey, Ellis. Is there anything amiss?」

(Ellis)「Well, not particularly. Things are going as planned by Yuki-san's manual. Without it, I think that I would have gone back and forth without advancing much, and it would be hard to move.」

Inside the manual held by Ellis, there were many items which to check. Thanks to that it was easy to see if anything wasn't going as planned.

(Ellis)「If nothing else, the toilets aren't really fit for the people of the fairy tribe」

(Yuki)「Ah, but it's so bothersome to remake...」

(Ellis)「Yes, if they settle now and if they live here permanently, it will be necessary to make changes...」

(Yuki)「Well, this is still a training place for them. We might want to put this on hold for now and move the later on.」

(Ellis)「Yes. So for now, it's going as planned inside the manual.」

(Yuki)「Well, even if it's unreasonable to pack the schedule as much it's necessary. Tomorrow will be the explanation of the purpose of the Dungeon's management. Then about the training facilities and finally about how to take a bath. So maybe you should talk about jobs descriptions?」

(Ellis)「So it is. I will describe the different jobs. It is important to remember the purpose of the Dungeon's Management. And so it is for how to take a bath.

Inside the manual, the plan was divided into 7 stages.

First stage : Control the number of people, create their IDs, attribute a location in the residential area, and explain of how the housing works.

Second stage: Explain how the management of the Dungeon works, describe how to use the training facilities, the bath, and describe the different jobs.

Third stage : Informations about the entertainment facilities and full-fledged explanation about the jobs.

Fourth stage : Tour of the Dungeon facilities and the working area.

Fifth stage : Granting jobs after personal request and a fully functioning start of the training facilities.

The plan so far should be done in a day or so.

Sixth stage : Training period.

Seventh stage: End of the training period, moving to another living area, the people will start acting as a real resident.

The sixth and seventh stage duration is undecided.

Since there was a period for slaves to redeem themselves, the probability of prolonging the time also existed.

(Ellis)「Oh, I see. The time for the slave is different...」

(Yuki)「That's right. Their schedule will most likely be different」

After we discussed for a while, the Elder came out of her room.

(Naruja)「Sorry, I made you wait.」

(Yuki)「No, it's fine. Here I should be the one to be sorry, after that I will have to consult things with you, is that okay?」

(Naruja)「Yes, I don't mind. Nana can I have a minute?」

(Nana)「Yes. What is it?」

The Elder called the accidentally passing by Nana who was together with Kovil for help.

(Naruja)「After this I will have to discuss with Yuki and his people about our future. Please convey to everyone that they have to be quiet and obedient.」

(Nana)「Yes, I understand! ! ..... H-uh, are you perhaps Yuki-san?」

(Yuki)「Huh...? Did you understand? I thought you were passed out when I carried you?」

(Nana)「Oh, I can determine who someone is from their magical power! ! Th-then, thank you very much for your help! ! Your recovery magic was very warm! ! 」

With a red face, she said her thanks.

(Yuki)「No, wait. But it was Lulu who treated you?」

(Nana)「Yes, Lulu-sama cured most of my injuries. But didn't Yuki-san kept regenerating me all the while?」

(Yuki)「Oh, it was exposed.」

(Nana)「Even so, thank you very much! ! 」

(Naruja)「Nana, if you're done giving your thanks, can you do what I asked you a little while ago?」

(Nana)「Oh, I'm sorry! ! I'll do it right now! ! 」

As soon as she left, Nana called out to all the other fairies.

(Yuki)「Ellis, what about the others?」

(Ellis)「Right now they are debriefing inside room A from the training facilities.」

(Yuki)「Then, let's do our meeting there. Is it fine with you Elder?」

(Ellis)「Yes」

And when I reached the training room A with the elder...

(Lutz)「Daaaaaaaaaa! I did not have the time to take a picture! Please push it on tomorrow! ! 」

(Yuki)「Yes yes, Lutz calm down. Will you have the time to relax and do such a thing tomorrow? Was there any problem with Tori and the others?」

「No problem in particular and the people of the fairy tribe were cooperative.」

「They are amazing. Always flying in the sky with magic. I stumbled upon them sometimes in the city but I haven't had opportunities to speak to them yet.」

「... my identity, it's collapsing」

The adults are talking like that, and the children...

「The rice balls that I ate were delicious!」

「They were! Dried eggs were popular!」

「So delicious right?」

Were having a pleasant conversation.

Oh, Herge and Oriel were waiting.

(Herge)「Alright. Good job everyone. In a sense, wasn't this a good rehearsal?」

(Lutz)「... Onii-san, The night is falling and I'm so tired, I want to sleep..」

(Millie)「For the time being, it's advancing without problem.」

Lutz and Millie, the representatives, replied.

Well, Lutz said something somewhat different.

(Yuki)「I brought the Elder of the fairy tribe to talk about the future. I'm thinking about talking of the schedule and asking if there is any problem for the fairies. Do you girls agree?」

(Lutz)「I think it's very good.」

When Lutz answered, everyone nodded in the same way.

(Naruja)「I am the elder of the fairy tribe. My name is Naruja. This time we accepted your help and I can't explain how high our gratitude is. And then, if you need anything necessitating our cooperation in the future, you can ask right away. We will help you as far as possible. I want to confirm it.」

(Yuki)「Well then, take a seat everyone. I will explain to the elder once.」

Then for about three hours, we talked about the current situation and our policy for the future.

「... I see, a manual and a training book am I right? It's great. Going as far as to give the permission to use DP shows in truth how you don't plan to create a monarchy with Yuki-san ruling in the center.」1) Not 100% sure DPの使用権限まで与えるとは、本当にここは、ユキさんを中心とした王政を取るつもりは無いのですね」

The elder understood most of our previous explanations.
After all, it was not half-baked.

(Lutz)「Yes, therefore Onii-san is participating as one of the basic Management. Elder, if you don't mind, I'd like you to participate in our Management as the representative of the fairy tribe.」

(Naruja)「Rather, I'm the one who wish to join. Unfortunately, if we do something like an election right now inside the fairy tribe, it will go poorly and problems might occur. I don't know when the next election is, but I would like to be a part of the team until then.」

(Yuki)「Then I'm looking forward to work with you. The next problem we have right now is about the Dungeon's money. It's running low. That being the case, we are in a situation where we can't actually pay you for your labor...」

(Naruja)「About that, we are under some sort of protection. Doing a free service for a while should be no problem. And I think the support from Roshuru will arrive in five days?」

(Yuki)「Yes, that's the plan. But I can't make a definitive promise as they are not here yet.」

(Naruja)「I understand, then we should work at the smithing for sometimes and make goods to repay you. This way you can also sell them somewhere else and earn money.」

(Yuki)「Fumufumu, then the next thing is.....」

In that way, I discussed of various details.

Current time is 10 pm.

Oh, I wonder if we went overtime?

(Lutz)「Onii-san, you're being silly, humph ! ? Push it down!!」

Lutz was offended.

Was I in the bad?

Chapter 50 – For The Sake Of A Better Life

Side : Naruja

「..... And so, this Dungeon is now possible to be operated by human hands. This is thanks to a miraculous happening of the deceased Herge-sama. Now, aside from Herge-sama, the highest level of authorities is Seraria-sama which is her big sister. And while she is away, Labiris is the one with the most power.」

「... About how it will work for the new immigrants. I called out to this Dungeon's chief executive, Labiris. Why is it that, despite being seemingly so young, this woman working? I know some of you are wondering. This Dungeon is now restarting presently after the deceased Herges wishes. This town where you're living now, is different from any other one. I might be the person in charge, but I'm not a ruler. Here in this town, you will be informed by the directions we want to take and you can participate as well. In other words.....」

Before my eyes Ellis who was already talking yesterday and Labiris were explaining this Dungeon's purposes and its management to the new immigrants.

In other words, we were about to explain to the fairies.

However, how to describe the content of the speech. Well, you could say that it was well thought.

The meeting of yesterday was about our policies but it's quite hard to explain why they are this way...

That's why it was safe to use Herge-sama as a shield when it came to the people in this city.

Indeed, here we didn't have an opposition.

If we had an opposition, they had to prove that the dying wish of Herge-sama was false. Added to that, they could use the fact that Labiris was too young. But, that would show how they weren't seeing everyone as equal.

In other words, having this really young girl as the representative was a way to wedge any will of opposition.

And then, those who held any dissatisfaction had no choice but to make a comment here in this area. Which was a very disadvantageous situation for them.

In a sense, they were taking advantage of this place to live. And there was the screening.

Aside from the representative, there was the genuine Dungeon Master who was ... Waiting leisurely(Sleepy).

... Well, this couldn't be helped?

After all, the clock went far beyond what we expected yesterday.

What surprised me was that the women which were now standing as representative where former slaves who never worked at this function.

To sum it up, Yuki-san trained them until they were able to handle it.

If it was me, I couldn't say whether I would be able to do it.

Even though the elections for an elder wasn't done yet, to raise 10 newly persons as representatives is quite impossible.

While he seemed to be always skipping things, I wonder if Yuki-san wasn't the busiest of all.

Lost in my thoughts, a clamor suddenly happened.

「..... This is the skill of a Dungeon Master. Everyone, when you live in this Dungeon you produce a very little amount of DP. About 1 DP per 10 hours. With those DP you can produce a sword but that's not all of what you can do. You can discuss about various things useful for life and we will then take them out. Furthermore, the authority to use the DP has been already passed to one representative of your tribe. Elder Naruja-san, can I inquire you about earlier?」
「Yes」

According to the previous meeting of the day before, I had to make a demonstration for the people in the village.

「Everyone, as told earlier, I had received from Master1) ED note, I felt a great desire to make it Mistress XD Labiris-san's jurisdiction the authorisation to use DP. However, and as you know, this is not something I will use with greed. Rather, it's a thing that I will use to improve the life of everyone here. Presently, I received 1000 DP. This is what we received to use for the next 10 days. First and to testify that I have 1000 DP, I will use DP to serve as a proof. Using it, I will produce something for 285 DP which can only be produced inside this Dungeon.」

That way, I opened the screen and processed as planned.

That was ice creams. One piece with a spoon was 5DP.

Immediately, all the members received theirs.

「As I remember... This thing is called ice cream. It's a type of candy2) Author used Okashi which I believe means Sweet/ Candy, Editor also agrees it to same meaning . After discussing yesterday with everyone, I decided to go with something everyone would enjoy. The way you should eat an ice cream is...」

In front of everyone, I opened the lid. And scooping with a wooden spoon, I started to eat.

..... Mmh, tasty!

It was the second time and yet it was hard to endure. To think that such a candy existed...

This one tasted vanilla, but there was 12 others flavors that I was interested in....

To be honest. I wanted to just kickback and eat all of them with DP.

Huh, which reminded me... How did they calculate that 10 Hours gave 1 DP for a fairy?

Well, because they said that they had to add it to others and average it.

For the humans, a stay of 10 hours averaged 1 DP. So they said that as planned. But as the MP of the fairies were higher the output was increased. It depended on the tribe.

In other words, Superiority or inferiority would be attached.

So from the side, it would look as if the fairies endured an injustice.

That would result in a crack between the many tribes and the immigrants would stop to come.

For safety purpose, it was decided to freeze the amount of DP for everyone as 1 DP = 10 hours.

「Huh? If it's 1 DP for 10 hours for each living things, if we summon Monsters3)Mamono as living stock4) Lol don't you understand that you're the living stock already! , can't we increase the amount by much more? Then we would have an unlimited amount of ice cream Elder!!」

Someone who just ate his ice cream came over with a really good idea.

「Oh! I forgot to explain. The revised pill bug who came yesterday will be placed under the Dungeon Master. However, DP can't be absorbed from them. They are now guarding the facilities and the Dungeon. The summoned ones are the same.」

「Eeh, why is that?」

「The demons as you know are placed under the control of the Dungeon Master. It means that they have to comply with his instructions. Can you understand why?」

「... Wonder why?」

「That's because when placed under the patronage of the Dungeon Master, they don't have to eat anymore. Demons are usually born because of magic. They are a predator mostly interested in it. In order for them to remain at their maximum efficiency, the Dungeon master uses his own MP to substitutes for DP. Stronger monsters also require a bigger amount of MP. So at time it will reach the maximum in his efficiency conversion. For a monster to not die under starvation, DP can also be transformed into」

「Chee-, everything isn't so bright.」 5) I guess it's a figure of speech, not 100% sure 「ちえー、やっぱり上手くいかないか」

I was already thinking about it 「Demon domestication project!!」 It was simply rejected.

It made sense. If such a way existed, it should be already practiced. It's a world where cheating wasn't allowed.

There was a way to use the Dungeon Master's MP but here we were talking about the safety of Yuki-san. And this couldn't be done for the safety of the core.

We thought that it wouldn't be the case for us at first, but we, under the guardian appointment, couldn't be used as a mean to absorb DP anymore.

In other words, it wasn't possible for DP to convert into MP directly.

Assuming that the MP of the people under guardian appointment could be converted as DP, it would result in huge temptations to kickback and make unreasonable DP requests.

Especially for the members of the fairy tribe, if they were to be set free to use it.

No, a world of things would become a crack between the many tribes.

It truly was an environment where you couldn't cheat. No, assuming the life will stay as good as it was now, it would end in too much ambition.

Ah, now my mind was drifting towards living in this Dungeon permanently. To be honest, unless Yuki-san went mad, this Dungeon was probably the safest place on the continent.

In the unlikely event that the countries cooperating with the Dungeon moved away, and with many countries attacking it, nothing could really break its defenses.

* First, it's impossible for a big army to enter.

* Next it's possible to disable the hostile force with traps.

• The establishment of a field that sealed Skills/Magics.

• Another one where you could bring weapons only in a sheath. Unless they were under an exception, they had to go under the rules of a designated area.

Well, there was also Yuki-san's special item. Paralyzing the moment it was retrieved? It seemed to tie up.

• The ones appointed as guardians by Yuki-san wouldn't receive a scratch while in the Dungeon.

The only concerns were civil wars. In the future, aside from the immigrants, we will be accepting travelers, merchants, and adventurers.

However, guardians<sup>6)</sup> I will sometimes shorten appointed guardians as just guardians when I'm lazy possess a transferring which could be used immediately to escape.

By the mean of Call, it also had the fastest mean of communication.

The repression by deploying the demons was also possible.

And then, the guardians could control a doppelganger from the shadow. 7) Not sure if they talk about the appointed guardian Kiyu, or if each Guardian have their own doppelganger. I guess we'll figure that out later. If anyone is willing to help thought: そして、今後指定保護者はドッペルゲンガーを影武者に立てる事。

The more you thoughts about those foundations, and the more you found out that there was not really a reason to leave.

Nature and weather that I couldn't imagine were inside this Dungeon.

Here was a maybe. But all the people should approximately think the same thing. That it was the best place.

Now, with the long thought over.

「Well well, if you want to have ice cream, we will handle them in the shops at the training center and the city mall. Is that alright?」

「Eh!? Is it true!!」

「Yes. I shall now proceed to the explanations of the goods, the jobs, and how you can earn money to buy them.」

「Yossha—!! Something motivating came out!!」

My thought already went over the fact of giving all of them a sample of this luxury goods, but it seemed to be motivating for everyone.

Some people would be lazing in this environment but this is a matter at the scale of each person.

「Please, everyone who is done eating his ice cream, put the remains in this thrash can. In the city as well, those are installed in various places in order to keep the city neat and tidy. We'd appreciate if you don't throw them somewhere else. This is important for the hygiene and to prevent any strange disease. Nobody wants to eat something rotten right? Properly disposing of the trashes also prevent for the mice and the like to breed.」

Ellis was explaining how to collect the trashes.

「Huh? I know rotten things are bad. But why would doing this prevent the rats from breedings?」

Oh, someone asked the same question as I did. If you thought over it thoroughly you would understand, but it couldn't be helped anyhow. I was usually not thinking until that point.

「That's a good question. Why do you think that for a rat, it's okay to eat rotten things?」

「That's because a rat wouldn't get sick from it?」

「Yes, exactly. However, we can't go by the saying that a rat can't get sick.」

「Oh, I see. It's okay for a rat but we can't imitate them. So when a rat eating rotten things will breed, it will cause the spread of diseases. Ellis-san is amazing!!」

As the child who asked the question got his answer, all the other nodded.

「No, this is something I got taught. This is the same for toilets. By steadily managing feces and processing them...」

「Oh, that will reduce diseases too!! Wow, toilets are amazing!!」

「Thank you for your understanding. So, if you see rats it's better to clean them as much as possible. You should never eat their meat, instead think of incinerating them. Since you can find restrooms everywhere I think it's best if you keep them clean after using them. That's all, thank you for your cooperation.」

「「「Wa-i」」」

After collecting the garbage, we left and moved for a while to the description of the training facility.

「This is the place near the gate from where you came by yesterday. Basically, it is a lounge room where you can have a chat or relax. The drinks here are free, so don't hesitate please. But the amount we decided to replenish is limited, so from now on, everyone will discuss about how much should we increase it. The meal will also be made by everyone. Since this place is a training center, please make yourself familiar with it so that you can proceed on living on your own.」

「Huh? In the end, we will have to leave this place?」

「Yes, after you secure your job and save enough, you will be able to buy individual houses. There are some in the residential area, but first you'd have to start working and save enough money. We will show you the things beside the training facilities tomorrow, so please look forward to it.」

「I'm looking forward to it! My own home!! Sounds great!!」

For us from the fairy tribe, it was normal to live with a group of 3 to 4 people. Only those who had a special role such as me or those with a hobby owned their own house.

That was for safety's sake. No matter how good we were, our fairies lived deep inside the forest. We barely had any exchange with the other tribes.

There were various dangers associated with it.

Such was the case, but not here.

Before, they were forced to live together. But now, their dreams would spread.

After all that, we went over many places. Such as the place for study inside the training room, the food storage, the cleaning facilities and so on.

Next Lutz came. She was holding a weird tool.

「Ellis, how about it? If you don't mind, can I take pictures?」

「Yeah, it's fine Lutz. Everyone now, please come inside the training room A to take a picture. We will need them to complete your identification.」

So, one by one, the weird tool made a strange light.

What is this photo? Wasn't it nothing but a problem?

As a matter of fact, I was also concerned about this identification. I didn't know what shape it would take.

(Lutz)「Ellis, the shooting is over. After this, it's printing, cutting, pasting, and adding a seal. And the date of issue... so much to be done!!」

(Ellis)「Yuki-san, Labiris can you come over and help?」

(Lutz)「Yes, that's the only way out of it...」

(Ellis)「I will now proceed to the bath according to schedule. Can you manage it in the meantime?」

(Lutz)「Huh~.May I return to the inn?」

(Ellis)「You can't! Otherwise, I'll tell Yuki!」

(Lutz)「I was just joking. That's impossible because I don't want onii-san to hate me!!」

The ID proof seemed to be hard to make.

「Then let's do a good sweat before we purchase this. In a sense, it's this Dungeon's specialty.」

Ellis-san took the lead, grinning with a pleasant smile.

She was definitely talking about the bath.

We're also used to take a bath. Troubles such as adjusting to the perfect temperature for people was a luxury.

Why did such a thing exist...

While I thought so, I went to the bath.

「Alright, everyone. As you have plenty to learn from here, I had Tori and the others help me. First of all please take off your clothes in the dressing room.」

When Ellis said that, Tori, Kaya, and Riel took off their clothes on the spot. They put them in a basket and retrieved something else out of it. What was inside? They retrieved a big towel and a hand towel.

「As they did, retrieve both the big and the hand towel from the basket. Put your clothes in. And put the big towel back inside. Then please enter this way with your hand towel. Tori and Riel will now take the lead. As for Kaya, she will guide you with me.」

(Tori)「Roger」

(Riel)「Leave it to me!!」

(Kaya)「...Roger」

Then, in the bath, this never ever seen Eden was spreading. 8) Double sense here is real

The exhilarating feelings given by the shampoo, the rinse, and the soap.

A variety of different pleasurable sensations piled inside me while I was soaking in the hot water.

It seemed that staying too long inside the hot water wasn't good.

Was the hot water causing dizziness?

「Okay, when you get out, wipe yourself firmly with the big towel. Everyone will have to wash their own clothes and towels. I will guide you to the location for the laundry.」

That would be another story, but because I was daydreaming and skipped the explanations for the laundry, it would become a problem later.

「Elder-sama, how was the bath?」

Currently, after a delicious dinner, I was now chatting with Ellis and suddenly got asked about the bath.

「It's very good, don't you think? I have to tell to the children appointed to clean the bath to do it properly tomorrow.」

That was obvious, if those children get the bath dirty or muddy, I'd punish them.

「That's good. You may have noticed it, but the entertainment facilities also have baths. There are various kind of open-air bath, where you could see the scenery, only-foot bath, waterfall bath and various others...」

「What, and this bath is already very elaborate?! Yet you're telling me that there are even more elaborate baths!!」

Mou, I was amazed once again. As those words hit me, they felt like lightning!! I would have never expected it!!

This was precisely an extravagant luxury!!

「Yes yes. To tell you the truth, I also have to manage that...」

「Please guide me!! According to the schedule, we will tour the entertainment facilities tomorrow. So before the end of the day, as the representative, I have to prepare!!」

Like that, a hand is stretched from my back and placed on my shoulder.

「As expected of Elder-sama. To notice the splendor of baths... This Millie9) the Japanese can refer to themselves by saying their own name will escort you. In addition, let's enjoy the supreme pleasure of drinking liquor inside the hot spring!!」

「No, no, noooo!? The luxurious bath that even exceeds luxury! And you'd add a drink to it!? Is such a thing even allowed!?」

「What are you saying. We are the ones managing it. In other words, such rules are things we decide. Whether it's good or not, you should try it for yourself. Is it wrong?」

「No ! ! I agree with you, Millie-san!! When I am not able to find a solution, the only remaining possibility is to try!!」

「Well, here we go!!」

「Yes ! !」

My hand connected with Millie's, I ran to the facility.

「Eh, what~ Am I dreaming?」

side : Lutz

「Ku~, dinner hours are already over. Do we still have the time to go to that place?」

「That's right. However, the identifications certificates are quite tedious to make. I'm also thinking about borrowing a hand from the fairies in the future. Next, we will have 300 people.」

「I don't want to think about it. Let's lower our heads and find the staff for it.」

While I talked about this, I handed a certificate to onii-san. And the last one was in my hand.

「Huh, isn't that the elder, Naruja-san? Does she need the restroom?」

「In such a place?」

As I reciprocally tilted my head to the side, Ellis came over...

「Heeh~.It seems that the Elder alongside Millie went for the hot springs facilities. About 30 minutes ago I talked to the elder about it and she became excited.....」

I want to praise myself just for not crushing the ID card of Naruja-san in my hand.

「Hey. this. is. not . fun!!」

Anyway, let's hope that Millie's usual bad drinking habit didn't spread to the Elder.

Chapter 51 – Rookie Adventurer

side : Raija

We were now inside the town Killis. Gathering information and necessary supplies for the future.

(Raija)『Yuki, can you hear me?』

(Yuki)『Ouh, I can hear you.』

(Raija)『It's for our periodic report. As planned, we reached Killis. For the moment, we have decided about an inn and are gathering information on our own.』

(Yuki)『Roger. Incidentally, was Kiyu exposed?』

(Raija)『If he becomes exposed I won't say that it went "as planned"』

(Yuki)『Well, that's right. I will now proceed to register Kiyu as an adventurer. I believe that Kiyu will manage it skillfully regardless of what happens.』

(Raija)『Please do. We will attend to his protection from in front of the building, otherwise, if we do it officially it might draw attention as is. Also, if you show Kiyu's skills poorly, it will bring trouble. By the way, how are you?』

(Yuki)『Ah, that's... a bit of a long story. I'll inquire of our matters later.』

After what the call got cut out.

But, this skill "Call" is really useful.

(Lulu)『What's the deal?』

(Raija)『Hmm, Yuki seems to gather information by himself』

(Lulu)『I see. In the end, we need to rely on his strength.』

Losing power, Lulu-sama dropped her shoulders.

As a matter of fact, I already know that I am powerless. But, there was no need to continuously repent on it.

(Raija)『Lulu-sama, there is no reason to feel down. Even if I am an adventurer, I can't do anything on my own. Of course, Yuki can do it. Therefore he lowered his head to a lot of people in order to cooperate with you. I think that Lulu-sama should have more confidence in herself.]

(Lulu)「That thing, probably...」

「The important thing on our hands now is to think about how we will move from now on. To us adventurers, in order to survive, we can even eat rotten meat or stir muddy water. However, in certain situation, you simply cannot do that as the only result would be death.」

(Lulu)「Then, now what?」

(Raija)「I don't know, I'm not used to betting with the life of others. But Lulu-sama, did you rise to the status of a Holy Woman without borrowing anyone's power?」

(Lulu)「No, that's not it. By now, I have depended on many, many people.」

(Raija)「And now it's just the same. We and Yuki are also ones amongst many. Don't you think so? That Yuki honestly wants to help you? When the hope is poor, that's especially the time that you have to try your hardest to be successful. It's easy to understand, right?」

(Lulu)「Yeah... that's true. Why is that, towards Yuki-san, I have an inferiority complex.....」

It's because your abilities are way different.

It was like comparing yourself to something perfect. So the feeling is pretty normal.

Still, I think there was room for you to overcome Yuki at something.

No, this is the same for me. And I didn't think this because I had an inferiority complex.

(Raija)「Whew. Wait, it's funny how you are hesitating. I told you, you are not me. You have things to do Lulu. And I'll back you up until I die. So work hard until we're done.」

Like that, the time for Yuki to fill in slowly came out.

This conclusion was easy to reach since he was coming to our place.

(Yuki)「Here」

As soon as he entered, Yuki threw two coins.

Lulu-sama and I received them.

(Raija)「Is this a normal copper coin?」

(Lulu)「Humm」

(Yuki)「Oh, keep it without using it. When the time comes, I'll let you know of its use.」

(Lulu)「What do you mean?」

Lulu-sama was wondering over Yuki's words.

(Yuki)「Oh yeah, wake up Kovil.」

After that Kovil got pulled by Yuki.

Because we didn't want her to stand out too much she got buried along our luggage.

I think it was inconvenient but Kovil seemed to understand and she didn't say anything about it.

Unlike the first fairy we met, she's like the type who can think firmly.

(Kovil)「M...? Oh Kiyu, meal?」

(Yuki)「Unfortunately, I am Yuki. Here, a special doll sized skewer for you.」

(Kovil)「Waa, thank you!!」

(Yuki)「And, besides. Take this, it's something like a talisman.」

(Kovil)「Munch Munch, what is it? It's just a coin. What use does it have.?」

(Yuki)「Use it as you like. In the midst of a battle, to buy something to eat, or to use as a trump card that's your choice.」

(Kovil)「Huh, it's a gift from Yuki right? I will take good care of it, I'm not using it.」

(Yuki)「Oh, whatever. It's like that. Did you understand Lulu?」

Lulu had a question, so I turned around...

(Lulu)「Well, do you mean by myself?」

(Yuki)「You see. You can throw this to blind someone or to draw attention. Or you can make it important just like Kovil and take good care of it. Or you can use it in emergency situation for affordable items. It's not always necessary to use money as money. Especially for you Lulu. You will be in the most dangerous place. That's why I'm recommending you to have some non-standard items to use as weapons.]

(Lulu)「..... Yes. Understood.」

Lulu-sama thoroughly gazed at the coin she just received.

(Yuki)「So Raija, you should have various skills at your disposal, I suppose?」

(Raija)「Of course. Otherwise, if I can't use my spear I wouldn't be able to stand my ground, even less than an amateur. It's standard to train in a secondary armament. Well for Yuki, it's not enough.」

While we had an idle talk, Curse and Mauve finally came back to us with the information they collected.

(Yuki)「Oh, now everyone is here. And that's a lot of information we have gathered.」

(Mauve)「There is a lot of people in that direction.」

A lot of information are available to us freely because it's already being said out loud by lots of people.

Yuki smiled, he seemed to be thinking the same.

(Yuki)「Well, I already have some informations here .I'm looking forward to any new information 」

(Mauve)「... Are you Yuki?」

(Curse)「I guess. Kiyu will never talk like that.」

(Yuki)「Jackpot ~ Well, why don't we listen to Mauve's explanation for starters?」

Like that, Yuki urged Mauve to talk.

(Mauve)「Ok, then let's start. First, Young Miss Lulu was attacked by surprise on her way home by demons and killed. As for the corpse, it seems that it was in a state so painful that they decided to do the cremation on the spot. As a proof, the strange thing is that someone from the escort survived somehow and brought out the Miss personal belongings. Then, it was supposed that the attack was the handiwork of the Demon King. Well, it seems that Yuki had the right guess.]

(Yuki)「Skillful as expected, but... so boring<sup>1</sup>」 as in the scheme being so obvious, not the info. So, where is the place that Lulu was considered dead? In any case, is there a village close to it?]

(Mauve)「I don't understand why? It would seem that it was the case. The place is in the center of the Holy Country Ritea. Near a village that is close to the town Killis.】

(Yuki)「It's easy. To have Lulu killed they had to have witnesses to some extent.「This corpse seemed to be Lulu's」. The truth is, even if you scream that, no one is going to believe you. Even if you are a soldier of Ritea, that's unlikely. That's because, for a soldier of Ritea... They rather die fighting with honor than report information..】

(Mauve)「Indeed, that's not enough to convince Lulu's sect, or any other forces right? In that case, with someone dressed like Lulu-sama and looking like her to some extent, it was possible to impersonate her. And the corpse happened to be in the sight of the village.】

(Yuki)「Because of such a thing, even if the opposing factions don't believe this, most of the populace do. In other words, even if the real Lulu comes back...】

(Mauve)「She will be handled as a fake?】

(Lulu)「Wow, what is that about. I'm coming home!!! This is the place where Lulu lives!!】

Kovil, who heard the story now, came to cuddle with Lulu. It was strange because they are two women and our group was mostly composed of men. Like this, it seemed as if we were all friends.

(Yuki)「Well, it's fortunate that not too much time passed. If we happened to be a month from now it would be troublesome. The opponent has yet to perfect his hand at play.]

(Curse)「But that doesn't change the fact that we are at a disadvantage no?」

(Yuki)「That's true, their plan isn't complete yet. It's in a state where they can say that the operation was successful. Only a matter of time before that's the case.」

(Curse)「What is important now is to find how we can spread the news that Lulu-sama is still alive. And attack the center of Ritea.」

(Yuki)「Then let's talk about it again after I hear information from you. Mauve, are we done with your information?」

Yuki was asking Mauve just to be sure he didn't overlook anything.

(Mauve)「Yes, we're roughly at the end. Aside, if it's the capital of Ritea then what should remain is Alshtail ... right? The heir of the Miss was very sad, she might still not believe in the Miss's death.」

(Yuki)「Hmm. Lulu, what about this Alshtail?」

(Lulu)「He's right. Even in better or worse her heart is still shining with enthusiasm to help other people. She lacks experience somehow, so I'm a bit worried regarding her.」

(Yuki)「Well, if Lulu said it, it should be so.」

(Lulu)「Ugh2)Dispirited sfx」

(Yuki)「If the information brought out by Seraria didn't change, then you can assume that the information regarding Alshtail didn't change. Well then Curse, what information did you bring?」

Curse made a very interested and grinning face.
Well it's funny because it is unusual to see him like this.

(Curse)「Roughly, it's the same story as Mauve-san. Yet, I managed to earn more detailed information about Alshtail」

(Yuki)「Really?」

(Curse)「She is likely to visit the village where Lulu-sama died. Under the pretence of confirming the things Lulu-sama was wearing at that time. For the diehards it's a blow they'd want to stop, don't you think? I can assume this without doubt: They will provide something fake.]

(Yuki)「Kukuuku...」

(Curse)「Fufufu.....」

Yuki and Curse were looking at each other and they started laughing.

(Yuki)「This capital city of Ritea, I believe that it's going to be troublesome to reach the innermost part...」

(Curse)「Yes it's true, especially finding the last places...」

(Yuki)「Can they think that Lulu crossed to another country in order to invade?」

(Curse)「Of course there is still the country Roshuru. Therefore, it is okay for the hardliners to send Alshtail to the village, make her confirm Lulu-sama's death and make her the next holy woman. Even if the village is in the neighborhood it needs 4 days by horse nonetheless. Alshtail left 10 days ago approximately. She shouldn't be close to the village yet. That's why the other side is completely careless.」

(Yuki)「Indeed, and we have a very convenient vehicle here.」

(Yuki)「Kukuuku...」

(Curse)「Fufufu.....」

That's not good, it was looking dangerous!

A set of two men with a cunning mind.

Things weren't going to be done half-heartedly.

In each other embrace, Kovil and Lulu were trembling.

(Yuki)「So, what's the plan?」

(Curse)「That village right. The level of the villagers is so low that the level of monsters lurking around is low too, to the point it is referred as a training ground for new adventurers.」

(Yuki)「Well, you know me. I already had the idea of being a rookie adventurer.]

(???)「Me too.]

(Curse)「Well then, to train a newcomer, it's not unnatural to go at this village for training, no?」

(Yuki)「Yes, let's do the quest properly. It's better to do it the good way and stay legit until the end.]

(Curse)「Good, procedures are important.]

Like that, two men stood from their chair and walked to the door.

(Yuki)「Hmmm. Curse you come with me. Also, I need either Raija or Mauve to come. This should be enough for a guarantee.]

(Mauve)「Ah, yes, I'm coming.]

Mauve blurted something and ran after Yuki and Curse.

Yuki came back after a while, with his new status as an adventurer. As scheduled by Curse, he received the village's beginner quest.

But the face of Mauve wasn't exactly in a good shape.

(Mauve)「I'll never become a statesman ever. It was the first time I saw something that creepy...」

After asking what he saw, it looked like there was a problem with how Yuki and Curse interacted.

There was no problem with the story I heard.

But the problem lied between Yuki and Curse.

So if you hear it from Mauve...

(Curse)「Please excuse me, I want to register this child as an adventurer.]

(Lady at the desk3) It's obviously a lady, I dare you to object )「Yes let's do it. It's Curse-san ! ? Mauve-san too ! ? What happened to Raija?」

(Curse)「Nothing, Raija is relaxing at the inn.]

(Lady at the desk)「I see, that's good. Curse-san, is your party from the country Gai? I heard that your country and Roshuru were at war...」

(Curse)「Well, we survived. So, please, I'm here to register this guy?」

(Lady at the desk)「Ah. I'm sorry, it wasn't on purpose. Please fill here.」

(Yuki)「Yes」

(Lady at the desk)「Eehhh, you can write properly. Curse, is he your child?」

(Curse)「..... He is a victim of the war. After I saved him, somehow I became attached to him. His muscles aren't bad so I brought him here.」

(Lady at the desk)「... It was hard on you, no?」

(Yuki)「... No, because Curse-san and his party helped me together. That's why, I want to become strong just like them. I want to be able to save people just like they saved me.」

(Lady at the desk)「It's so rare nowadays for a child to be serious like you. But you can't be unreasonable. That is forbidden. Listen carefully to Curse-san and you'll be able to live firmly. Your wish, I'm sure you'll realize it someday.」

(Yuki)「Thank you very much!!」

It seems that Mauve stopped to listen at that point.

..... Yeah it gave me goose bumps...

Yuki, you are changing too much.

Chapter 52 – Job Allocation Problem

side: Philia

I was now being taught the way of smithing by the fairy tribe from their elder; Naruja-san.

I was deeply impressed!!

The fairies, together with dwarves are good at making things.

And through special means, can create advanced enchanted weapons or armors with magic.

Unfortunately, I don't remember my parents at all.

That's why, I wasn't able to forge as I should as a dwarf.

My nii-sama1)Big brother IE Yuki expected it from me, but I am really sorry that I was not able to make anything.

So I was taught blacksmithing by Naruja-san to be of help for my nii-sama!!

Then I'll have a baby with nii-sama!!

Aslin-chan is a human so it's quite difficult for her to bear a child with her small stature but that's not the case for me. Since I'm dwarf, we can produce children even while being relatively small.

So, earlier than Aslin, I can take care of my nii-sama's lust!!

Since nii-sama is kind, it's sure that he will embrace me in a lot of ways.

But it was practically certain that nii-sama wouldn't use us to attend his sexual desires.

I thought he wasn't interested but it's different.

Secretly, when my brother was asleep, I once touched nii-sama's important place with my hand and it made it big.

Thereafter, Labiris-chan noticed. She said that we had to calm the thing because it would be pitiful if we left it like this. She then joined me and we eased nii-sama together.

It was a strange taste, but I was happy since it was for nii-sama.

I hope that the day when nii-sama ask us directly would come.

I thought it was very strange that he won't. I asked, why doesn't nii-sama intend to lay his hand on us?

Then Labiris-chan said 「Yuki is currently protecting us to the best of his abilities since we are young. That's why, after we grow up a little, he will love us even more.」

Indeed, I think that Labiris-chan was right.

We were now, with our Onee-chan<sup>2</sup>) With our Big sisters, the most important people for nii-sama that he was protecting carefully.

Not just us three. The six others and the fifty-seven people who came recently were also important for him and the focus of his protection.

In such a busy time, nii-sama cannot afford to do such a thing with us.

Then, to reduce the burden of nii-sama, I borrowed the help of the fairy tribe!!

That's why, please don't hesitate to love us!!

Oh, but, since then, my nii-sama desires were taken care off by Labiris-chan, Aslin-chan and Lutz-san almost everyday.

Labiris-chan makes nii-sama sleep with sleeping magic. Then he lies in the bed and he sleeps soundly.

I mean, Labiris-chan said that if we didn't do this he will do it by himself!!

That's not good!! I will not give nii-sama's baby source to a tissue!!

Even if it's nii-sama I won't allow it!! At least, it should be taken out in our mouth!!

Rather, I wanted to put it in the middle instead of going PeroPero<sup>3</sup>)Sfx for licking but then Labiris-chan said 「You definitely can't because Yuki would be surprised」to stop me.

That's right. If before I would realize, a baby was made, I would be surprised too.

And if it happened like this to my nii-sama, I would be a little dissatisfied too.

I would like to do it with nii-sama when he is conscious.

However, today was another night where we will be licking nii-sama.! I was looking forward to it!!

(Naruja)「Are you okay? Philia-chan」

When she noticed, Naruja-san asked me.

(Philia)「Oh, I'm sorry. I am all right!!」

It's bad, it's bad. Even though I was learning how to work as a blacksmith.

Now, as per my brother plan, after work was done I was doing light blacksmith practice with everyone.

(Naruja)「You sure? Don't go overboard alright? Yuki-san asked me to protect you, well even if I think he is going a bit over protecting.」

(Philia)「Mou4) A cute way of saying Roh, nii-sama!!」

(Naruja)「Fufufu..., well you seem okay. But as Yuki-san said, it looks like you have talent. I suppose that you should not know anything about smithing, yet you have no hesitation when you strike the iron. Is it because of dwarven blood? Usually when someone strikes the iron for the first time, they became cautious.」

Naruja-san praised me while I was hitting the iron.

But because I was normal, I didn't understand that much.

I want to make the sword that my nii-sama will draw as soon as possible!!

(Naruja)「..... That is what makes a blacksmith. They put their mind into the things they make. I do not know but I understand well. Perhaps because magical power has emotions? Philia-chan, calm down. I know the feelings you have for Yuki-san and I know you will soon become excellent for him. But for now, when you make things you can't neglect any part. When you swing the hammer you have to do it with all your might and mind.」

(Philia)「..... I am sorry」

(Naruja)「It's fine. Be sure to keep this in mind. Because it will surely be helpful for Yuki-san.」

(Philia)「Yes!!」

After that, I immersed myself for a while. I forgot the time and continued hammering until Naruja-san called me to stop.

(Naruja)「Come to think of it, I didn't see Yuki-san today. Philia-chan do you know something?」

(Philia)「Yes, this morning he went with Lulu-sama to help.」

So on our way back, we talked about nii-sama.

(Naruja)「Oh about that, I have a problem. I wonder what to do, maybe I should have a talk with him tomorrow.」

(Philia)「Is there something? Does an important matter require you to speak with nii-sama?」

(Naruja)「That's right Philia-chan. Would you like to go to the shop for a moment?」

With Naruja we went to see today's shopkeeper of 「Super Lutz」Lutz.

Super Lutz is a convenient shop with various groceries and miscellaneous goods.

For now, other than the shop for training supplies, the other ones are not open. I mean, we don't have enough manpower.

Super Lutz is a size that I had never seen before.

Because it was a store based on the house?

But nii-sama5) Author used onii-chan here, but I think that I'll stick to nii-sama said, since it's a supermarket it need to be big.

taking the size of 4 – 5 buildings, product are placed together as narrowly as possible.

I was worried about thief but there was a cashier? And something called a barcode? If you go outside without paying, then you'll be paralyzed!!

While I was thinking about this, the doors of the store opened and we went inside...

(Fairy)「Wow amazing!! This looks delicious!!」

(Fairy)「Hey, what about frozen food?」

(Fairy)「That was talked yesterday. Located inside your room, there is a microwave.」

(Fairy)「It's amazing, this paper is white!!」

Wow, a group of fairies who finished their working hours came and went shopping, the inside of the store was overflowing.

It's crowded, most of the fairies came.

Oh, right. Since shopping needs money, for the experiment 5 silver per person were taken out from the savings of the Dungeon.

Thanks to that they could shop without problem.

(Lutz)「Yes, accountant please wait here!!」

(Aslin)「Millie, this product is out!! Where did we store it again!?!」

(Millie)「Chocolate is in the left side of the warehouse.....!!」

(Ellis)「Your bill is 13 Fold. It will be 1 silver coin and 3 copper coins.」

「Awesome!!」

Everyone seemed so busy.

Everyone knew that I was interested in smithing so they sent me off easily earlier...

Today, Labiris, Aslin, Lutz, Ellis and Millie were managing the store.

The group of Tori-san was busy with the cleaning of the training school and the shopping for dinner preparation.

(Naruja)「Oh oh, you did it this way?」

(Philia)「Have you understood?」

(Naruja)「Yes, I understood slightly. Is not that different from the outside here?」

(Philia)「Yes.」

(Naruja)「So, that's the first purchase. People from outside will be looking forward to it. Knowing the dreadfulness of this dungeon to some extent. But, that's in a good sense.」

(Philia)「Eh? Why?」

(Naruja)「Afterwards, it seems that Roshuru will bring about three hundred people, right? In that case Lutz will die out from exhaustion. There is a need to ensure absolute personnel before we can let people freely choose their work. We need to plan and stabilize everything for a while.」

(Philia)「I understand.」

It was as Naruja-san said. Most of the fairies would certainly be going to the smithery or manufacturing.

But this way there wouldn't be enough manpower for running the restaurant, public bath and so on.

At this pace, when the three hundred people would come we wouldn't have the time to move around.

That is serious!! It's not good if everyone's going to collapse!! I have to talk to nii-sama!!

(Naruja)「Well now, may we help in some way? Philia-chan could be the cash register? Is it possible?」

(Philia)「I can do it but I can't do the calculation... Even though it is automatic nii-sama said that it has to be done by someone who knew how to do the accounting.....」

(Naruja)「Hey it's fine. I will calculate.」

(Philia)「Very well!! Lutz-san!! Because Naruja-san will help us, we can open another cash register!!」

That way, Lutz -san finally noticed me.

(Lutz)「You are there Philia-chan. Welcome back. And thank you very much!! Then please open the second cash register here!! Ellis divide the lines!!」

(Ellis)「Okay, everyone. Because we will open this cash register, feel free to move to this line at your discretion!!」

After I opened the cash register, a lot of fairies with baskets full of candies came to me.

(Naruja)「Let's work hard now!」

(Philia)「Yes!!」

And somehow came the time when we closed the shop, ate dinner, and reached nii-sama's place.

(Millie)「Ah~, that was a bit unreasonable after all.」

(Lutz)「Isn't it? It was more than we expected. Onii-san said that Super6) Remember that Super is the name of Lutz's company. As it's writed like this スーパー; I may only use this word to respect the author even if it sounds clumsy wouldn't attract too many customers. But in the end, we lacked manpower. But we can be thankful to the fairies for making us understand all of this. At this pace, I'd be lying broken in a futon even before the three hundred people comes. Definitely.」

Lutz-san seemed to be very tired. Because when we were done, and the shop was closed, she still checked on the sales and other details.

(Yuki)「Speaking of which, how was it for our customers?7) そういえば、言ってた方はどうだ？」

(Lutz)「Let's see. There was no thief thanks to the security features, but through our one of our cashier who forgot to count something thrice some fairies suffered damage. I'm sorry about that.」

8)(Not 100% sure who talk but I Think it's Ellis.)「I am really sorry. I will apologize directly to them at a later time.」

(Naruja)「No, it doesn't matter. I have already given instructions on my side.」

9) (Not 100% sure who talk but I Think it's Ellis. )「Thank you very much elder.」

(Lutz)「As for accounting there is no margin for now. Because automatic calculation shouldn't be wrong. Just in the case something goes wrong and the bill is false...」

(Ellis)「We will see in the future. I am mostly giving it away to the automation when I'm too busy or tired. And I'm afraid to make a mistake.」

「Yes, there is nothing i can do about it. I only have to raise my awareness as much as possible.」

It seemed that there was no mistake with the money I handled.

I was glad that Naruja-san helped me.

(Yuki)「Well, the immediate problem regarding the staff. We can do two things as a countermeasure. One, is to limit the number of people entering the store at the same time. Two, I feel regretful about it, but we'd need some fairies to be forced as store assistant. What do you think elder? As a person not from your tribe, I am asking for your cooperation.....」

(Naruja)「Yes, even if I am the one doing it that's not a problem. In fact, it would even help us pay back a bit of the kindness we received. However, I'd like to add a litte condition to that.」

(Yuki)「What would it be?」

(Naruja)「It's to the extent that I am ashamed... but a lot of idiots spend their money to the last silver and started to spend money they previously owned privately. So I'd like for a salary to be paid on a daily basis. I understand the current state of finance in this place. That's a matter I have taken too lightly. I'm sorry.」

(Yuki)「... ahh, Lutz-san. How went the sales today?」

(Lutz)「Yes. So the sales today add up to 8561 Fold. 8 white gold, 5 gold, 6 silver and 1 copper after calculation.」

(Naruja)「... Surely more than the amount you supplied here...」

(Lutz)「We gave to each person 5 silver. For 57 people that's a sum of 2850

Folds. It was 2 white gold, 8 gold and 5 silver coins. If you deduct that from the total of money we earned, that's a sum of 5711 Fold. The fairies certainly were selfishly taking out from their own money. That's just about 100 Folds per person. 10) 1 copper is 1 Fold. So 5 silver = 50 copper = 50 Folds that means the fairies spent twice what they received as a welcoming gift. In short, they spent 1 gold today.]

(Naruja)「Urgh, that's ridiculous.」

(Lutz)「Well, I didn't hesitate to make it a hard price in order to rebuke them buying too much. Are the fairies rich perhaps?」

(Naruja)「Waa, it's embarrassing. That's why I want for those extravagant idiots to receive a salary if they enter...」

(Lutz)「Certainly, otherwise it would bring dissatisfaction.」

(Yuki)「Exactly. Pointing out the fact that salaries are not paid, it will bring bad effects in the future.」

Nii-sama and the others are talking about something difficult.

However, I was quite happy today.

For some reason there were some rules between the three of us.

On the lap of nii-sama, the three of us had to sit in order!!

And today was my day!! While he was talking, Nii-sama was stroking my head!!

It felt very nice. So I will give my everything tonight!!

(Yuki)「For the time being, we have to decide an amount for the salary starting tomorrow...」

(Lutz)「But Onii-san. Will we work on the foundation of a base salary? Because you once gave us an explanation...」

(Yuki)「In that case, we first have to do the calculation so that the morons who spent without speaking don't have to wait for next month...」

(Naruja)「... if ... that ...」

Hah, I started to feel sleepy.

Nii-sama's voice was getting farther away.

Ne, that's bad...

Chapter 53 – The Slime, The Demon King Of Violence.

side: Yuki, real name: Kazuya Torino

Now then, Lulu was just waiting for the arrival of the Holy Woman.

Car can sure be useful.

So, I was myself consulting everyday with the others in order to solve the problem with the fairies.

Fufufu... It gave me the feel as if I was working in modern Japan.

Today was the time of the fourth phase. With the tour of the Dungeon facilities and the tour of the workshops.

Since we only had a small amount of people to do the work, the inspection of the work field could only be done by yesterday.

I practiced for a bit, then I went to work.

I was still not used to this. After my oral explanation of the textbook, Naruasan displayed 20 Iron swords in front of me.

She took the materials out of an unlimited box.

As one would expect, the process of an alloy and iron was a troubling matter. I showed to them after they joined modern knifes and completed katanas.

The information that I found from the Internet were only explained orally. At first I thought it was a problem but not anymore seeing the draft products displayed in front of me. Even more so if we consider today's work only as a practice.

And as for another matter.

Yesterday Philia went to sleep during the meeting.

Not a problem at all. That's because with her small body, she had hammered iron the whole day and had showed me a completed sword.

The center of gravity and the balance were a bit off but for a first try it can be considered enough.

She was tired so she fell asleep naturally.

But in the morning Philia was crying.

An usual kind of crying at that.

(Philia)「Nii-sama conveniencceeee!! I don't want to give nii-sama to others!!」

That's correct. Those affectionate children were clinging to my shoulders every night.

I'm very happy about that but Philia was tired. Nothing I could do about it.

I was consoling her that way...

(Philia)「I wanted to go PeroPero Dezuuuuu!!」

PeroPero? Did she want an ice cream?

As I had been thinking, Labiris and Aslin had saved me from Philia.

At that time I had sworn to myself that I would get up and give her an ice cream.

Let's do our best today I guess.

The everyday training schedule started after breakfast at 8am. Then we start to work at 9 am.

At present it was 8.30am. Since everyone was going to come into the training room I had to move to another place.

And that's when I moved that it happened.

The intruder alarm rang.

Chi, troublesome.

I gathered everybody and we began to discuss this matter.

(Naruja)「Eto, can you tell me Lutz-san. Is it an alarm for intruders? Inside the Dungeon?」

Naruja-san, as she was not aware of everything yet, tilted her shaky head to the side.

Millie and Tori were in training room A as per usual giving lessons.

(Yuki)「Yes that's correct, our opponent just entered our detection range, we don't know yet his full informations but we determined that it should be a living creature... It's verified that he's humanoid. He still isn't entering the Dungeon. Does anyone have something to report from the animals you are each controlling?」

That way I asked for the opinion of everyone.

The past few days while I was in the Dungeon, I didn't only work on the construction of the town. I also tested new training methods for the demons and new method of scouting.

Well, they didn't seem as if they could concentrate well on it since they weren't familiar with it yet.

「Birds of my side confirmed that he was heading straight toward the Dungeon.」

「It's the same for me, I heard from the squirrels that he is heading directly to the Dungeon.」

「... I also know he is definitely coming here」

(Aslin)「...Hiku1)Crying sfx,Hiku」

Oh, Aslin was crying? Why?

(Labiris)「Yuki, the tanuki2) Japanese raccoon dog
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Japanese\_raccoon\_dog under Aslin got killed, that's why. I received a report from one of my followers.」

Ouch, Aslin loved this tanuki.

Would I need to pass on my meal?3) I Think author did a mistake because it doesn't feel right to speak of a meal just after the death of a tanuki <_<

(Philia)「ah, nii-sama!! Huh, this!?」

Meanwhile the time I was thinking, Philia pointed out something in the corner of the screen.

This young girl even if not an adult acted more and more adult-like.

『Ah, oh. Can you hear me? Dungeon master? I thought it was strange that the beasts were watching from far away, but as I thought. It's magical power. Is this one of your servant? Can't you see me? However, when you know that a Dungeon is newly made, you also know that the usage of such beast is useless. Well then, it's a waste of time to kill them all. Should I go forward? So be it. let's see each other in the Dungeon.』

The screen got cut off abruptly.

Perhaps it got killed.

(Labiris)『... One of Philia's got killed』

Although her face looked to be in pain. Philia did not cry.

Good. I had to comfort her at a later time.

(Yuki)『Now, does anyone know of this girl? I cannot imagine her being seen more throughly by the animals under our control...』

When I asked everyone, The face of Herge who was standing alone suddenly paled she then muttered something.

(Herge)『... blood-eating Princess 4)鮮血姫』

(Oriel)『Herge-sama, do-don't be ridiculous!?』

Oriel was overreacting to the words of Herge.

What, who was the blood-eating Princess?

After everyone listened to Herge, they stared to the screen.

What did this mean.

(Lutz)『... I don't want to believe it. Onii-san, I agree with Herge-sama's opinion.I think we shouldn't underestimate her.』

(Riel)『Me, me too, I also think, she should be the blood-eating Princess!? Th, that's because she's wearing a black dress!!』

Black dress? Is this the trademark of the blood-eating Princess or something?

(Kaya)「... With the grasping of the animals under our control to such extent, I too believe she is the blood-eating Princess.」

Lutz, Kaya and Riel all agreed to the words said by Herge.

(Yuki)「Hey, who is the blood-eating Princess? Is her name popular?」

(Lutz)「Oh, onii-san doesn't know, should I say it is natural? However, we don't have the time to explain it leisurely right now. Let's move every fairies gathered in the training room to the place where they may be able to escape.」

(Yuki)「It's serious to this high degree?」

(Lutz)「Yes, I trust onii-san's abilities but honestly. The name of the blood-eating Princess is horrible, it's unrealistic.」

Now we talked after we began the transfer.

It had came to an unanimous agreement that we had to do it.

Back at the training room when i had explained everything to Millie and Tori, they started to evacuate immediately as their faces were more and more pale .

(Yuki)「Ellis, you seem to have the deepest knowledge of this matter. Can you tell me what you know?」

That said, I wanted to rely on the Elven knowledge.

(Ellis)「 Only a bit but it's true. Yuki-san, there is only two people bearing the name of Demon King in this continent. The blood-eating Princess is one of them.」

Oh yes, a short time ago had happened all those three events. Mauve, the soldier of Roshuru and the knights of Ritea.

And now I suddenly had to deal with a Demon King event?

Oh maybe it was because of the previous incident with the self-proclaimed big four?

(Ellis)「No, this matter has nothing to do with the self-proclaimed big four. The blood-eating Princess basically act alone and goes around the continent destroying villages, towns, or even nations. As for her, the「Demon King of Tyranny」 was her original nickname instead of the blood-eating Princess. It is said that her dress was originally white but.....」

(Ellis)「Yes」

Heyhey, at least make it a red dress.

(Millie)「Yuki-san, the evacuation has ended.! Quickly Yuki-san evacuate!!」

Millie rushed here.

(Yuki)「No, Demon King-sama nominated me. I would be troubled to escape in that case. Everyone, go wait with all the evacuated. In the case that I die, leave this Dungeon at once. Does everyone have his Dungeon core? Use them to make new Dungeons.」

(Lutz)「Wait ! ? Onii-san!? You're willing to fight!?」

Lutz approached me as soon as she heard my statement.

(Yuki)「Okay okay, calm down. I'll stay in the deepest part of the dungeon and I'll escape if it becomes dangerous. If I judge that I cannot intercept her, I'll make Lutz and the others run away first and concentrate on stopping her. I will not die.」

(Labiris)「... Yeah, he's not lying.」

Labiris who held my hand verified the that I meant what I said.

(Lutz)「..... It would be nice. But if it becomes dangerous, please escape by all mean okay? I don't want to be a widow so soon.」

(Yuki)「Don't worry. Go ahead and take your leave.」

After I said that, everyone reluctantly walked to the shelter.

...Huh? Did I unexpectedly set myself to a death flag5) Japanese sometimes talk about "Flag", it's like seeing an event as a flag in a game ?

Wow, time out. Because there is no way that such words would go out normally, please disable the flag.

Somehow, I must break this death flag!!

Thinking that way I went to the Dungeon remotest area.

An alarm echoed. Saying that the blood-eating Princess already broke inside the Dungeon.

She was currently in the first floor. I needed to take advantage of the MAP6) 距離を稼ぐ為のMAPである。

In the meantime, I placed the Goblin army and the Slime army in the second floor to make an interception line.

Let's have a look at the blood-eating Princess status.

Name : Delille • Le. Kossel 7) 名前 : デリーユ・ル・コッセル

Tribe : Humane

Normal Skill

Royal etiquette (Well, she's basically popular. She's human, raised by human, she just happened to grasp some manners.)

Fire magic LV3

Water magic LV3

Wind magic LV3

Kossel sword mastery LV4

Kossel shield mastery LV2

Kossel martial arts LV5

Arithmetic LV3

What did you think of the previously displayed status of the Demon King?

Also, the explanations of the Royal etiquette was totally inappropriate.

Everyday, I updated the status so that it was easy to see,. But after I had seen the informations I was feeling at loss.

No, I think the explanation was accurate, but the sentences were too vulgar?

But as expected of a Demon King.

She had twice the Level of Kiyu. What a cheat.

Ah, well. She is a Demon King after all. It seemed like I had not confirmed it with Herge's story, was she the first in history?

After all that thinking, she had already traversed a layer of 5km in a mere 2 minutes.

Let me see, with her current speed she should be around... 150km per hour. How great, what a monster.

Well then, I was looking forward at what I could do with my interception line at the second floor.

For the time being, I wished I could be in the actual place to have a talk.

Side : Delille •Le•Kossel

I 8) she uses Warawa which would loosely translate into "This humble self", basically it's somewhere between wealthy merchants and lower end nobles. didn't know how old my age was reaching.

Since that day, I never looked at my status. I decided to leave it in mystery.

My country had once fallen in war, because of the human greed. It ended in wasted ruins.

Because of that specific skill of Mine, 「Growth like a flower」, All the experiences from the soldier, babies, men and women ended up being collected by I.

Ironically, after the enemy had killed all of our people they couldn't defeat I.

And before they had noticed, all the enemy who had attacked us had become crushed under this fist.

The pure white dress I received from Oto-sama9)Father was dyed in blood.

Even after I had washed the dress, the color of blood never fell. I thought it was wrong. I thought that I didn't know how to wash it properly.

There was no maid to take care of I anymore.

This was the thing I should always carry.

So I decided to wear it.

Despite being dyed with blood, the comfort was not changed just as before.

The town of my country, the streets of my villages, everything was decimated. A putrid smell swelled in the air.

If left like that, it would cause plagues or an outburst of undeads.

So, I burned it out with strong magical powers.

After I burned everything in my country, I killed everyone of the invading country and burned all of their nation.

I, who had no home to return, drifted out of the country with my stained dress intact.

Even without eating food or getting any drink, I could continue without problem.

After that, I rescued oppressed nations, subjugated thieves, smashed troublesome Dungeon Master that created Dungeons. Crushed foolish countries.

And before I noticed, I was already called a Demon King.

It's laughable. I, one of the humans, not a demon, was called a Demon King.

But, I didn't care about such a thing.

If it can reduce the tragedy from that time, it's something I am willing to bear.

Then I heard rumors from the countries Gai and Roshuru.

It was a stupid thing. The act of a foolish territory because of greed.

The crime of a country that I missed.

For such a problem, replacing the head of the top of the country was the best.

That's what I thought but when I stepped into the country, the battle was already done.

Because it was self-purification it was even better.

When I hanged around Roshuru I heard some funny stories.

It was said that the Holy Woman Herge received a Dungeon just before her death.

Funny story, because a Dungeon can only be operated by a Dungeon Master.

Something like taking control was certainly made up.

Well, knowing that, I decided to kill the Master of this Dungeon directly.

I understood. This country still has a pest inside.

Let's hope that later an opportunity shall come. Let's not waste time for now.

It's good to declare war with animals and all.

But seriously, what with this Dungeon?

It's supposed to be a floor but until the wall nothing can be seen except for a road in the middle of meadow.

There was no demon or anything.

For the time being, because I could see the stairs at the end of the road, I was using flying magic to reach the other end of the floor in one go.

(Delille)「What's the meaning of this? Why bother adding a sky to a Dungeon?」

This question was involuntarily leaked from my mouth.

It was strange. This Dungeon was strange.

(Delille)「Guya!?」

When I reached the second floor I fell miserably to the ground.

I uttered a strange cry I never did since a long time.

By what means I couldn't fly? No, it as if I couldn't release Mine power?

When I captured the numerous Dungeons there were cases of such traps.

It's the kind of trap that's unclenched when the system detect an intruder with magic.

At first glance, it's a good trap. But monsters can't use their magic either.

Just like a double-edged blade.

But for I, I only needed to increase my physical ability in my body.

Wait... I couldn't use my skills!?

No, that wasn't it. I won't forget how to use Mine fist nor Mine sword.

This was a trap that seales acquired skills?

No, it's not the acquired skill either, then it's the skill I was able to release that were sealed.

I was able to calm down eventually and remembered that I already strengthened Mine body's ability.

Did I fail to use my skill earlier?

(Yuki as a slime)「Nice to meet you? Should I call you blood-eating Princess?」

Like that came one person. No, one monster. The one who turned up was a slime.

(Delille)「Humph, blood-eating Princess is popular. But Mine proper name is Delille・Le・Kossel」

(Yuki as a slime)「That was rude from me. May I refer to you as Delille-dono then?」

(Delille)「Ah, how rude of you. When there's a family name, it's a disgrace not to use it.」

Thus, I tried to fly but failed immediately.

I confirmed that any usage of magic and skill was sealed.

(Yuki as a slime)「Shut up lass. After you broke into my home, why should I be courteous, idiot?」

(Delille)「Huh!?」

This feeling, I was disgusted.

Perhaps this monster was a doppelganger, the shadow of the Dungeon Master.

Different than the earlier sightseeing, I experienced an overwhelming intimidation as if I was below a throne.

(Yuki as a slime)「Well, I am a bit different than you but I have some understanding. That's why I will still attach the dono. How does it sounds Delille-dono? That, if you don't mind, I would like you to return as it is? Or maybe you didn't come to fight but to visit? In that case, we will not be open to the public yet, so please refrain back」

(Delille)「What's not open to the public. Do you mean that I am invading your country?」

(Yuki as a slime)「No that's wrong. Do you know that this is the official Dungeon from the country of Roshuru? And that the Dungeon has the official recognition of the entire state?」

(Delille)「Idiot, I know that. It was a mistake to declare that they took over the control of the Dungeon and that it's suitable for training. I know that, because I already took over Dungeons. I killed Dungeon Masters but I was never able overtake the control of a Dungeon. Don't make fun of !!!」

That's why I cut off the discussion and went to hit him.

No matter how much my magics and skills were sealed, our difference in level was still overwhelming.

I will kill this monster quickly and was already thinking of the way ahead.

(Delille)「What!?」

The Slime stopped my fist.

No matter what, it was only a slime. There's no way it could stop Mine fist...

(Yuki as a slime)「This is the first time I had to personally meddle. I really didn't want to do this. Too much trouble.」

(Delille)「Hey, you, stupid!? Even if it's a mutated slime, there's no way... How!?」

The slime was entangled around Mine body.

I couldn't move, why!? That's stupid. I wasn't able to use Mine skills nor Mine magics!!

There shouldn't be a case even if the slime was stronger than me when I am rendered powerless!?

(Yuki as a slime)「Come on, don't make a face as if you've seen a ghost. I don't care how experienced you are but you shouldn't be surprised by something of this degree. The world is wider than that you know? Well, let's put that aside. For now, are you a being that can live without breathing?」

(Delille)「What, you!?」

As soon as he said that, the slime began to cover a part of my face.

Are you trying so suffocate I!?

Your nucleus!! If only I could crush your nucleus, slime!!

Thinking so, I tried to break the slime's nucleus, but I couldn't grab it because of its body's property!?

(Yuki as a slime)「Hee, you're trying to aim at my nucleus. Well, good luck with that.」

The shadow of the Dungeon Master made an expression as if it said well done, but it didn't last for long. Right after it took a book out of its bosom and started reading.

Oh, don't make fun of me!!

A slime of this caliber, with only a flicker of my magical power, I could tear it in pieces!!

I'm focusing my consciousness... tried to activate my magic... With no results again!?

(Yuki as a slime)「Oh, I'm bored already. If you can't even break something of this degree, don't expect to breach in any further as you won't be able to pass any of the other lines of defense. Let's finish. I'm a busy man. Well, then.」

(Yuki as a slime)「Piku—!!」

I heard a small cry come from the slime.

Next I started moving independently of Mine will.

What was going on!?

(Yuki as a slime)「Let me tell you one thing. Is this like a boss? You know yourself that the release system is enclosed. Well, where are you now ~?」

(Delille)「!?!?」

Inside the slime's body!?

In other words, I was under the control of the slime. It can unexpectedly use its skills inside his body!?

(Yuki as a slime)「Yes, then good night」

Thus I lost my consciousness, hurt by my own fist.

side : Lutz

Should I say it was as always?

We watched the whole process and we were all stunned.

Onii-san provided us with the status. Numbers I thought we could never compete against.

I thought that we had no way but to give up.

(Yuki as a slime)『Yes, then good night』

This words said, the blood-eating Princess fell, stunned from her fists.

(Lutz)「O, onii-san. It was splendid. That's impossible though, to not repel her but rather to capture her...」

On the screen, we could see the blood-eating Princess thrown inside the special cell where the self-proclaimed big four were restrained.

(Yuki as a slime)『No, I only left it to the slime because she could fly over the pitfalls and with her status it would have been troublesome. It worked better than I thought.』

(Lutz)「Far from working, it was perfect..... By the way, what is the slimes level, is it outrageous?」

(Yuki as a slime)『Not at all, the level is 82. And if you compare the status he isn't one-tenth in power.』

(Lutz)「haa? If it's only a tenth of her power, how can it suppress the blood-eating Princess...」

(Yuki as a slime)『Fufufu, if you hear the name of this slime, you will be surprised!! Its name is「Surakichi-san10」 It looks like it's a from a Japanese manga called Slime adventure chronicle <http://www.suruga-ya.jp/product/detail/994907677001> ! !』

..... I couldn't recall this name anywhere in my memory.

(Lutz)「Eto, this「Surakichi」, is it a great name from your hometown?」

(Yuki as a slime)『... I'm not sure if it's a great name in my hometown. Well, in my hometown, it's how we call the strongest slime ! !』

(Lutz)「Eto, is level 82 a legend?」

(Yuki as a slime)『I will show you the status.』

Did I say something wrong?

Before I noticed, I attached 「San」 to it just like onii-san did.

I meant, what with those numbers!?

Well, in this Dungeon, the blood-eating Princess can fly over a long distance and in this Dungeon, the slime Surakichi-san is stronger than the Demon King.

I had to declare that, with this strange slime Surakichi-san, I'm now seeing monsters in a new light.

Chapter 54 – The Demon King And The Children

side: Labiris

We were standing before a small grave.

This time since the Demon King came, two animals died.

Poor things, they gave up their lives to help us.

But for Aslin and Philia it was as if they lost members of their own families.

(Aslin)「Hegu, Hiku. . . . .」

(Pilia)「. . . U,Uuuu. . . . .」

At the feet of Aslin and Philia gathered their other animals, they mourned the loss of their friends.

Here were Yuki, Oriel, Herge, Ellis, Tori, and Riel. The others were either working or at the training center.

Because they would tell about this place I won't explain it to you now.

(Yuki)「Then, have you seen enough?」

(Delille)「. . . . .」

And now, this was the Demon King who was the reason for these graves.

She had woken up from being unconscious and went through the streets of this Dungeon.

Yuki wanted to show her that we had no intent to invade the country Roshuru.

(Delille)「. . . . . It was a misunderstanding of Mine」

No one was afraid of Delille now.

The thing is, Yuki already appointed us as guardians so we could not longer be harmed unlike the residents.

More than anything, Aslin and Philia were now looking at her as a fellow human and not as a Demon King.

「Since I woke up and I received answers. There is no need to make this life of Mine stand still.」

Delille expressed as she looked at Aslin and Philia.

(Yuki)「Well, you were able to solve the misunderstanding. That's for the best. What do you plan to do next?」

(Delille)「What do I plan next? Am I not seen as a sinner in this place?」

(Yuki)「Ahah what the heck are you saying. Don't give up on your life. Come, formely apologize in front of them.」

Yuki said and pushed Delille toward Aslin and Philia.

(Delille)「Because of Mine own feelings, I did something like that. . .」

(Yuki)「Delille , until now you thought about your own feelings, right? There is always several possible result, it was just one of them. Well, didn't you just come by the road? And now you are crying because you killed your opponent after a mistake?」

(Delille)「. . . . Such a thing is. . .」

(Yuki)「Maybe because you just wanted to press your opinion into others, you did it that way? Because you thought of yourself as absolute?」

(Delille)「. . . .」

(Yuki)「Haa~, indeed. Were we evil with great power? And since you believed this you easily, convinced of your actions. But then, you found out that it wasn't true. However Delille it's still not good. You need to be calm to make your own judgments. Well, the difficulty is normal since you were defeated for the first time as you have always lived under your own beliefs. I guess it's easy to blame things on your opponent.」

Yuki was speaking to Delille , he tried to calm her.

(Delille)「.....Isn't your position against I similar? Don't you want to kill I?」

(Yuki)「That's true, it's easy for us to make a mistake as well. Do you understand my point Delille?」

(Delille)「. . . . .」

(Yuki)「In our case, you already understood that you made a mistake. At least apologize」

(Delille)「Urgh, now I am afraid, I can't think of anything to say. . .」

(Yuki)「That's how it is? You're not some scary creature. You're a doll. With no emotions. That means you can't even have fun together with everyone. You won't even cry if someone close to you dies.」

(Delille)「Me, am I a human? I was always called a Demon King since my powers were out of the ordinary. Mistress?」

I feel something changed with Yuki 's words, Delille had a soft voice when she had called out to me earlier.

It was hard to understand Yuki's words, but I think Dellie was a capable person.

Because she said that she came to beat the dungeon master when she was talking to Yuki 's shadow on the call screen.

She had thought that we wanted to invade Roshuru. Although she asserted that it was a misunderstanding, she was not violent, only trying to do what she thought as right.

That's why, we won't make a scandalous request to Delille nor will we punish her.

Separately, I think the death of the two animals under Aslin and Philia was a bad thing.

If this was Yuki's life, I don't think I could ever forgive her.

(Yuki)「Rather than an human, it's about someone you care, someone you can communicate with, someone you can understand. If you don't narrow the definition, it's normal for Aslin and Philia to shed tears.」

(Delille)「Ah. . .」

(Yuki)「Although the animals can't talk the same language, they are our friends. It's possible to talk even with the Demon King. Despite her powers or the fact that she is a loli baba. Well, there's always a limit, but nothing is absolute. Just like I don't feel like trying to convince everyone I meet one by one.」

Same as ever, Yuki said something strange again.

Was it obvious? Because as a Dungeon Master, he is responsible for various monsters, would it be the reason for his way of thinking?

(Delille)「That's just like that but. . . WAIT A MINUTE!! You said that I was a Loli baba!? I don't know what Loli means, but I know what's the meaning of Baba!婆 Old lady, granny!! I'm a young girl, I demand correction!!」

(Yuki)「Ohoh, if you're young tell me your age. Can you possibly show me your status? How old is it for a human to be called young? Surely around 20?」

(Lutz)「No no, onii-san, if you got past 20 you're already old.」

(Delille)「Guh. . . !?」

Araaara, Yuki you're being mean.

As for me, as long as I can have Yuki's kids, nothing else matter.

Fufufu. . . It's good that I had meet the Demon King Delille today.

As one of our companion. . . No. I will welcome you as one of Yuki's wife.

From our conversation so far, Delille was very pure.

I needed her to be appointed as a guardian, no matter what. I must persuade her to seduce Yuki and have her waist swing.

Yuki hated coercion, but I would use everything I could to protect him.

Well, because I didn't want to be hated, I wouldn't use dirty means.

In the end, Delille had no other choice than becoming a bride for Yuki. Ufufu.

When Yuki and Delille were talking; Aslin and Philia came together.

(Aslin)「Ano. . . Onii-chan.」

(Philia)「Nii-sama. . . that person?」

Oh yes.

I understood that Delille was flinching.

Those eyes, I couldn't bear them too.

(Delille)「Ah, uh...」

(Yuki)「Oh, right. This girl is the blood-eating Princess. The Demon King. Here, come on」

Doing so, he pushed the stiff Delille in front of them.

But Delille, looking at their eyes, couldn't open her mouth in front of them.

(Philia)「Delille -san, she is the mother. Was the child worthy?」

(Aslin)「...It's the father. . . Did the child do its best to the end?」

Two tanukis were in the arms of Aslin.

In the hands of Philia was a weasel.

Delille who heard their words started to shake even more. . .

(Delille)「Ah, against my hand. . . They struggled until the very end. They were brilliant. For you, the parents, they never gave up.」

(Tanuki X 2)「「Kyuu」」

(Weasel)「Chi」

The animals made a small cry to say that they understood Delille 's words. They afterwards left the children and disappeared into the forest.

(Delille)「. . . Why did they not bite me?」

Delille had thought that she would be injured since the children were crying.

(Yuki)「You fool. Animals are different from people. They will kill and die for living. But this time, even though they died, they still had a body. In the wilderness only the bones would be left. They will now become nourishments for a next life. Those kids just wanted to make sure. They wanted the parents to know that their deaths weren't for nothing.」

He was explaining the children's attention to the slow witted Delille .

(Delille)「You mean. . . It's fine. I came here like a mad girl and they are not even angry. . .」

I didn't know what she was thinking. But Delille was staring toward the children leaving to the forest.

(Delille)「But, the girls left before I could hear their answers. . . 」

(Yuki)「No problem, you can ask the persons themselves?」

(Delille)「Ask directly?」

(Yuki)「Ara? Today you brought a lot of trouble to the Dungeon. You think that you can just lower your head, say bye and everything is done?」

(Delille)「That is harsh」

(Yuki)「At least, I want you to work here for the trouble you made. This place is not just mine, it's also the house of those girls」

(Delille)「How lenient. Is that Mine punishment?」

(Yuki)「Lenient? You just made a Declaration of War with our Management.」

After I stepped down, Delille was grabbed immediately by Tori and Riel.

(Delille)「Why, no!?」

(Ellis)「Since you just said that we are lenient, I want to make you experience it directly. And I was just thinking. Can you work well?」

Ellis had a rare smile. But she had a blue vein too.

(Ellis)「For the time being, you have to prepare dinner for 70 persons. Once finished, you will have to shop out for goods, then prepare the baths. . . . . 」

Awesome Ellis, she memorized everything.

You don't want to hear this. But later I'll give to you a lot of other works.

(Delille)「Hey, hey, wait a minute!? That's too much even for Mine body!?」

(Ellis)「Ara, are you really the Demon King? But you can't split up?」

(Delille)「Eeehh, don't mix I with a slime-like monster!?」

She said all that but she didn't start a rampage.

It really seemed that her roots were kind.

(Surakichi)「Piku—2)Surprised sfx ! !」

(Delille)「This ! ? Y, you are the slime from earlier!？」

(Surakichi)「It's my pleasure to meet you. I am Surakichi-san, I will be the one supervising Delille -san. 」

If it's Surakichi-san then my mind would be at peace.

(Delille)「Hey!? Yuki, you said that you are the Dungeon Master!? Yet you're ignoring !!! Is it okay, you're the king of the nine right!? You should send a dangerous character like I in jail!!!」

In her last struggles, she tried to ask for Yuki's help.

(Yuki)「It's a pity. But this Dungeon runs thanks to everyone's opinion. Give up. 」

(Delille)「Cooking, I have never done thaaatttt!!」

Oh, then she's not worthy to be Yuki's wife.

I'll have to teach her firmly.

Then, today was over.

Delille was lying motionless. We wanted to allot her to an empty room in the inn but she was too exhausted.

Since it couldn't be helped, I pulled another futon in our room and let her sleep.

Of course, to Yuki's room.

(Delille)「Uwa~ Yuki, You need to be gentler with me. Those girls are abnormal, this amount of work can't be done. Now I won't leave your side Yuki!! Otherwise I will be treated like today again. The name of the Demon King can't be under the feet of those girls!! That's why, don't make I work too hard, make I work normally—!!」

Delille was hugging Yuki, wagging her tail before him.

She's slacking. . . . But why was I feeling something else?

Well, no matter how she cried, I'd have her work hard again tomorrow.

Shall I have her work at the store, the entertainment facilities, or the baths in open-air?

She knows arithmetic, it's convenient.

Chapter 55 – Briefing Of The Current Condition

Side : Herge

We were done with today's work.

Yesterday Delille attacked us. But today she was way too kind.

Yuki-san seemed relaxed now. Even though Lulu-sama's place had shown no progress yet.

I was enjoying a break just after my dinner.

The schedule in the Dungeon went slightly delayed yesterday but since Delille had come today everything went back on track.

Since me and Oriel had to come out in public, we were really thankful of Delille's participation.

(Yuki)「Hello, I'm sorry to all the fairies but today you'll have to split up so that we can explain all the different facilities. Elder, how is it for your side?」

(Naruja)「That's all right. It's more popular than I thought. We usually enjoy making things a lot, and since it looks fun, everyone is eager for the experience.」

(Yuki)「Then, now I'll ask you to be prepared for receiving 300 people from Roshuru with our current staff.」

(Naruja)「Yes, I think that we're fine. Unless something extraordinary happens we can make the arrangements. Since three hundred persons are coming in the near future, should we begin to think about moving the facilities first?」

(Yuki)「You're saving me some trouble with that. How is it on everyone else side? What we're doing is tiring, so don't forget to relax and have a cup of tea.」

Yuki looked at Ellis, she nodded, and opened her mouth.

(Ellis)「Since the training school is ready and all the individualized place of work made, It's most likely that there won't be any trouble. Also, we already finished the registration of the 57 fairies. The only problem was that they could decide their birthday as they like. Because it seems that they had no sense of the date in this side area. Naruja-san took charge of the bathing section, so almost nothing is left unattended within the entertainment facilities. Well, it hasn't been long since Naruja-san joined us so what she does is already a big help. We don't have enough manpower for now to run the other entertainment facilities. ]

(Lutz)「Yes. The entertainment facilities and the bath are in charge by Naruja-san. It's 5 copper for one use, and seven people can be there at the same time. Regarding attracting the customer, and the maintenance, there is currently no problem. The only thing is regarding the men toilets, speaking of which I'd like a man from the incoming three hundred person to take the charge. ]

Hmmm, the bath really was a luxury. But thanks to our disguise we can go there easily. That said, let's head there tomorrow.

(Lutz)「Then, I'll continue. Because the training place was already brought up by Ellis, I will skip it. I'll only talk about the accounting and how it went with the shops for the past 2 days. Our income for was 12235 Fold. 12 white gold. 2 Gold. 3 Silver and 5 copper. The income can be divided with store 70%; schooling furniture 10% and bath 20%. At this rate, all the fairies property will be gone. Well, luckily all the stores are state-owned, so we can use the funds as we like. Honestly, if we don't return the money to the fairies in the form of a salary, they'll dry out. ]

(Naruja)「. . . . I'm ashamed. Although I am paying attention, the idiot who only lived in the back of the forest only have a slight sense for money. ]

Haa~, The fairy people in the store seemed to demonstrate their abilities. Giving a variety of jobs was a thing that showed various possibilities.

(Yuki)「U~n. Let's review their spending as Lutz suggested. It's been only 2 days since we opened the shops. So I suggest we should await the seventh days. It would be exactly 1 week, what do you think Elder?」

(Naruja)「Yes, we can leave it like this for now. In the meantime, we'll keep the monthly salary policy. . .」

(Lutz)「Well, the fairies haven't dried out so hang on for now. Since the calculations of the salary is really hard, can I afford to have a little more room?」

(Labiris)「. . . . You have to make it without fail.」

Ah, the place of the head was hard.

You have to hold against the shame of others. . . . .

(Ellis)「Well, just like the complaints at the reception desk, the answers on the surveys has put the store at the top of the ranking, isn't that right? About that place, they nominated it instead of nominating the goods they need daily.」

(Yuki)「Indeed, in that case, you can assure the stocks. Lutz, can you also prepare a survey-box?」

(Lutz)「I don't mind. As for Riel, she ran to deal with Super Lutz's matter, I'm sorry for her.」

(Riel)「Wow, please go to Super Lutz, I did my best.」

(Lutz)「Well, Milly has experience as a guild employee, I have experience as a merchant. Riel is an adventurer, so she's not good at that job.」

(Riel)「If that's the case, you could have told me earlier ! ! How many times have I ran back and forth today. . . . .」

Poor Riel.

Although she is serious and likable, her efforts bore no fruit.

(Tori)「Then, I'm next. For security related matter, we have 5 people and we're doing fine to guard each location. In case of a problem, the transceiver you gave us is convenient. Even if I said nothing happened, in their free time, there is still some fairies who get lost. Since the main person of the training school is Riel, she's guarding that place.」

(Riel)「Yees, as for me at the training institute, there's nothing particular to report. Ah, but thanks to the electricity there are many children staying late at night so they're sleepy in the morning. Also, there were 3 children I met in my first shift and it's likely to be hard.」

(Yuki)「While doing security work, for various unreasonable matters you can use your strength to make it stop. We still have to discuss about the salaries and the schedule but don't overdo it. If your physical condition is bad, do not push yourself.」

「「Yes」」

After that, we heard the very serious report of the soldier-san that had undergone night duty. . . . .

(Yuki)「That's right. The fairies basically don't need to eat or drink. But if they do so they will use magic power. And it'll consume more and more. So as to recover, they'll need the food and drink. Since they came here, it's fun for them to touch something else than water. If they invite other children, will the farm expand further?」

(Soldier-san)「For that area, there's no need to push more, we have merely started.」

Well, the pill bug demon were also useful. . . . .

(Philia)「Oh I-I-it's my tur-turn. . . 」

Oh, that's the cute Philia.

I wanted to take a lot of picture with her cute face and decorate my room.

(Yuki)「Philia, stay calm. No one will get angry at you. It's all right. Take a deep breath here.」

(Philia)「Ha, yes. Nii-sama. Wow, humm. Sure, humm. . . . .」

An angel.

You can say whatever you want, but my little sister Aslin and Philia are angels! !

(Philia)「. . . Here's my report. Presently we have 18 people in the forge and have made 35 swords today. And here is the prototype that was made by the fairies. . . If you need more information you can ask Naruja-san.」

(Naruja)「Yes, to continue on the report. The present situation of the forge is very good. I'm still not used to some parts, but the furnitures are very good and very easy to use. After we heard from Yuki-san about the Katana, we tried to make one. If you don't mind Yuki-san, please take it as an offering.」

Naruja-san extended her hands to give the Katana along with its beautiful sheath to Yuki-san.

The smithing ability of the fairies is outrageous. To make in one day something that would normally take a month to make is awesome.

When Yuki-san took the sword out of its sheath, a beautiful green sword appeared. . . .

Eh, green?

(Naruja)「As you can see, the blade of the sword was made with a rather special color, green. For Yuki-san, after we heard the theory behind the alloy, we worked the Mithril diligently. We infused the blade with magic. And as we had put enchantment over the blade, it became dyed in green. The main enchantments are wind and plant.」

(Yuki)「. . . . I am sorry. I received your feeling but I can't receive it as the Dungeon Master. After all, I'm only one of the representative. I will try to hand this to the head of the representative, Labiris. Is it okay with you Elder?」

The eyes of Naruja-san widened before she accepted and nodded.

(Naruja)「I was rude. Indeed, the chief here is Labiris-sama. Then I would like you to use this Labiris.」

Naruja-san said that after what she lowered her head to Yuki-san and Labiris-chan and presented the sword.

(Labiris)「. . . It's very light. Can I swing it?」

(Naruja)「Yes, the Katana, according to the capacity of the owner, will change its weight. Since the sharpness of this Katana is good and combined with enchantment, it's better to swing the sword while it's sheathed until you practiced enough.」

(Yuki)「It's big for Labiris. you have to practice diligently.」

(Labiris)「...Obviously」

Labiris-chan seemed happy with her new sword. She went on top of Yuki-san lap after a few swings.

The blade of the sword was 70 cm. With the handle it reached 1m. So for the small Labiris it height reached around her neck.

I wondered, could she really use it?

(Yuki)「There seem to be no problem with the forge. Well then, Labris, Aslin, it's your turn.」

(Aslin)「Yes, I'm doing the cooking at the school, and since I have help when I clean everything is okay! !」

(Labiris)「. . . In my place, the government office, i have received the rest of the people as officials. But it's a bit hard for them to learn because there's a lot of things to remember. Still, since they are helping the nine of us, I think we're all saved?」

Labiris-chan said that and everyone nodded.

(Yuki)「Oh, I forgot. What about you, Herge?」

(Herge)「Fue! ?」

Now that you mentioned it, I also had something to report.
Recently, I couldn't move publicly so I forgot.

(Herge)「Ahem, since my hospital is ready I can make a diagnostic or a treatment anytime. But since I don't have any personnel yet, I'm the only one who can do it. In addition, since I am working as a teacher in the school, I have yet to make a treatment at the clinic.」

(Yuki)「Well, that's right. So were there some injured in the past few days?」

(Herge)「There were. However, it was only some scratch or minor injuries. The worst injury was someone injuring his little finger while cooking.」

(Yuki)「That's a good thing. But later, some more serious injuries might need treatment. Can you not advert your eyes then?」

(Herge)「Yes, I am prepared.」

This was the end of my report.

The last... .

(Yuki)「Okay, now is my report as the real Dungeon Master. Since the invasion of Delille yesterday we received no further intrusion. And since the fairies are here for 5 days, that's about 80 000 DP. From now on the DP that can be used by the fairy tribe each day is 500. That's 79500 DP remaining after the deduction.」

(Lutz)「Yet again, that's an amazing number. That's certainly 1000MP per person so 10 DP An hour. In that case it's 560 DP for 56 People altogether. In the end, it's 13440 DP in 24 hours. Or at least. This will make my dream come true in the future～」

(Yuki)「I think we will take the direction if saving from now on. It's a bit bothersome for the nine to do the calculation. To the person that came in yesterday, here is the exact calculation and the knowledge we gathered. I think I'll leave this to you.」

Next, everyone's line of sight gathered upon Delille-san.

(Delille)「Hey wait a moment! ! Today I had to work with strange clothes as a storekeeper and then I had to clean all the bathroom with a Dreck brush!? If thou overuse I anymore, I will doubt that thou are human! ?」

(Yuki)「No, you will be entrusted as my student to calculate the DP. From now on you won't have any other strange jobs Delille-san. We would be in trouble if you get the numbers wrong.」

(Delille)「O, Oh! ? I will work exclusively on that job! ?」

(Yuki)「Yes, however, you can't be wrong. If you can't do it properly, you'll be sent to another department.」

(Delille)「T-thou can leave this to I! ! Mine arithmetic skills are top-notch, thou won't have to worry! ! It is said that I am the best candidate! !」

I wondered why? What would make Delille-san so desperate that she would behave so aggressively?

Then everyone finished their reports and we were now drinking tea.

(Delille)「But what? This girl is the Holy Woman Herge. And it seems that thou all talked about the Holy Woman of Ritea. And I am the Demon King. I guess only this Dungeon Master can take care of disasters of that degree. Well, it's funny that a lot of strange people are gathering in the same place.」

Delille-san muttered while drinking her tea.

(Lutz)「Well~. It's more amusing than a story from one of the picture books. I will never get bored with onii-san. I never knew that I could get along with a Demon King.」

(Delille)「And I never knew that he could talk with I so casually even after he learned of Mine identity.」

(Herge)「This is a fateful destiny.」

As I muttered everyone became quiet and drank from their cup of tea.

(Yuki)「No, It's not a fateful destiny at all. This situation is only natural.」

Suddenly, Yuki-san ruined everything.

(Delille)「What are thou saying Yuki? Doesn't all of this look like a fateful destiny?」

(Lutz)「Haa~, Delille. Impossible, did my preaching bring you on the right path?」

(Delille)「Umu, the talk with Yuki wasn't the key. It was the children Aslin and Philia. They made I think of various things. This is destiny.」

(Yuki)「Therefore, it's truly a misunderstanding of Delille.」

(Delille)「By what means?」

(Yuki)「In the first place, what is your warranty that you are now in the right place?」

(Delille)「Then Yuki. Can thou explain?」

(Yuki)「Oh, I just did. No one said I was right, you said that you were wrong. Is that word enough?」

(Delille)「Sure, Yuki. I am not denying it. Didn't you order I「You have to correct yourself」

arrogantly? But did thou not feel that thou preached I grandly after that?」

(Yuki)「If you think that this was a preaching then you're wrong. Since the beginning I only told you my thought over the matter Delille.」

It was certainly the same for me. At that time, Yuki-san didn't try to force his opinion upon me.

(Yuki)「From the beginning I said「You made a mistake. It is okay if you follow me.」It was as simple as that. Delille. Herge, Lulu, and everyone in this room is the same. In that case, it's not coercion. It's persuasion.」

Yuki-san said so as he looked at our faces.

(Yuki)「I can't remember preaching anyone. For me, I desperately dropped my head down, and told you to be a friend. If you think that you've failed trying to do the right thing, or you think that you are wrong, then your field of view would be very narrow. I ignore the possibility that I will fail from now. I'm trying hard to avoid that in any case.」

(Delille)「What? What I have done so far wasn't a mistake?」

Delille stared at Yuki-san, showing her surprise.

I was feeling the same. Because I think that I will live my life to compensate for what I did in the future.

In what way, us trying to atone for our sins was wrong?

(Yuki)「That's definitely a mistake. Here's your answer Delille. Innocent people may certainly have died from your fists, but thanks to that others were saved. I mean, we can not say such is a success or failure. Historians will do it later without our permission anyway. What matters is that you can have confidence in your answers until the end. So in that regard to what happened here. I will tell you that you are wrong.」

After he said that, Yuki-san glared at Delille-san and me.

(Yuki)「Well, my words are my opinions. At least, I'm sincere with my answers. If you apologize then do it. Don't do it half-heartedly. It's troublesome if you just choose to hang your head down and live because your ability isn't shown. Unless you do that, Herge, Delille, you can never find your own answer about the people you killed. Herge, it's particularly true for you, since in your case you weren't the only one involved.」

(Herge)「Eh?」

(Yuki)「First of all Seraria. That fellow isn't stupid. Still, in battle, she will never create a path for herself with destruction. Well, that's why she fights her foes, one by one. For her own belief, she had slaughtered any on her path. She, for her goals, will never stop until she reaches the end. It's clumsy of me but I have decided to not meddle with her.」

(Herge)「Chii, ane-sama1)Elder Sister. . . . .」

(Yuki)「Next is Aria. She's already prepared to be the next queen. It's not something you can change since you were publicly acknowledged as dead. And lastly, your father. He prefered his nation over you. After what she said you tried your hand with me and the evil Lulu. Believing that it will surely save many people. All beliefs of your family, Herge, are both pure and cloudy. And I admit that I'm using that to my advantage.」

Now I knew, my little sister, my sister and my father just forced a smile when they said that I did something.

If they hadn't made their move, we would have ended with empty stomachs.

So that means, for every person I saved there was a person I didn't save. I preferred to save a place with a lot of damage at the price of less damaged place.

The only difference is whether it's big or not. Yet, I only turned attention to my own answer.

As for me, I wanted to save people. But just as Yuki-san said. . . I had no confidence to do so.

When you do something in a round-about way, your actions overtake your own beliefs.

How dishonest, how selfish.

That when I did a mistake I just lowered my head.

I was just saying heartlessly「Your death was a mistake」to the deceased.

In this way, I was just blaspheming against the dead lives, thinking I did wrong.

(Yuki)「Well, if Herge and Delille can find their answer here, what I have done would be meaningful. I mean, I do not expect that anything will change.」

(Herge)「. . . Yes, after all, I haven't stopped my healing. Is this my answer?」

(Yuki)「I don't know. Because only Herge can have the confidence for that.」

My smile to Yuki-san was forced.

Ah, I was still acting like a spoiled child.

However, I couldn't mention it.

(Herge)「I'm taking an oath that until the end of my life, I'll work for the sake of all the people! !」

(Yuki)「So you will work as a doctor, is this what you mean? Well, for the time being, your results are only minimal.」

(Herge)「. . . It's cruel」

Still, I could laugh now, unlike in the past.

This is probably something my sisters had to go through too.

(Delille)「Fumu, I understand. Then I do not believe that Mine fists were wrong. And our encounter as opponents too.」

(Yuki)「It seems that Delille could find her own answer?」

Yuki-san and Delille-san laughed, looking at each other's face.

(Yuki)「Now that you both found your answers, and the lecture is over, should we get down to the real business?」

(Herge)「Eh?」

(Yuki)「There's no point if I don't explain. Well, I guessed it. The meaning behind your answer, your answer, your preparation for the future, the troubles that'll come after, did you ready yourself against those hardships?」

(Herge)「What do you mean?」

(Yuki)「This time's conflict. It started because Herge became a Holy Woman. But the problem lies in why such a thing happened.」

(Herge)「That's because the Holy Country Ritea wanted to take advantage of the situation?」

(Yuki)「Ah ahahah, thanks for the cute reply. Wouldn't targeting the princesses of an allied country and take over that country in one move be something spectacular? It could have ended in war. But in that case, only by inviting Herge to the Holy Country Ritea, and with the proper preparation, they could stop it.」

(Herge)「Please wait a minute! ? That manner of speech as if. . . . .」

(Yuki)「Isn't that right? This conflict was used as an advantage by the Holy Country Ritea. It's easy to understand, you can make the power that doesn't want to obey you crawl. By creating hostility against Herge. Then they only had to send some information to the friendly Lulu that was on good relation with Roshuru, and make Lulu die deliberately at the right place. All the opposing factions would stay silent. Well, isn't that an easy-to-understand takeover?」

(Herge?)「Fo-for what sake! ? For someone like Loire! ?」

(Yuki)「No, not at all. You don't get enough of a payback for this kind of labor. If you're smart, then you use your own power to make your own money. Because Loire had the support of the Holy Country Ritea, he could finally start thinking about overtaking Roshuru. Without any assistance, the success rate would have been too low.」

(Herge)「Why then! ! . . . . . Possibly was that the answer you talked about awhile ago?」

After I heard what Yuki-san said, I asked him in return with a distorted mouth.

(Yuki)「Ah, it was. I can understand easily the profit and loss of the people. In this case, by acknowledging the people who died in the conflict that occurred, and those who will die in the things that are likely to come, and about all the others, they all have their own answer. And they're ready to go all the way. Those who believed that their answer is correct in the end, will lead to the future.」

The more Yuki-san said, the more I became bright red.

Well, such an answer was crazy.

(Yuki)「Whichever, whether it is the same broken one as me or just a fanatic, he raised this much trouble, and we're only halfway in the game, he's not a guy with an easy-to-understand interest」

Yuki-san stopped talking, and the whole area ended quiet.

(Yuki)「That's why, Ellis.」

(Ellis)「Yes ! ? What is it! ?」

(Yuki)「From tomorrow onward, I will be going wild with Lulu in the other side, so I'll leave my part of the work to you and Delille.」

The air hardened.

Oh, he was that kind of person.

(Delille)「Ha! ? Hey, hey, wait a moment! ? Just a moment ago, didn't you say that I only had one work to do! ! ?」

Please keep up the good work tomorrow.

Chapter 56 – Severe Uneasiness

side : Lulu

I was wondering if I was smiling properly now?
Was my face overstretched?
This was the most problematic thing.

Well, where were we in the story?

(Mauve)「Thank you!! No way, you saved him, the Holy Woman!! It means that she didn't die!! I wish that I could return the favor!! If you don't mind, I'd like you to use us as an escort and return to Ritea with me!!」

(Curse)「We bear endless gratitude to you for saving our disciple whom you knew nothing about. We were feeling really anxious about our disciple. Please let us be added to your escort. Please. Even if we look like this, we're famous adventurers. If you ask around, you can hear about various things we did in the past. If you need a little manpower, please use us.」

Saying that, Yuki-san and Curse-san lowered their heads as planned. Mauve-san and Raija-san got on their knees silently and lowered their heads. There was nothing but a feeling of discomfort leaking out from them. They were not the only ones with a feeling of discomfort!?

But of course, we were the only one who knew about it. . .

(Alshtail)「Lulu-sama, these people make sense. They are certainly not a part of this mess. So, Lulu-sama. What do you think about using these persons as your guards?」

The current Holy Woman Alshtail thinking that it was a good idea pushed Yuki-san and the others as the escort.

Yes, Alshtail-sama. In the present situation, it was a good move, when you didn't know who was your true enemy, to add expert adventurers who clearly weren't a part of the mess.

Fortunately, Alshtail-sama didn't turn over our advice. In fact, maybe she noticed something, but she still added Yuki-san's group to her pieces.

..... Was it a part of your plan, Alshtail-sama?
And as expected of Yuki-san and Curse-san. ....

(Lulu)「That's right. As Alshtail-sama is saying. If you do not mind, I would like to hire you as an escort. But not only for the way, rather until we're done with something. Is that fine?」

(Curse)「To hire us, that. ....」

(Alshtail)「Wait, we don't have much in our storage. This can be counted as you being kind hearted to Lulu-sama, isn't it?」

(Curse)「But .....」

(Alshtail)「Don't you think that we are hungry, that way it won't be a problem to escort us?」

(Curse)「.....」

..... Oh please, stop that play already.
What would we do if Yuki was turned down!?
This person truly was arrogant. He couldn't read the mood. However, we took the road.

(Alshtail)「This Holy Woman of Ritea. Alshtail will hereby hire you as an escort. As Curse-dono said, there's no point if you can't move in case of emergency. You said that you are Yuki , right? Your will is a very comfortable thing, that is very encouraging in the present situation. And I think that I want to return the favor, so I would like to hear about your story. 」

(Yuki)「Yes, if the present Holy Woman wants, then we will certainly abide!! I'm very happy and serious for this duty as an escort!!」

Yuki-san looked really happy and told Alshtail.
..... Ah, I was going to faint.

(Alshtail)「Lulu-sama, I know that you're struggling whether to involve them or not. But to break the current situation, we need a lot of hand. I am convinced. . .」

(Lulu)「... No, I will follow what Alshtail-sama says. Now that we're here, I don't think that it will be bloodless. In a sense, you can certainly trust them.

They are a good hand. 】

(Alshtail)「Yes, I am fortunate that they are adventurers. There's no reason for them to be linked with the hardliners though. And they didn't try to attack you as well. Depending on how we use them, we can move favorably. As Lulu-sama said, they are a good hand to have. 】

Dear Alshtail-sama, rather than a good hand. . . . I think they would merely use a single blow to end everything.

While ending what we had to discuss with her, I suddenly recalled all the things before our current situation. . . .

(Mauve)「Whew. Finally returned】

(Kiyu)「I just got back】

We were currently renting a room in an inn. Mauve-san and Kiyu-san just returned.

(Mauve)「We finished all the quest there in one day. But regardless, everything is going as planned. 】

(Curse)「How is it Kiyu. Did you go without trouble?】

(Kiyu)「Well, I managed somehow. Do I look like a newcomer?】

Kiyu-san said so while he held a sword.

Really now, unlike the past, you're really looking like you're unfamiliar with the way of holding the sword.

(Raija)「U~n, you look like you have a bit of discomfort. But like this, you should be seen as a newcomer, right?】

(Kiyu)「So it is. But well, the blade really feels atrocious. 】

(Curse)「But, we are training so that you can look like a newcomer. So you can't show an unadapted sword for your status. 】

Yes, we were currently training Kiyu's behavior so that he would be seen as a rookie.

In the process, he had to do quests.

It's a horrible story for the monsters, targets of the subjugation quest.

(Lulu)「Kiyu-san, how is it going for Yuki-san's group?」

(Kiyu)「It seems that a problem has occurred in the dungeon, it seems that it takes times to deal with it as well.」

(Lulu)「A problem...」

(Kiyu)「You don't have to worry it's fine. Even if the problem is an intruder, they can only shift the training and resume once he's caught. It seems that I'll have more details tomorrow. But, we arrived here rather early.」

(Mauve)「It's four day with fast horses, and thanks to your direction we made it to this place half a day earlier. You knew the position of our enemies, it helped a lot.」

(Curse)「With that speed I guess we will reach that place by noon the day after tomorrow. Unlike our opposition, the speed of the travel slows a bit after some time since they have no car.」

Thanks to the car, we could arrive at this village quickly and directly settle in action.

Seriously, It's as if Yuki-san went into a lot of places... .

(Lulu)「Curse-san, what are you planning to do with the car in that direction?」

(Curse)「That's right. I have to negotiate the matter in detail with Yuki, but the rough plan will not change so let's explain it to everyone.」

We gathered as Curse-san said those words.

(Curse)「First, let's confirm our goal. Not the whole thing, only our goal in this village. Well, do you understand Kovil?」

(Kovil)「Yes, you'll make Lulu and Alshtail meet each other?」

(Curse)「That's right. However, there will be an escort around Alshtail. And there will certainly be members of the hardliners amongst them. If we do a poor job when we present Lulu-sama to Alshtail, it might be over before she even notices us. I have to do something about it.」

(Kiyu)「But, that's about me, right?」

(Curse)「Yes. But we won't have to fight at all. That's how we will make our play. As Kiyu take a serious injury in the middle of a quest, we will take him back to the village. Naturally, at that time, Alshtail would be inspecting the village. And with that timing, she'd be right at the tomb of Lulu. I will then shout something like 「Please someone, save my friend!!」Before Alshtail can make here move, Lulu-sama will come over and saves Kiyu with her recovery magic. To some extent, if she can watch you perform a recovery spell, then you should recognize that you are Lulu, isn't it?」

(Lulu)「Yes, if she can see a recovery spell, she can understand it easily.」

(Curse)「Then, if you perform the recovery magic, the people around you should be able to recognize it. And then, after Alshtail will see it, she'll come and meet with you. So Kovil will then come out and innocently say「It's nice that you are good-natured but we have to return to Ritea as soon as possible!!」And you can appeal, speaking that the fairies are cooperating with you. After that, all depends on Lulu-sama's negotiation, but we should be then hired as guards.」

(Lulu)「I understand, in the process, I can advertise the fact that I'm alive and have Alshtail testify it. If I declare boldly that I am alive instead of sneaking around, does it reduces the chance of me being assassinated.」

(Curse)「Well, about that. Because of Kovil here, the chances of you being assassinated are really low.」

(Kovil)「Umm, I don't really understand, but if anyone tries to hurt you, I will bite him up with Lulu, isn't it!!」

And now we were at the end of our reunion with Yuki-san and here's the result. . . . .

(Guard)「Alshtail-sama, can we leave the escort of Lulu-sama to such a young boy?」

One of the guards of Ritea made a complaint about what we decided.

(Alshtail)「You understand, don't you? Now that we are inside Ritea, a lot of stupid person are trying to assassinate Lulu-sama. It's terrible to say, but this young man only has to be a shield. If we can delay for a bit in due time, we can do anything. Alright?」

(Guard)「Indeed, rather than arranging someone that you don't even know if he is an enemy or an ally, it's better to make use of a friendly young man who is easy to handle.」

(Alshtail)「Yes, and that adventurer also has teachers with a bit of capacity. Altogether, they may prove useful.」

(Guard)「I understand. I'm sorry, I said something unnecessary.」

(Alshtail)「No, it's fine. With thi, you can silence the hardliners. Lulu-sama, let's return to the Holy Country at once. And let's stop the tyranny of those people.」

(Lulu)「Yes, that's why I came back.」

Dear Alshtail-sama. It was good that you tried to take advantage of him. But it was probably the other way around.

We were now inside the horse-drawn carriage as I was racking my brain over what would happen in the future.

Chapter 57 – The Princess Is A Bride

Side: Yuki

Today was the day of Seraria's arrival.

We got a message yesterday late in the night. It seems that it was planned for about 10 o'clock today.

Seraria was really a prestigious member of the military. It's natural to be late a day or two for this kind of expedition. However, she managed to bring all the immigrants in 15 days, as scheduled.

Oh, and since Lulu and Alshtail had now joined, the car was not used since then.

The Holy Country Ritea on the thirteenth day. It was the final ride inside the horse-drawn carriage.

My vacation was over in one day.

Well, I could still push it on Delille and sneak off.

(Delille)「Mou, no more ~ I will get out of the futon!! Such a treatment shall be observed. Strike!! Oh, Aslin. Will thou leave out the vanilla ice cream? Thank you. 」

Because it was in such a small notice, it couldn't be helped.

(Delille)「Umu umu. It feels good to have Yuki. I wonder if it's because we are both in our youth?」

I wasn't able to help you answer such a thing. It was better to ignore this matter.

Well, although Delille and me were now in the midst of our youth, we still had a lot of things to think about.

That's why, I can't get attached to my young companions, for now, I can't start to love them. . .

However, Delille was coming to my room to sleep every day.

And before I knew it, she had already slipped inside my futon this morning. Unlike the bodies of Aslin and the others, she has the figure of a young woman that is really desirable.

My spirit couldn't hold. And if I ever started putting my hands on Delille, I would have to put my hands on Labiris and Lutz as well.

Can you understand my feelings?

However, it was impossible to make them pregnant in the current situation. If representatives of the city happened to become pregnant in the current time, the rebound that would rise from it could make unreasonable instability.

As such, I decided to become a sage for their sake.

Recently, as if to gift my determination, my morning partner became obedient. . . . I was hoping that I could still function as a man?

(Delille)「What's the matter? Are thou feeling unwell?」

Delille tilted her head to the side when she spotted my weird behavior.

(Yuki)「. . . . No, I have endured it well. I'm embarrassed to tell you that Delille, but a healthy man should have an unwavering spirit visiting him every morning, but it's been quiet lately.」

(Delille)「Huh? What are thou speaking about Yuki? Yuki, every day I am also serious. . . . Gafu1)sfx! ?」

Later, when we talked about the course of action we would undergo tomorrow, I heard a strange voice coming from Delille.

I looked in the direction of Delille, but I couldn't find the reason.

(Yuki)「Are you okay? Do you have pain in your stomach?」

(Labiris)「. . . No need to worry Yuki. I sort of accidentally bumped my sword into her. I'm sorry, Delille」

Labiris said as she was now helping Delille.

(Labiris)「.....shut up please. .....say.....Humph」Labiris put on an air.

(Delille)「. . . . . Then!? .....Absolut ! !」

(Labiris)「If. . . . . That case. . . . I will.」

I couldn't hear the conversation but I guess it was about the pride of the Demon King?

Even though she hurted a sensible part of the body, Labiris looked upright.

(Ellis)「Yuki-san, we should be going soon.」

When the matter happened, Ellis called out to me.

(Yuki)「Now, everyone will be busy.」

Before our eyes, Seraria was leading the troops directly.

Behind them were the immigrants.

I haven't told them of how the Dungeon looked beforehand.

After purchasing the right of the land, it would be possible to control outside as well.

However, the four directions next to our Dungeon weren't in direct control. They would bring a reduced income of DP.

Also because of the difficulty of the defense, I avoided making a town there. Now, should we talk about Seraria's performance?

(Labiris)「Welcome Seraria-sama. We are delighted of your arrival.」

Labiris became known as the public representative. How? She had pronounced the speech and bowed to everyone.

Oh, by the way, since we were outside, all of them were 「Fake」

I had to take safety measures so I did it with a doppelganger for each representative.

(Seraria)「Labiris, I thank you for keeping the intention of Herge for this Dungeon. And now, Yuki. For your achievements when you stopped the rebellion of Loire. You became a noble.」

(Labiris)「Those words are wasted on me.」

(Yuki)「Ha ha, I'm really grateful. I will do my best from this day onward.」

Well, I thought you'd do it.

It is very troubling for me to be anonymous. If Roshuru wanted to put a collar because they'd be wary of me. Huh, Yuki? who is he? If I wanted to remain hidden and anonymous I had to take a lot of precautions.

Moreover, if they wanted to turn the table later, thanks to my vigilance, it would merely become an overreaction of the king.

That's why they wanted to give me a title of nobility, to control me. However, that's impossible.

Since I had never done anything. No, I had done something. But that was only something known by the leader of Roshuru.

That's why I thought it wasn't possible for me to be so suddenly ennobled. So where did that come from?

(Seraria)「Yuki's new title is marquis. And by the present, your marriage with the princess has been acknowledged, I am now formally your wife. How nice is that?」

(Yuki)「Pfft! ?」

I-it was the most troublesome thing for me!

I was appropriately set up as a noble. And if a normal wife were to be pressed on me, I could easily step back. But it's another story for Seraria.

Wait, before that, Labiris and the others went angry!?

I perceived it even from behind them.

(Soldier)「Seraria-sama, congratulation on your marriage.」

Everyone was for some reason smiling happily. . . . Why?

Strangely, the various soldiers under Seraria were celebrating in a strange way with their hands.

C'mon, it's appropriate but when could I disagree?

I couldn't convey my refusal!?

Or so Seraria said with a smile.

..... No way.

(Seraria)「I have autonomy in this place. In order to fulfill my husband's ideals, to raise someone for the next generation is absolutely necessary. And I will support all of my husband's friends. No, I would like to support someone prepared to love him and conceive his children immediately. Labiris, any idea?」

(Labiris)「Yes, I think almost all of the persons next to me, including myself, can bear his child. Will you mind something like that?」

(Seraria)「No, I won't. I have already heard about what you all have done here. It's rather fortunate. Let us support husband2) She didn't specify whose husband together.」

(Labiris)「Very well, Seraria-sama.」

..... Did I get encircled ! ?

Those guys!?

To watch this made them laugh!!

(Yuki)「..... Seraria-sama, I'm sorry but there are many immigrants. It's about time. . .」

(Seraria)「Oh, dear. Are you fine with this Seraria? Well, it's good. Dear, we can't annoy the people as you said.」

And after Seraria's acting had ended, we were now meeting as scheduled.

(Labiris)「Everybody present, let's prove now that Seraria can keep the Dungeon under control just like Herge wanted!!」

Saying so, we quickly placed houses outside the Dungeon.

Well, it's not that good outside.

Outside is merely a decoration, that's why we placed about 30 wooden houses and a lord-sized house for Seraria so that she could work when outside. ?

(Everyone)「「「Oohh ! ! 」」」

Now, we proved that Seraria could control the Dungeon.

(Seraria)「Half of the troops will remain here in defense. Kur, we will leave now.」

(Kur)「Ha!! But where are we going? It doesn't look like there is another place to sleep out there?」

(Seraria)「What are you saying Kur? Are you doubting that I control the Dungeon? In other words, the safest place is inside the Dungeon. The inside of the Dungeon is already undergoing its development. But not on the outside, that's why, shall we go? For now, I only made that much outside. Since no one would believe that a town was inside the Dungeon, I've put a figure here to give explanations. 」

(Kur)「Ha!! 」

Somehow convinced after the explanations of Seraria, Kur instructed his subordinates.

(Seraria)「Very well, I'll ask you to show the way, Labiris. 」

(Labiris)「Yes, please head this way. 」

That said, we brought all the immigrants inside the Dungeon.

In addition, the defense of the first and second floors could be skipped by using a transition trap.

But it could only be used by the representatives.

Beyond what, all the people who came here for the first time, including Seraria, displayed their surprises.

(Seraria)「This is. . . more than I expected. 」

Spoke Seraria.

Well, the constructions were mainly made of wood.

They wouldn't understand concrete.

(Naruja)「I'm glad for your visit. Are you perhaps Seraria-sama? My name is Naruja, I am the representative of the fairies. Labiris-sama and the others kindly accepted me. 」

Now came the indigenous people of the fairy tribe.

(Seraria)「We have already met on the call screen, but I will greet you once again. I am Seraria, the princess of Roshuru. I would like to express my sincere condolences for this time of disaster. And I warmly welcome all the immigrants in this Dungeon 」

(Naruja)「Yes, please take care of me now. 」

(Seraria)「My unit, the immigrants; we will all live with the fairies from now on. However, there is no need to ask more than necessary. Because we live here together. 」

(Naruja)「Yes, thank you for your continued support」

After that, having finished meeting with all the fairies, we moved to the training school.

(Millie)「Okay, everyone. This way! ! There are plenty of seats. Please sit down as you like. From now on, there will be an explanation of this Dungeon and a greeting of the representative ! 」

Millie raised her voice. She was leading the migrants.

(???)「Millie? Is that you Millie?」

Meanwhile, there was a person who called out to Millie.

(Millie)「Eh, oh, Father3)Otou-san? Mother4) Okaa-san? Sherry too?」

Millie was dumb-struck. Her eyes became really round.

(Ellis)「Here, go ahead. Everyone else is fine here. 」

(Millie)「Ah, but. 」

Millie staggered while looking around . . .

(Lutz)「Come on Millie, leave it to us. 」

(Ellis)「Please, go ahead. Don't worry, hasten. 」

In her neighborhood, Ellis and Lutz urged her to move quickly.

Furthermore, everyone else turned to Millie and nodded.

(Millie)「Oh」

Millie finally stepped forward, unconsciously.

A push in her back intended to support her.

(Millie)「O-Onee-chan 5)Elder sister. Onee-chan! 」

(Millie's Father)「Millie, thank god. We were only separated. 」

(Millie's Mother)「I'm glad. So glad. Dabrick, finally! 」

No one wanted to pour water on Millie to wake her up.

Quietly, we were watching from the side.

(Millie's Father)「I am sorry. We already received your information from the subordinates of Seraria-sama, Millie. But I didn't want to interfere with your work, I'm sorry. 」

(Sherry)「Millie, It's nice to see you safe. Millie, we wanted to relieve you but we respected your work. 」

(Millie)「Onee-chan, will I see you again?」

(Sherry)「Yeah, you will. Oto-san and Okaa-san too. Sherry is fine, you will have plenty of time to meet her. 」

Millie's father who suddenly noticed the state of the vicinity urged her to return.

The explanation had to be brought quickly so that everyone could relax.

(Delille)「The sense behind the scene we just got to watch is really meaningful. 」

Delille was glaring somehow absentmindedly in front of her.

Because everything was empty for her, they'd never return. . .

(Seraria)「Well, dear. Should we go now?」

(Yuki)「. . . That's right Seraria, how long will you stick to calling me like that?」

(Seraria)「Do you prefer that I call you Yuki? I wonder. 」

(Yuki)「Ah, do whatever you want. 」

(Seraria)「Well, I will. D·E·A·R6)A·NA·TA」

Then, they heard a speech with about the same amount of explanations as those received by the fairies.

Because of the number of people, we had to divide them directly at the school to accommodate their place of living.

The issuing of the identification card was also postponed to from today to tomorrow.

Now, it was important to have a break as soon as possible.

After that, the speech, the explanations, and the greeting of each representative ended as planned.

After they were guided to their room, we had a small welcoming party held in the dining room.

Notwithstanding, the immigrants were shedding tears of gladness.

(Seraria)「Well, now the immigrants have secured a basic roof and they also have food to eat in their hands. Even for me who have heard it from the mouth of Yuki, it's still hard to believe even after seeing. I was told that we would be self-sufficient after my arrival. However, this dish isn't anything close to normal. It's even better than the ones inside the castle. Oh, by the way, is it fine to go for Kur and the others outside now?」

(Yuki)「Good naturally. Would you like me to accompany you?」

(Seraria)「Eh, of course. Because it's my unit. But, dear. Don't you have to learn the name of your subordinates properly? Since you are my husband, you are naturally the second in command.」

Afterward, we went outside to deliver rice to Seraria's unit. And now I was finally free for today's well-earned rest.

For the time being, you can ask the fairies if you have any question, they're all wishful to help.

Meanwhile, we went back to the Inn, in the meeting room.

The escort of Seraria, Kur, wanted to follow us. But Seraria convinced him otherwise.

You might say that he was expelled.

(Seraria)「Do not be a hindrance to my honey. I'm not joking Kur, LEAVE.」

(Kur)「Of course! !」

With a single sentence and a powerful glare, she forced him out.

Sweats poured out of Kur's forehead as he saluted.

(Seraria)「. . . . . So this time around 30 children has joined us. That's a total of 355 people. But that's without taking account of our unit.」

Seraria was already used to a Japanese-styled room, so she had adapted to the current environment very well.

When we were talking about the outdoor bath, I explained to her how it was more luxurious than the indoor ones.

(Lutz)「Fumu fumu, we have received you Seraria-sama. Thank you very much.」

(Seraria)「It's fine. By the way Lutz. I don't need you to be that close to me.」

(Lutz)「Oh, I'm sorry. I was really nervous as I actually meet you face to face for the first time. My best regards, Seraria.」

(Seraria)「Yes, my best regards. Everyone don't be so stiff, inside this Japanese-style inn 7) I didn't really know if I should write off the Inn like this before, but they sometimes used the word "Ryokan" which basically means Japanese-style inn, so I will still use the word Inn unless a specificity need me to write about it, like here everyone needs to sit under the table. Well, concerning the matter of my husband. Please say something while you still can. Otherwise, I'll monopolize him every day.」

(Lutz)「Ha ha ha. What I joke, I'll shake my hips every day.」

Alas, when the girls were talking to each other, it was quite hard to meddle in.

(Aslin)「Hey, onii-chan. Where is Millie onee-chan?」

Aslin asked me. She sat on the lap of Seraria.

Incidentally, Philia was sitting on Herge's. Aslin was sitting on Seraria's. And Labiris was sitting on mine.

Seraria had without a doubt fallen in love with Aslin and Philia.

(Yuki)「Millie is meeting her family. They only had a little time today at the school.」

(Aslin)「Okay. Millie onee-chan has met her family. I'm glad.」

(Seraria)「Yes, it's good.」

Said Seraria seriously after she patted Aslin's head.

(Seraria)「Hey, Aslin. Are you missing your family?」

(Aslin)「I don't remember my family.」

(Seraria)「... I see, I'm sorry.」

(Aslin)「But I am not lonely.」

(Seraria)「?」

(Aslin)「There's onii-chan and Herge onee-chan. Also everyone ! And Seraria onee-chan too! Everyone is my family! Is it not good?」

Aslin was looking at Seraria.

(Seraria)「No, there's no way it's not good! ! Even without tie of blood, we are family! That's right, if someone bullies Aslin, I'll kill him ! ! Kawaii8) Kawaii is a Japanese word for cute , too kawaii! ! It's widely different from the call screen! 」

(Aslin)「Fuaaaa ! ?」

Seraria hugged Aslin. They rolled over the tatami.

Thus, the busy day ended.

(Kur)「Ano, Seraria-sama. Won't you introduce me?」

Asked Kur, right before bedtime.

Afterword of the author

Finally, Seraria joined the group.

15 days has passed.

Seraria has politically put a collar around Yuki by becoming his wife! !

Well, there are many other reason behind.

Also, Millie is now reunited with her family.

And Aslin was once again cherished by declaring everyone as her family again.

Chapter 58 – Level Recognition

Side: Seraria

(Seraria)「Hua. . Hua. . 」

My breathing was ragged at that moment.

My existence was something unusual among my peers with my current level, 63.

Moreover, I was a woman with one of the highest fighting job. A Valkyrie. But before her, I could do nothing nevertheless.

(Delille)「Good, that's good. The sword technique of Seraria is better than Mine. 」

She was a young woman. She stood before me with her low height. She was wearing a beautiful white dress. Someone called Delille.

We both used the same training sword, and I was using my strongest swordsmanship.

My skills with the sword had to be better than hers.

But all my slashes were returned to me.

Beautiful blue eyes. Creamy-colored hair that wouldn't stick to her face with the sweat just like mine.

Completely different abilities.

(Delille)「I don't understand what's going on with thine face. This swordsmanship of Mine is inferior to thou. It's only because Mine status art superior. 」

(Seraria)「A Demon King... Is no joke, right?」

(Delille)「Of course, there is no need to hide it」

It was only after I joined the Dungeon that I first met Delille.

Surprisingly Yuki caught someone that tried to invade the Dungeon, just after the immigration of the fairies and...

For some reason, I disliked her sleeping inside his futon. So I dragged her, a Demon King, and we played a match.

(Seraria)「Can I hear your level? I am a level 63 Valkyrie.」

(Delille)「Very well. Even though this status hadn't been seen for a very long time, Mine became aware again thanks to Mine defeat against Yuki. Level is 412.」

(Seraria)「That's... Totally unthinkable.」

It didn't look like Delille was telling a lie. She could also avoid all of my attacks with a wide margin.

350 levels... It was more than a simple difference in status.

(Seraria)「Well, my husband has won...」

While I said that, my eyes met my husband who was watching the match.

(Delille)「Give up on this, hast thou talked of this between Seraria and Yuki in the past?」

(Seraria)「Yes」

(Delille)「Your nature is different. For better or worse, thou was only keenest on continuing thine fight against me. Yuki breaketh his enemies foundation. He is a strategist. Since thou art the husband of Yuki. Thou shalt hast understood?」

(Seraria)「I know that. But can you tell me how he has dealt with you?」

(Delille)「Actually, I can. It was that slimes doing.」

(Seraria)「Slime?」

Delille turned her gaze to Aslin. The strange slime-shaped form could be seen in her hands.

「Piku」

(Aslin)「It's soft~」

(Philia)「Aslin, I want to hug it too!!」

Yes, my two angels.

(Seraria)「... Phew. Delille, one last blow?」

(Delille)「Very well, Let's become thine opponent with all Mine strength」

I stepped in with full strength. slashing with the training sword.
Delille caught the sword with her bare hand.Her fist stopped right in front of my face.

(Seraria)「..... Complete defeat」

(Delille)「Thou attacks art strong」

(Seraria)「Is your main way of fighting with your fist?」

(Delille)「It is. Mine fist is the number one power.」

Spoken like that, we lowered our arms.

(Aslin)「Seraria onee-chan. Delille onee-chan. Amazing, yo!!」

(Philia)「's amazing!!」

(Seraria)「Thank you. Aslin」

(Aslin)「W, well」

Lifting Aslin, I stroked her.

Oh, I'm healed.

Delille was also stroking Philia's head.

Yes, even a Demon King can be a nice person.

Because there's no bad person who can love these angels!!

Ah, the low-life who harbors lustful feelings to this little child, I'll kill him.1)Is that a death flag?

(Seraria)「Aslin, is there something you want?」

(Aslin)「Oh, I already have everything I want. But there is something I want to be.」

(Seraria)「What do you want to be?」

(Aslin)「Together with Seraria onee-chan!! We will be onii-chan's bride!! And give birth to his baby!!」

(Seraria)「Araara. That's a very good thing!」

(Yuki)「Hey!!」

(Seraria)「What are you saying? This lovely Aslin. I'm doubtful whether she knows what she's talking about. Well, it's fine. If Aslins says it that way I'm already beaten.」

(Yuki)「That's impossible.」

(Seriaria)「Err, but Aslin said that she wants to be your wife my dear. It's a wonderful answer. Aslin and I will be together forever!!」

(Philia)「I will marry nii-sama too!!」

(Seriaria)「Well, Philia too!! This is wonderful. Everyone is together!!」

Holding the two, I was rubbing them against my cheeks.
Indeed, I was so happy.

(Yuki)「Hey, I have something to ask, but it's a bit bad. I wonder if I could ask it?」

(Seriaria)「What is it?」

(Delile)「What?」

(Yuki)「When the level is high, will you become stronger accordingly?」

(Seriaria)「Yes, I have never heard of a difference to the point where someone is weak.」

(Delille)「Seriaria and I are the same too.」

(Yuki)「But you know, Seraria. Kiyu is one thing but the skin of Delille is really soft to touch. When I was hugged in the futon, it was really soft and tight.」

(Delille)「What? Do thou desirest I? Right now dost thou wantest the bed?」

(Yuki)「Next time2) He said next time, didn't he? ehh ~ . What I want to hear now is about how in your practice, Seraria's full blow, was stopped with bare hands?」

(Delille)「Is that so?」

(Yuki)「Why did the soft skin when stopping the blow received no damage?」

(Delille)「Because it has defensive power, no?」

(Yuki)「N~? Shouldn't the impact at least tighten the soft skin? No, if something was to come in contact with something solid, the physical strength should be stronger. But her with a lesser physical strength, is the damage reduced as a whole?」

(Delille)「No, it does not decrease?」

「「?？」」

My husband and Delille tilted their head to the side.

(Seraria)「I understand, you want to touch upon the realm of God?」

(Yuki)「Realm of God?」

(Seraria)「Yes, the only thing that represents the amount of strength of a person is its numerical value. But even if the defensive power of the person rises, the softness of the skin doesn't change. Long ago, a doubtful scholar had the same look as you. But he never understood anything after all. There is no person who can understand the impact of the realm of God.」

(Yuki)「Hmmm」

(Seraria)「Even though I can't understand the meaning I can sometimes understand the process.」

(Yuki)「Tell me more?」

(Seraria)「Something tremendously different. In other words, looking at my numerical value and Delille's one, there is absolutely no way for me to hurt her. This is why heroes in the legends of the past could win undamaged against a large number of opponents. In my country, the captain of the imperial guard is over level 100. When... you attack him with the attack power of a level 20, you can basically deal no damage to him.」

(Yuki)「Should we call 20 a number of convenience?」

(Seraria)「That's right. The average soldier of Roshuru is slightly above level 20, so they can deal a little amount of damage. Still not enough to stop a rampage. However, it's not anymore solely a fight for defense.」

(Yuki)「I understand. Thinking about it, it's yet another reason to become stronger」

My husband nodded as he thought.

Fufu, this kind of face was good.

As for my unreasonable Father, I had totally ignored his opinion with my matter. A deeper meaning behind me becoming Yuki's wife?

The interest of the country?

Don't make a fool of me. I had only brought this situation because I wanted to become Yuki's wife.

Chapter 59 – Starting The Adventurer District

side: Millie

Yesterday I had stayed with my family.

This wasn't a miracle. It only happened thanks to Yuki. He had opened the doors of this Dungeon to the people.

Without him, me and my family would have lived our whole life as slaves.

Without him, me and my family would have never met each other again ever.

It's him. he is the one who had saved me and my family.

But, he is so kind. He didn't seek anything in return.

No, according to him, he had said that we are giving more than enough in return. But from my point of view, I was still not enough.

You are sharing warmth with everyone. That is the reason why you needed to be happy.

Since I had noticed that he was often looking lonely.

I was never able to understand until I had met my family yesterday.

Yuki-san, somewhere in his heart, was looking for the soothing of a family.

As I began to understand his situation, I knew that we were substitutes for it.

That we had to shatter the shackles of his heart.

(Yuki)「Good day, Millie. How do you do? It's fine if you remain with your family for some more, okay?」

Asked Yuki, who met me this morning at the training school.

Just as yesterday when you pushed my back and when you said that it was more important than work. You were very kind.

Then again, you're conveying your warmth and worry to me.

So I decided.

Instead of being a substitute, I'd become Yuki's real family.

Dungeon master, Eternal youth, all of this whatsoever is irrelevant.

When you are around, you make everyone happy.

And that much is enough.

From now on, I won't let you feel lonely anymore.

Yuki-san, just as you offered all this to me, I will, in turn, love you with all my strength.

I'd love to bear your child.

(Yuki)「Is that so, take care. Millie」

(Millie)「Yes」

Ah.... Herge-sama, Lulu-sama, I still had a grudge against you.

However, I would have never met him if not for you.

I was sorry for my younger Otouto<sup>1)</sup> 弟 Younger Brother who passed away. But I don't want to leave Yuki-san.

Because when I see the person that I have chosen, it makes me happy.

Dabrick was laughing, he was showing to all of us the beauty of life.

(Yuki)「Yosh, Millie is also joining us today. I will speak about today's schedule. We will begin the training of the 300 new migrants. Most of the fairies already went to their respective workplace, so there's no problem about that. If anything happens with the fairies, the Elder Naruja will gather them and contact us immediately.」

(Naruja)「Yes, you can leave it to me.」

Nodded Naruja-san.

(Yuki)「We have to give a lecture to the 300 people just like we have done with the fairies. The important matter is the number of people. There are many cases that won't work well and I don't want that to happen. But, I'm not impatient. Let's do that carefully. Today we will issue the identification card. So if anyone mistakenly misses the issue, that person will be in trouble. I am more concerned about reliability than speed.」

Everyone nodded.

Most of the facilities couldn't be used without the identification card.

On the contrary, there was a possibility that you would be disposed of as an intruder.

(Yuki)「Then Millie, you have to do something different today.」

(Millie)「Eh?」

(Yuki)「Millie, did you meet the members of the Adventurer Guild yesterday?」

(Millie)「Yes, my former colleagues. Weren't they part of the immigrants?」

(Yuki)「No, they are definitely part of them. But their work is already decided. Well, if they don't agree, I don't mind them taking a different job. But they all followed me and said that they wanted to be part of the guild staff. Since they have already received their identification card, I want Millie, as their representative, to lead them to the adventurer district and establish the site. Every person has his strong point, you'd do much better than we would. Well, I want you to make official documents with reporting.」

(Millie)「... Yes」

Chi, I couldn't stay by Yuki's side...
Now, I was going for my former job.

I was going to the adventurer district with my former colleagues.

(Kina)「Iyaa, Millie is safe!」

(Millie)「That's right. Kina is alright too」

(Kina)「But this feeling is weird. Now Millie's our boss.」

(Guild Master)「Oioi, let me tell you, Millie. You're having my former position. So you better listen properly.」

(Kina)「Hue ! ? Seriously ! ?」

(Millie)「Yes, it's true. But have you heard of the works in the management? From now on, I'll be borrowing all of your help. And we will take all the important decision together. I'm not particularly putting on airs. I'm also not trying to deny anyone. I am also glad that the Guild Master wants to help.」

(Guild Master)「But, I heard roughly that the purpose of this district has been entrusted to us. Can we really do such a thing?」

Asked the anxious Guild Master.

(Millie)「Master, are you dissatisfied with something? Even at that place, Master. You complained about our manners. And each time we had an interview with a Lord, you disagreed.」

(Guild Master)「That was only an accident, however. It's only when there was a mutual insistence that I was troubled. But to leave the management of the district to strangers like us. Ordinarily, you had to pay the land fee for the guild, there are also operating costs, otherwise, there's no right to settle in a town. But this town is unusual. Kina, did you know? This town has bath and luxury goods. If a person sees... No, any normal person would understand that this is a treasure trove. ]

(Millie)「Yes, but what's wrong? Isn't it just convenient and wonderful?」

(Guild Master)「That's not it. If the division is entrusted to the wrong person. He can just kill Millie and the other representatives, take hostages and earn a fortune freely. 」

(Kina)「That... 」

Guild master brought up a problem that Yuki had already explained. It was already fully proofed, though.

(Millie)「Guild Master. About that, we already have a plan for the building we will use for the Adventurer Guild. I'm already undergoing training at the Training Field so please join me. I think you will understand. 」

(Guild Master)「Waa!? N-nonsense... The guardian appointment? Although I made these attacks with my everything, nothing is reaching. 」

(Millie)「Well, I still have my original level. So if Guild Master wanted to escape, I can't beat you. 」

Then, I explained the Guardian Appointment, the Dungeon's specificities, the weapon's limitation, and different usages limitations. After that, we went to inspect various places.

(Guild Master)「Indeed, really. It's impossible for me to do something to a representative directly. 」

However, Yuki-san has already thought of a way to escape when kidnapped<sup>2)</sup> She is talking about the ring he gave to each of the girls so that they can teleport away if they get caught .

(Millie)「Now everyone, please take a sit. I will now describe the Adventurer District. As I said, this is a town that is made together with everyone. I would like to listen to everyone's opinion, I would like to do my best with everyone. So don't hesitate to tell me. ]

I handed a copied map of the Adventurer District to everyone and explained how were the facilities divided and about the other Districts. Such as the purpose of the Inn, the shops, the management, and the hospital.

(Guild Master)「I understand. When I saw the buildings, I wondered why they were so far away. But it's for the future development, and to simplify the maintenance and the security. 」

(Millie)「Yes, as members of the Guild, we gather in the 「Management District」for lunch. Whereas we have some supplies including food, weapons, armors, and items for daily necessities in the 「Shopping district」for adventurers. In the evening, people gather in the tavern either in the 「Inn District」or the 「Shopping District」」

(Kina)「And it's wonderful that the security is managed by monsters. It's better because they don't require any expenses for their labor. 」

(Guild Master)「Hey hey, won't they turn against us? Demons were originally this Dungeon's line of defense, they were from their own military circle. 」

(Kina)「That's very unlikely. You can even hire those close to this area or use them for labor. 」

(Millie)「Yes. And after people gather in this place, the management will not work for itself anymore. We will lend out land to merchants so that they can open shops and inns. I think we will mainly manage the Adventurers Guild. Right. The Adventurers Guild. Something like a headquarter for adventurers. I will have you submit a tight report in this regard. 」

(Kina)「Ueh, something like that. It's a lot. Millie's amazing Ne~」

Kina was looking at the ceiling. She was somehow telling about her tiredness. If I hadn't studied with Yuki-san, Ellis and the others, I would probably be tired just like her.

(Guild Master)「Why Millie became a representative, I understand now. You seem to have studied quite a lot. I'm thanking Seraria for that. 」

(Millie)「Well, I'd like to move on to the next explanation, but before that, Yuki taught this knowledge, I thought I had to tell you so there is no mistake there」

(Guild Master)「Eh, is he a representative? Did Seraria-sama help the prince3)Ouji-sama?」

(Kina)「The prince4)Ouji-sama?」

That's not true!! He stopped that scheme and rescued a princess from the castle!! So, what is your relationship with Yuki-san?」

(Millie)「I am Yuki-san's concubine.」

(Kina)「Uwa, is it not marrying for money of power!! I'm jealous!!」

(Millie)「I'll still retain any ill words I have toward you because you looked innocent. But the next time you're hinting that I was seduced by his money and power, I will blow you up.」

(Kina)「Kidding, kidding. But then, should I have a go?」

(Millie)「That's not really something to say. Well, I don't intend to stop you Kina if you want to go. But if you're after his money and power, Seraria-sama and his concubines, including me, will prevent you by all means. I guess Kina has already heard about the nine representatives and our goals. We can't try to acquire power for our private interest. Everything has to be useful for the town.」

(Kina)「Humm, I don't really get what you're saying. Yuki-san doesn't look like he is a bad person. But Millie, you don't look like you're dedicating your everything.」

(Millie)「That's something you can't say after we just met. When you don't even know how hard is it to work for this place?」

(Kina)「I see. Can you cooperate if I seriously say I want to love Yuki?」

(Millie)「I do not know until that time comes.」

(Kina)「Buu, but I also want a share of happiness!!」

As we discussed about Yuki, lunch time came close. So we decided with everyone to go to Super Lutz and buy bentos.

Ah, the distance between each floor was incredibly far away. But don't worry. By using Transfert trap we could move around easily. Each block of each District was connected to others.

Unless you fail the inspection, time or distance wasn't a problem.

(Guild MMaster)「He-here, it's unbelievable.」

(Kina)「W-wow, what's this? And what's this? ! ?」

Everyone I had brought along was surprised as it was their first time seeing the big store.

No, they might have already seen something of this size. But never something like the inside.

They were even afraid of the automatic door.

I laughed involuntarily.

Yuki-san had often endured, didn't he?

After all, Yuki-san is amazing. He is very gentle.

He doesn't laugh at your ignorance. Instead, he teaches you.

And the most important. He isn't lamenting but he moves forward.

Today, the 300 migrants were still eating inside the training school. They had yet to be used to this place since it was only their second day.

Now they were joined with the fairies. They were already in the midst of their meal.

(Fairy)「Welcome ~」

(Nana)「Ah, I'm one of the migrants who came yesterday. I'm called Nana. I look forward to working with you.」

(Rock5) ロック could be translated as Rock or Lock. Since he's a boy, he will be called Rock. )「Ah, you're polite. I am serving as a Guild Master for the Adventurer Guild. I am Rock」

We were greeting with everyone. First was Nana and second the Guild Master.

(Fairy)「Ah, I understand. You are the people from the Adventurer Guild that Lutz-san told us about. So that means, have you heard about the shops from Millie-san?」

(Nana)「No, we still haven't. If you don't mind, could you explain?」

(Fairy)「Yes, please leave it to me!! Then, I will introduce you to Super Lutz」

Like that, Nana heard about Super Lutz... No about all of the shops. Since you are paralyzed if you don't go first at the cash register, there is no possibility of thievery. You have to put everything in your basket.

(Kina)「Hey Hey!! Millie, what's this!? It's cold!? I'm freezing!? How should I eat this!?」

(Millie)「Calm down Kina. This is frozen food. You can't eat frozen food directly. You have to warm it in a microwave. you can do that at the Guild or in your house.」

(Kina)「Eee!! Well, so what about this, and .....」

(Millie)「Hey, Kina!! We have to work now, so leave that for a later meal. !」

We had that kind of exchange...

(Guild Master)「..... sorry」

The Guild Master Rock-san and the other representatives, with the exception of Kina, all lowered their heads to me.

They had shopping bags in both their hands.

(Millie)「Wa... Anyway, since there are frozen foods that you should be preserved in a refrigerated storage, we will return to the Guild with haste. We have a large refrigerator over there.」

In a hurry, we returned to the guild, and we brought what we bought in the freezer and refrigerator.

(Kina)「Wow, this is delicious!!」

(Rock)「This whiskey is wonderful, it's intense, but I like that!! What about you Millie, do you want some whiskey?」

(Millie)「Oh no !! Please don't drink alcohol!! We're at work. At work!!」

Oh, I wondered if I had to show them to their room in the residential area early today.

Already too late, they'd have to sleep within the Guild.

There's no other choice but to use one of the rooms... How should I explain this to Yuki-san.....

I'm afraid it would be impossible for me to drink!!

Chapter 60 – The Holy Woman Awakens

side : Lulu

(Lulu)「Haa, Yuki-san. Somehow he is quite free.」

(Yuki)「.....Suu1)Sleeping SFX」

「.....」

Especially right now, what could be the reason to lay down in sleep...

(Mauve)「Oh, ah. Yuki left me here alone, it seems that Seraria came yesterday to the Dungeon.」

(Lulu)「Hmm, is that so? Which reminds me, he did say that she would come after 15 days?」

(Mauve)「In addition, the fact that we're protecting Lulu jou-chan shall remain silent. We cannot make contact carelessly hereafter. That's why Yuki is probably thinking the same.」

(Lulu)「In that case, if he tells Seraria that he needs to help me, he can just let her in command of the Dungeon, she can bear the responsibilities...」

(Mauve)「About that. It's because Yuki has to take care of Seraria, her guards, and the immigrants. It would be hard for him to watch over from here.」

Yuki-san who was lying beside me suddenly made a drowsy nod.

..... You're very tired, right?

(Lulu)「Ahh」

When I was looking at Yuki, the carriage shake and Yuki fell over, his head on my lap.

(Yuki)「Suu2)Sleeping SFX... Suu...」

(Lulu)「Why is his sleeping breathing so quietly? In various ways, I think that it suits him nicely.」

Yuki-san was 18 years old according to his confession.

I wanted to retort but failed.

I'm feeling like there's something, so his 18 years old was probably a lie.

I'm certain that he was even younger than that.

Kiyu was really young, but Yuki was almost... like baby-faced.

Because right now, what I was seeing on my lap was a sleeping boy instead of a young man.

I stroked his head unconsciously.

I feel like I was stroking that black hair of Yuki in my sense though it was the head of Kiyu.

Yuki-san was full of wisdom. He was almost like a child but he nevertheless stretched out to save us?

You should have chosen to live quietly at the Dungeon. Yet, regardless of our mystery, you chose the thorny way. What made you do that?

That's what I'm believing after all. Why? You could have used me to attend your lust, but you pushed me away?

If I was a hindrance, you could have hidden out of everyone's eyes, so why?

From a political point of view, what you did was too sweet.

But in the end, you reached a point that would lead to profit and create a good condition for everyone.

Wasn't the treat you sweetly administered wastefully wasted?

It was easy to say but very hard to do.

(Lulu)「Yes」

(Mauve)「Jou-chan, are you leaving him like this?」

(Lulu)「Yes, it is okay」

Since more time was needed before he would wake up, I was thinking about how I could repay him later while stroking his head.

Goton3)SFX.

(Lulu)「Fua!?」

The carriage suddenly shook heavily and I raised my head.

Somehow, I seemed to have also fallen asleep.

(Yuki)「Suu4)Sleeping SFX... Suu...」

(Lulu)「Ahh」

And somehow, I was hugging his head without knowing.
If you were to look from the side. Would we look like lovers?
Half of his head was hidden inside my large breasts, they were used as a pillow.

(Lulu)「Now, I am your older sister. So just for the time being, please stay as you are now」

For some reason, I tried to justify myself as I misunderstood him for my brother.

Now that I thought about it, when I was in the Dungeon, I couldn't see his face because of Labiris and Lutz-san.

No, It was because I couldn't afford to do that.

Because at that time, I was trying so hard to seduce him in order to survive.

Ah, I see. That's because you can't hold a woman just for the reason that she has a nice body.

At that time I had no worth.

I didn't love Yuki-san. I didn't want the dungeon to prosper. I didn't want a child. The only reason I had done this was that I wanted to survive. Not for the country, not for my beliefs, but for myself.

Moreover, it was because of a condition.

I don't think that I could have loved a child made because of this reason.

You can't tell to a child that his birth had no meanings.

No, in this state, I might have suicided before I gave birth to a child.

When I was thinking about all that, Yuki-san, in the middle of my breasts, started to move.

To ascertain what was holding him, he rubbed and hit my chest with his hand.

(Lulu)「An~ ! ?」

A slightly embarrassed voice came out from me.

(Yuki)「Hmm. Ah, It's Lulu's boobs. Yes, rubbing them feels comfortable, they are stretching nicely. I like it ~.Anyway, thank you.I will return to sleep slowly.」

(Lulu)「..... Won't you apologize after you rubbed a lady's chest?」

(Yuki)「No, because Lulu's holding me. In that case, you granted me the permission. And I praised them properly? I like them.」

(Lulu)「Well, it's fine but, does "like" mean that you have interest in my body?」

(Yuki)「Well, you have a good body. Especially your chest. There should be only a few people who aren't interested.」

(Lulu)「Then, can you be the one holding me next time?」

(Yuki)「Why are you asking that? Lulu is already a guardian of the Dungeon, so the story of what we just did is already gone. Lulu, because you are under the Guardian Appointment. You can't leak a secret. Even if what we are going to do ends up in a failure, our secret is protected. And if it ends up in a success, then, Lulu will support the Dungeon. This isn't a matter of borrowing and lending.」

Yes, it was true.

Yet.....

(Lulu)「What are you saying? I have already admitted publicly that I'm supporting Yuki-san's Dungeon. That's an unconditional matter that can't be interfered with. At the very least, someone has to stay permanently in the Dungeon and watch over it.」

(Yuki)「Well, maybe so.」

(Lulu)「I think that I'm the only one suited for that. Am I not?」

(Yuli)「Well, I would be thankful if someone who knew of our internal matters could be stationed at home.」

As Yuki-san said, if a newcomer was sent to the Dungeon it would only bring troubles.

Even more, if he was a messenger of another country. When you find someone who could restrain from that, it's really convenient.

In other words, I.

Along with my backers, I think that I had a nice leadership. I could completely monitor the Dungeon and help with its construction.

Because I could do it from a nice standpoint.

(Yuki)「But, what is your reason that you asked me to embrace you? I was not necessarily trying to entice you. But since Lulu has done it herself, it's different.」

(Lulu)「What are you saying? I can more or less say that I was the one to assassinate Herge. No, but, I was at the top of the country which tried to assassinate Herge. That's why, if I come to surveil your Dungeon, various frictions would be born. However, that wouldn't happen if I married you, right? Even the position of the first concubine is fine for me. Besides, how do you think the neighborhood would see it?」

(Yuki)「..... It would be understood as an apology from the Holy Country Ritea. And, for the Dungeon... No, for the Roshuru, it would be equal as a holding an hostage. Because when it comes to the Dungeon, it would also count as confinement.」

(Lulu)「Yes, for the Holy Country Ritea, even if they are under the Holy Woman Alshtail-sama, since I was a former Holy Woman it would still bring various troubles..」

(Yuki)「Well, in the case that Lulu goes to the Dungeon, It would also be an apology for the assassination that only the elites of the upper level know. It would also halt any preparation Ritea could make to rise another political strife.」

(Lulu)「Yes. Furthermore, if Roshuru and Ritea try to stop my pregnancy, that would be yet another reason to turn my back against them.」

(Yuki)「..... It's difficult to move in this continent. So if ever you become pregnant, it will be hard for you to move from your location for a time being. Of course, you won't be able to take part in the politics of your country anymore. Even if you raise a child only for some time and return afterwards, they would say something like「Now what?」」

(Lulu)「Yes, so the noble who supports the country would raise the birthed child in the capital.」

(Yuki)「I understand the reasoning behind it, but as for the motive.....」

(Lulu)「Yuki-san is the first to whom I showed such a figure.」

When I was prostrating myself on the ground before him, naked, and he took my breasts with both hands he... hentai desu5) You pervert

(Yuki)「.....」

「Of course, it's not just from a political point of view. I also want to eliminate the frustration from Millie-san and Kaya-san. And I would like to see with my own eyes the town that Yuki-san is raising. I also made a promise with Herge-sama. Or do you prefer it like this? Because of my ideal, I came to the country of Roshuru where I encountered an unfamiliar man who seduced and lured me into his Dungeon? Shaking his waist?」

(Yuki)「.....」

(Lulu)「In general, you cannot choose who will be your partner for marriage. Especially for those who are at the top of a country, like me. But now, there is a man whom I want to choose. If I can have that person's child, I'm sure that I will love him from the bottom of my heart. Now, can I hear your answer?」

(Yuki)「Huh ... please do it. For now, as a premise, protect your abdomen tightly until we come back. Because with the current body I have at this side, I'm too young to have a child.」

(Lulu)「Yes, I have to survive without fail. Fufufu... My motivation grows. Will you help too, my husband?」

(Yuki)「Aren't you too quick? What am I supposed to do.....」

(Lulu)「Love is something unreasonable. But, if you make this kind of remark in front of Labiris and Lutz you'd be beaten you know?」

(Yuki)「Why?」

(Lulu)「You're too thickheaded. No, are you doing it on purpose? 「What is good about Yuki-san?」Haven't you already heard the answers from them?」

(Yuki)「What is it?」

(Lulu)「Everything about you is lovely. I won't allow you, my dear, to deny that.」

Yuki-san was surprised at what I said and he tried to avoid my eyes.

(Yuki)「Eto, I don't want to be called a womanizer.....」

(Lulu)「What's up now? I won't allow that.」

(Yuki)「What are you saying?」

(Lulu)「Everything about you is lovely, I won't forgive you if you deny that. The one who pushed my back when I was lost. You can't be menial now, please, for me!!」

I fully stretched Yuki's cheek with all my strength.

Oh, it was the body of Kiyu. I am sorry.

Chapter 61 – The Building Of The Dungeons Has Begun

side : Tori

About seven days had passed since the immigrants came from Roshuru. There were many people who had made trouble, but so far no one had blamed us.

Speaking of trouble, the supplies for training were scrambled everywhere. The person who had to pick all the colored pens by herself was me. This mess came from a third party.

Two idiots 1)Baka, one was transferred into the reflexion room for some time. And the other one was made cleaning the toilet as a punishment.

There were various places but amongst them, the place for the laundry is especially small. And since it's in line with the toilet, someone didn't make his share and it was brought to attention.

Just like everyone from the fairies, one of the new immigrants exhausted all his money so he requested more. Oh, he was ordered not to try and extort money anymore with the help of the slave collar.
It could be used in such a convenient way!

Well, from the 355 new people, 30 of them were assigned to my police force. It was a trial period. But since I explained everything and selected the place neatly, I was glad that they were doing their best.

Also, since there was the former newcomer of the fairies, even if they had to work in a place they had no knowledge about, it was still not a problem. I needed to halve part of my people so that they could intake the security training from Riel.

Since I was a representative, I made my subordinates work at my office along rotation shifts. I asked them to calculate salaries, to check our necessary supplies and various others administrative tasks.

On an extent, Riel had been helping for other matters than the security training. But Kaya couldn't since she was busy working the land 2) as in patrolling. She almost never came here.

(Tori)「There was a big increase, in a short amount of time, of the number of people who started to work. Since the town has begun to work at full steam, the police was already issued to the place the residents are supposed to move to.」

While I was thinking about the future and I was working on the report, I noticed that the time reached noon.

(Riel)「O~~i, Tori. We have to it with everyone for lunch, we have to treasure this moment.」

Riel blew into the room.

Which reminds me, did Riel just say that we will eat lunch with every representative, was it a meeting?

(Tori)「Wait a minute. I'm not done.」

I said that and resumed my work on the last document.

(Riel)「Well, after today's lunch with everyone, we will all diligently resume work without meeting. Just confirm the replacement with the night shifts. If you have any problems.....」

I spoke to the policemen who were still working at their desk and got out.

(Riel)「Iya, the head of the police is very serious ~」

(Tori)「What are you talking about? Even Riel as the vice-chief is doing her paperwork properly?」

(Riel)「I just fill out the documents prepared by Yuki-san and Tori. Nothing to the degree of Tori.」

We arrived at the Inn after I had a talk with Riel.

「Oh, you both came.」

(Tori)「I'm here.」

(Millie)「Waa~, if Kina discovers this place, she'd blame me for hiding this.」

(Ellis)「Fuu, the hot water was nice. Ah, Tori and Riel, you're here.」

That's how all the representative talked before we all sat.
And so far, we all talked about where we wanted to sit.

(Lutz)「Ye~s everyone, I kept you waiting!!」

(Yuki)「Aslin, take it slow.」

(Aslin)「Nii-sama, Nii-sama!!」

(Yuki)「Yes yes, I'm following you properly.」

(Labiris)「... Yuki, tell me something too?」

(Yuki)「What do you want me to say?」

(Labiris)「... That you love me?」

(Seraria)「Please say that much. As my husband, you need to get used to dealing with women.」

(Labiris)「...As Seraria said.」

(Yuki)「What are you girls saying indiscriminately?」

When Yuki-san said that, Seraria-sama and Labiris-sama pinched his cheeks.
And his leg got kicked.

But from the side, they looked like a parent and child.

(Yuki)「Then, today it's a bit heavy for lunch but we're having marbled steak.」

Yuki-san arranged steaks in front of everyone.

Until now, I had eaten several steaks different from this continent.

With plenty of spices and excellent sauce.

Too much!! Such a wonderful taste!!

Moreover, it's marbled!! It's tender!! It's soft, it's melting!!

Do you understand? Such meat exists!!

White rice was included with the meal. An all-purpose food, so versatile!!
Even fried, or when given sauce, the taste is so deep and it's really good!!
The Dungeon is full of taste!!

That's why I was greedily eating.

Indeed, I was so happy.

After I ate something persistent, although it's a bit too fatty, I drink a bitter tea called green tea in one breath.

It's a luxury too ~

(Lutz)「Iya~, delicious as usual huh? Nice meal. I don't have the confidence to live outside anymore. And onii-san. Why did you make a lunch with a dinner?」

Instead of me who was becoming senile, Lutz asked the important question.

(Yuki)「Well, since there will be many people without dinner today, I made a lot for lunch.」

(Lutz)「What do you mean? Any work?」

(Yuki)「Oh, Millie with her personnel began to move at full-scale at the Adventurer District. But something is missing. Right, Millie?」

(Millie)「Yes, we don't have any Dungeons to attract adventurers. So, I'm sorry everyone, but I would like you to make a Dungeon like we talked in a previous meeting. Of course, it's not a problem of today or tomorrow. But hopefully the earlier, the better. I'm sorry Ellis and Lutz, but I decided to make a training dungeon with the guild members. You two wanted to make one too, right?」

(Ellis)「I understand, something like that. Do you make this Dungeon so that you can watch over the adventurers? I understand the story of Millie. We don't have any problem with that.」

(Lutz)「Well then, Millie do your best.」

(Millie)「Thank you.」

I see, we already became accustomed dealing with DP by doing various things, and now we had to make a Dungeon with them?

Because it was something awesomely fun, it's not unusual to forget a meal.

(Yuki)「Well, it's just that. Once in awhile, we will contact you for dinner, but if you're busy, don't mind refusing. But you have to come back here before 10pm. Otherwise, I'll take you out by force. What you do can't interfere with tomorrow's work.」

「...By force...Hue?」

「... Princess carry?」

(Lutz)「... Onii-san's compulsion... rather than being forced... it's like a reward, for me...」

Seraria-sama, Labiris, and Lutz were grumbling something, Let's leave them alone.

There are some things I did want to hear more than that.

(Riel)「Yuki-san, I have a question? When we mutually make it properly, we will have to confront size...」

「「「He」」」

Everyone, as if struck by my remark, made round eyes.

(Yuki)「Of course we thought about it. Mille will explain now.」

(Millie)「Yes, if we make a lot of Dungeons at once there's the risk that they collude together. As a result of our discussion, we decided that all Dungeon has to be moderate in size. The specific area is 2km<sup>2</sup>. The teams who make the Dungeon are the same as before. In this paper, I wrote instructions and listed the members, please read it carefully.」

We received notes about making the Dungeons.

(Yuki)「Oh, for the creation of the Dungeons, I expanded the walls next to the Adventurer District 20 km further. Please make them there. We extended the number of location to 8 since Mauve and Seraria are somehow added. Please discuss with everyone and select which room to occupy. Once you decide your location, a transfer field will bring you there so that you can make the Dungeons.」

(Lutz)「Uh? Oh, the adventurer will also use the transfer field? No matter how you see it, 20km to walk is too tight.」

(Millie)「It's just like Lutz said, but it will be limited for those who have already found the Dungeon. In the beginning, the guild will offer money and ask them to search by walking.」

(Lutz)「Umm, are you sorting them out?」

(Millie)「Yes, that's the information we will share. And that the deceased may become many. Of course... The monsters won't attack at all those under the Guardian Appointment, but will intercept all the others. Of course, they might die.]

(Lutz)「So if you can't reach it, you are not qualified to challenge the Dungeon?」

(Millie)「Yes」

I understood, as one would expect from Millie. I didn't think so far. I thought it would be a problem if you were showed the way.

But if you didn't have the skill to challenge a high leveled Dungeon it would be a problem.

Considering that kind of thing, it's a good idea.

(Millie)「And, sorry. I want the closest place to the Guild for the Beginner's Dungeon we make. Is it okay?」

(Lutz)「It doesn't matter. Because only a fool would go far for training in the beginning.」

No one had a problem with that.

(Yuki)「Then, let's talk together everyone and choose where you want to build. And let me say this. You can use your DP income freely there. Because the DP earned by each Dungeon will remain within each Dungeon to prevent the need of strange calculations. But please contact me if you change anything in the Dungeon. Be it map, traps or monsters. We have to warn the adventurers accordingly to the change of difficulty. Good luck~. Even if there is a lot of treasures, if the monsters are too strong from the beginning or if there's too many traps, the adventurers won't stay for long. Balance it well.」

Mumu3)light chuckle, Yuki-san said.

When a monster is too strong, they won't go inside. And if there are too many traps, it's too bothersome.

If there's too much treasure, in the beginning, there's no need to take the risk. But since the adventurers want to keep their lives and safely earn, there's no need for them to take an unreasonable risk as well.

(Riel)「Hey hey, Tori, Kaya, do your best and get a lot of DP!! I want「Muramasa」!!」

(Kaya)「... Riel. This sword is certainly over 100 000 DP.」

(Tori)「Why do you want it?」

(Riel)「Er, are you not both interested? A sword with a cost of 100 000 DP? It's surely amazing!!」

(Riel)「Well, the amount, don't you think it's too much?」

(Kaya)「... Now we must first decide our location」

Thus, we were immersed in making Dungeons.

Chapter 62 – The One Who Can't Read The Air

Side: Mauve

There are lots of unreasonable things in the world.
Amongst them were these guys in front of me.

(Yuki)「Oh, yes yes. I guess he's right?」

Right now, Alshtail... The current Holy Woman was raiding the hardliners alongside Yuki.

At this point, the hardliners were almost all destroyed.

By the way, a soldier from Ritea had been caught by Yuki when they were in the process of investigating Lulu's assassination. He then confessed (No harm was done to the soldier in the process) about whom investigated the assassination. They were someone Alshtail had already looked over.
And, the shreds of evidence were found easily and Lulu was still alive. She stated that she had survived the assassination.

The one who had the biggest achievement in that wasn't Lulu. It was Kovil who made a promise of friendship.

They had to acknowledge that, if Lulu received any harm, the relationship with the fairies would worsen

Even the nobles who wanted to silence Lulu couldn't stay still before the profit.

So, the hardliners tried to break the two Holy Women in their last hope for survival.

And one of them told that everything hadn't happened without reason.

「You cannot save the citizens of the Holy Country with the current policies!! Rather, did you know!? Many children don't have any food today!! If there is no money, you can only watch your family dying!! Now if faith cannot save something important, then I don't need it!! This is the largest city on this continent!! More than 10 000 people are starving, and the only thing faith brought to them is to plunder their money!! They don't even know for what, but they donate!? Their donations shouldn't turn into your luxurious meals!! It is not made for extravagance!!」

A young man in front of us said that.

Well, I guess he was right...

That didn't change the fact that we got involved.

(Hardliner 1)「..... I understand where you're coming from. However, in an attempt to defend your cause, you assassinated Herge and almost killed Lulu. The countries of Roshuru and Gai almost broke up into war. What would happen in that case? Hundreds? Thousands? Millions of deaths?」

(Hardliner 2)「..... I understand. But, it's better than having this policy here all the time. If we could use the war's distraction, we would have saved all the rest of the world. 」

(Yuki)「In other words, when you don't have a method you start a fight and take lives?」

(Hardliner 1)「That's right!! As we are right now... A lot of children, in the land near the castle, are starving. Have you heard? There's almost no food distributed there? Somewhere an idiot is stockpiling in his pocket. In that case, why can't we purify the top of our country ourselves?」

Oh, this guy...

(Hardliner 1)「What do you know? In desperation to get by tomorrow, my sister opened her hips to an unknown man to the point of becoming pregnant. Yet she raised her child carefully. But since her donation was small, and her body was weak, they both died!! My sister was crying!! I couldn't help the child!! I ran around desperately, but being a child too, no one gave me any work. !」

... They're everywhere. But this one was his story.

So he was working hard, desperately trying.

The two Holy Women, bewildered by the story, closed their eyes.

Well, that's because they had grown up sheltered.

(Hardliner 1)「I was crying. I was holding my elder sister and her child's remain. Some nice guy came over and helped me bury them. Oh, you'd say that it was not some proper funeral. But for me, it was a respectable funeral. And even so, there are less and less friendly guys like this one. Do you know why? There's NO FOOD!」

「.....」

(Hardliner 1)「Shut up!! What were you doing at that time!! Don't tell me that you were training, studying your talent as a maiden!! That you didn't even have any food to divide with us!! Are you a fool?!! Now I don't need an apology, it won't change anything!! I will cut your neck and drop it within everyone's grave! And I will make a country where we can all live!! Otherwise, what's the meaning? My sister died. Everyone died... Why I survived?」

Mou, stop it already.
I moved forward one step.

(Mauve)「I sympathize with your circumstances. But because of you, I have lost my family. The jou-chans in the back don't know, but isn't that a reason good enough to kill you?」

(Hardliner 1)「... Well. But I can't afford to die here. There is something I have to do. There will be plenty of them. I will build your graves properly unlike others.」

We both pulled our swords and got into position.
Oh, I understood, he was amazing.
He was actually stronger than me.
I wonder if he maddened because he was at the doorstep of his death.
But there was no reason why I couldn't beat him.

Looking at him, I saw an opening and...

(Yuki)「Oh, yes yes. I guess he's right?」

I slipped.
Th-that bastard.
Why couldn't he take this seriously!?

(Yuki)「In other words, If all the refugees in Ritea can be saved, you'll stop the fight here?」

No, that was impossible, something like this.....

(Hardliner 1)「Such a thing is impossible. Even if the Holy woman calls for it, they can at best survive for 2 or 3 months. There's almost nothing in the treasury except for that. Us... No we want a happy country that protects us from starving. I know it is an ideal. But it will do better than the current situation.」

Oh, he responded seriously

Stop it, you can't argue with Yuki, he's unreasonable.

Alshtail probably didn't understand what he means, but Lulu was on the verge of fainting.

Curse and Raija, trying to escape the reality, were looking at the window.

Wow, the hands holding the sword, were they shaking?

(Yuki)「Your name?」

(Crack)「That's not a way to call out. Well, whatever. I am Crack. And he's Dest.」

The man who was previously trying to attack bowed slightly.

(Yuki)「Ok. You come under me, now. I'll resolve your problem but it's time-consuming. Quickly. Rather than whiny lose with the Holy Women.」

Wow, I had a bad hunch.

(Crack)「What do you mean? Like I said, it's impossible.」

(Yuki)「No, please hear me out onii-san. Recently my economy is booming. And I'm kinda short of hands there. Don't worry onii-san. No matter how many people you say, it's fine. Yes, but I just need 1 or 2 months to prepare. So can you cooperate with the Holy Women?」

Thus, Yuki looked at Alshtail and Lulu jou-chan.

(Alshtail)「Yu-Yuki, what stupid things are you saying. Of course, we heard the stories earlier... But they're not a reason to help them out. Well, let's say we help them. But, Yuki. What you are saying is a delusion. First, even if such a place exists, the time of the travel will cost huge expenses. And, from the story we just heard, it doesn't look like they have any energy to spare.」

Alshtail naturally disagreed.

Yes, that was that. Everyone would think the same when they don't know Yuki.

(Yuki)「Do you think the same Lulu?」

Wow, how can you ask such a disgusting question to a miserable face.

(Lulu)「..... Y-you, how far can you be soft hearted?」

Oh, was she saying that he was soft hearted?

Hey, who was she talking about?

That choice was a bit stupid. Nevertheless, wasn't it a spectacular move?

Now that the immigrants from Roshuru had come, the Dungeon was earning a lot of DP.

Next, he needed more manpower to extend the city.

But since this place was so far away, it couldn't be carried off.

Oh, was I right?

There was something I understood but also something I didn't.

(Yuki)「Is it no good? Lulu?」

(Lulu)「..... Absolutely, let's have a talk afterward.」

(Yuki)「Yes yes」

Just like that, a conversation was established between the two persons. Lulu took a breath and said.

(Lulu)「Yuki's proposal, this Lulu here is warrant. If you cooperate, the people you want to save the most will be rescued. Seems like you want it? For your friends desperately living at the land near the castle.」

(Crack)「Yes, but I can't believe it. although it doesn't look like this guy is lying...」

At that moment, when he was worried whether lowering his sword or not, his sword suddenly broke.

(Yuki)「Well, it is already troublesome, so either you believe me or you'll end like that sword. You have 10 seconds.」

(Crack)「What!?」

Crack was surprised, but he couldn't move his sword.
Ah, but his sword was broken. Yuki broke it, of course.
But that method, truly one sided.
Mou, all members were speechless.

(Yuki)「8... 7.....」

The countdown started nonetheless.
Too ruthless.
Kovil was shaking, she embraced Lulu.

(Yuki)「5... 4.....」

From the time 5 was reached, the building 1) yes, they were in a building and not ambushed on the road started shaking. Cracks could be seen on Crack's armor.

「Oi Crack. Quickly agree!! After the countdown, you'll become dust!!」

Mou, Crack was no longer an enemy. He became a victim that needed to be rescued.

(Crack)「O-okay!! I believe, I believe in what you said!!」

Mou, neither the Holy Woman nor Crack held the initiative.
The one whom held it.....

(Yuki)「Then, since we need a gate, let's make a Dungeon here.」

...Was the tyrannical and capricious Dungeon Master.
Not good, my stomach was hurting.
When we return, I'd have to drink Cabagin 2) Medecine for stomach pain
